BOWLERS REACH CENTURY AVERAGE 36 TIMES IN PLAY YESTERDAY

SEVERAL YOUNG ROLLERS DOING EXCELLENT WORK

Both Local Teams Lose—Many Fans Witness Games

Sensational bowling marked the first day's play in the Maritime Provinces and Eastern Maine championships which opened on the Y. M. C. I. alleys yesterday morning. The ten teams competing for the honor which includes possession of the Brunswick-Balke-Coller trophy for the year fought every game right to the end. The class of bowling yesterday was shown by the fact that no less than 86 times a bowler concluded his three strings with an average for the game of 100 or better.

The contests, which started at 9 o'clock and continued right up until nearly 2 o'clock this morning, were witnessed by large crowds of enthusiastic fans. The games started promptly as soon as the others were finished and the bowlers worked for every pin.

The first day saw both Saint John and Moncton meeting at least one while St. Stephen and Moncton ended the day's play, tied for first place with three wins and no losses each. The Y. M. C. I. trophy defenders, suffered two defeats, losing both times by narrow margins, the second loss being to Dartmouth by only two pins. Black's won two games but were defeated by Moncton by 54 pins.

The Y. M. C. I. came back strong in the last game, tied for first place with three wins and no losses each. The Y. M. C. I. trophy defenders, suffered two defeats, losing both times by narrow margins, the second loss being to Dartmouth by only two pins. Black's won two games but were defeated by Moncton by 54 pins.

"Red" Grange, Sued By First Manager, Pays

CHICAGO, April 21.—Red Grange was thrown for a loss recently, when he settled with his former Wheaton neighbor, Archie H. Schatz, otherwise known as Johnny Small, a vaudeville actor, for $750. The settlement was made out of court. Schatz sued the football hero on claims that he first saw the possibilities in Grange and signed as his first manager last August. Grange subsequently selected C. C. Fyfe.

CAPT. PIDGEON MAY TRY BERMUDA RACE

Has Circumnavigated Globe Without Crew in Home Made Yawl

NEW YORK, April 21.—Herbert L. Stone, chairman of the Bermuda Ocean Race Committee, said on Monday, that he hoped to have the entry of Harry Pidgeon, the Iowa navigator who recently circumnavigated the world single handed in the yawl Islander, which he constructed himself at Los Angeles.

Captain Pidgeon told Chairman Stone that he expected to be in New York waters at the time of the race and if he would be glad to enter the Islander and sail her alone against the other boats in the fleet. The Bermuda race is a deep-sea thrust of 600 nautical miles to St. David's Head, outside Hamilton, will be started off New London on Sunday, June 20.

SOME MISSED ISLANDS

Although some yachtsmen in the Bermuda race in the past have missed the islands through lack of experience in navigation, it is believed that Captain Pidgeon would make St. David's Head without a miss. During his long voyage of 32,000 miles around the world he made some difficult passages, one of 40 days in the Pacific, and always brought up at the port he desired to make.

Captain Pidgeon states that he circumnavigated the world without the aid of a chronometer, using a gold watch instead. This substitute for the usual instrument was placed on some cotton in a cigar box during the long trip.

YANKES POUND FIVE PITCHERS AT WASHINGTON

Veteran Walter Johnson Driven From Box In Third Inning

NEW YORK, April 21.—Baseball warfare, carried on spasmodically during the past week, has become more strenuous for Babe Ruth, artillery chief of the Yankees, has fired on Washington.

The Yanks, aiming to put down the eastern seaboard armies before venturing westward, suffered slight casualties last week in Boston when their big guns failed to manoeuvre properly.

The advance on the national capital had to be well supported and General Huggins called upon Colonel Ruth for some activity.

RUTH CUTS LOOSE

After a losing skirmish on the opening day of the offensive and a 24 hour respite on account of weather conditions, there came suddenly, at the start of yesterday's hostilities, a tremendous barrage and for the rest of the day Ruth's guns worked steadily, making a vicious assault. When the smoke cleared it was found that the Yanks had scored 22 direct hits.

Five hits, a homer, two doubles and two singles from the Big Bertha alone indicate that the Yanks are to a baseball team to blast their way to a baseball championship after remaining quiet for a season. The Ruth effort was fully supported by the bats of Koenig, Condie, Gehrige, Meusel, Lazari and Dugan, bringing a final count against the American League champions of 18 to 5.

HIT JOHNSON HARD

Walter Johnson, who allowed the Macken only six safeties, in fifteen innings on the opening day, was the first Senator marksman to leave the battlefield. He departed after the Yanks had registered eight hits, and seven runs in three innings. Perhaps the powerful right arm had been strained by the masterful exhibition a week ago.

Ruth was not alone in home run yesterday. In Chicago the gray haired manager of the Indians, Tris Speaker, led handed a blow to the Yankees in a 3 to 2 conquest of the White Sox for his team. In the ninth a pinch hitting Chicagoan, Alton Chase, flied out to the bleachers recording three futile runs. Ninth inning homers are becoming common in the major leagues.

TIGERS WIN SERIES

An error by Jacobson and the wildness of Van Gilder enabled Detroit to give the Tigers three out of four games for the series.

Red Lucas, of Cincinnati, granted the Detroit champion Pirates only four hits and won 5 to 2. A double by Max Carey for the Pirates, and a single by Van Gilder for the Tigers, were the only hits in the game.

The Cards and Cubs split even on the opening day of the season. This gave the Tigers a 3 to 2 lead in the series. The Cards won 5 to 0, on five safeties. Wilson, of the Cubs, hit a homer.

All other games were frozen out every contest in the International League having been postponed for the second successive day.

READY THIS WEEK

The executive of the New Brunswick Amateur Skating Association met yesterday afternoon and discussed financial matters in connection with the next world's championship meet at Lily Lake. It was announced that the financial statement for the meet would be ready for publication before the end of the week.
