MOUNT A-ACADIA BATTLE ON THURSDAY EXPECTED TO BE CLOSE

Uncertainty Regarding Rules Holds Up Organization For Girls

PLAY-OFF FOR MARITIME TITLE NOW UNLIKELY

N. S. Technical Team Looked as Winners of Other Section

MOUNT ALLISON and Acadia meet in their annual quarrel over the pluck on Thursday of this week at Sackville and the wise boys are picking Mount Allison to emerge on top, despite Acadia's fine win from Dalhousie at Halifax two weeks ago. Too much, however, need not be placed on U. N. B.'s crushing defeat of Acadia last Thursday on its home grounds as Acadia was crippled for that game and was faced with the greatest squad in U. N. B.'s history. There is also the 22 to 3 defeat of Mount A. last Saturday by Wanderers. Playing on its home grounds should give Mount A. the advantage but Acadia will be strong and it looks like an even affair.

It will be the twenty-seventh season in which the two colleges have met, the record being complete for thirty years except for four years during the war. Acadia has won fifteen of the twenty-six games. Mt. Allison has won seven and four games have been drawn or tied.

The scoring record is as follows:

Year	Acadia	Mt. A.
1895	11	1
1896	3	5
1897	3	0
1898	5	0
1899	0	0
1900	0	16
1901	3	0
1902	0	0
1903	3	3
1904	6	8
1905	8	0
1906	8	0
1907	0	8
1908	0	0
1909	5	0
1910	0	3
1911	4	3
1912	20	0
1913	13	0
1914	14	5
1915	13	0
1916	3	3
1917	6	3
1918	11	0
1919	3	14
1920	12	8

PLAYOFF UNLIKELY

Maritime Intercollegiate playoff is unlikely. Nova Scotia Technical College defeated St. Francis Xavier at Halifax 4 to 3 and previously St. Francis beat King's College 20 to 0. Tech and King's are to meet this week and Tech is picked to win. If King's should win St. F. X. would have the section title by virtue of the largest score. Members of the N. S. Tech team saw U. N. B. defeat Acadia at Wolfville and admitted that it would be useless to go into a playoff against the Red and Black.

DEMPSEY INSISTS HIS NOSE IS REAL

Will Let Anyone Twist it to Prove it is Not Made of Wax

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 2.—It appears the altitude has caused Champion Jack Dempsey to become poetical. He uttered with profound seriousness that the eyes of the Indians express nothing but sorrow, and to this he attributes the constant revolutions in Mexico.

After seeing groups of Indians Dempsey exclaimed with an air of solemnity, "Now I understand why Mexico has so many revolutions." The champion reiterated his oft-made statement about fighting Wills. "Any time, any place, the sooner the better," was his comment.

The personal pronoun is always present in his conversation here, and he proclaims that he regards himself a super-man, who can beat any fighter in the world. He asserted that his alleged wax nose is a joke. The operation was to help his breathing and not his beauty, as he is a fighter, not an actor. The reported injections of wax he describes as the usual "press bunk." To prove it, Dempsey offers to permit anyone to twist his nose to make sure it is real flesh.

He said that he controlled $1,500,000 worth of mines in Kentucky, oil wells in Utah and real estate and a hotel in California. He does not know the total amount of his wealth, he says.

The local papers are printing extensive biographies of Dempsey. His exhibition in a bull ring here is expected to produce $75,000, of which Dempsey will receive $7,500 cash and a percentage. He also gets free board, room and barber's shop facilities for an entire week at the Hotel Regis.

YOUNG ZBYSKO SHINES

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Treading in the path of his famous uncles, Stanislaus and Wladek, young Carl Zbyszko, 195 pound six-footer, still in his teens, is bidding for fame and fortune, on the wrestling mat here. He plans to put himself through a University course by the proceeds of his matches.

BASS BEATS MAYRA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Benny Bass, Philadelphia featherweight, last night knocked out Lew Mayra, Baltimore, in second or scheduled 10-round bout.

MURPHY WON

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—Tommy (Kid) Murphy outpointed Murray Elkins, New York, here last night in a ten-round contest.

STRIBLING SCORES K. O.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 3.—Young Stribling knocked out "Soldier" Buck, Louisville, in the third round of a scheduled eight round match here last night.

HOCKEY prospects will take on rather definite shape this evening following the annual meeting of the western section of the M. A. H. A. here this evening with representatives present from Fredericton, Sussex, Saint John and St. Stephen. The Border Town delegates will bring definite word regarding St. Stephen's plans this winter and the outlook at present for their continuance is bright. Fredericton has been hard hit through the removal of Charlie Fleet and the suspensions handed out to Rod Bidlake and Colwell and with three classy veterans gone the team from the capital starts rather weak. Sussex has the same old gang to beat for the title and Saint John also looks good. If the locals can develop into a winning combination, hockey is due for a big boom here this winter. The local management expects to card a big game here during the holding of the world's amateur speed skating championship meet. The season will probably open on New Year's night and there is talk of having a Montreal outfit down here to pry the lid off.

"BURDO" BURDEN, of Fredericton, should feel rather pleased with himself this year. Not only has he been given U. N. B. a great team but he has established a reputation as one of the best rugby referees seen around here for some time.

BY SCORING an easy win over Varsity last Saturday, 17 to 0, Queens has captured her fourth consecutive inter-collegiate championship and incidentally has set up a record few teams in this country have ever equalled—that is, winning 24 games in a row. Not in four years' time has Queens dropped a game and, that, boys, is a real record and one that will take some beating. What the next year will bring forth is uncertain as the big Kingston institution is facing the loss of 13 regulars by graduation, including Harry Hatstone, "Pey" Leadley, McKelvey, and others who have placed the name of Queens high in the annals of Canadian rugby. Queens now will be called on to face the winner of the Inter-Provincial Union, in which Ottawa Senators are leading. Toronto Argonauts, once a feared name in Upper Canadian rugby, have found the season tough this year and on Saturday dropped a game to the Montreal gang, 6 to 3. Queens, however, should experience little difficulty in beating the union winner, and then will enter the finals for the Dominion title.

ENGLISH badminton stars, it has been announced, have included Saint John in their itinerary. This will give our local stars a chance to show their wares against the visitors.

YALE'S crushing defeat of the Army team on Saturday has made the Bulldogs favorite to cop the "Big Three" title, the drive for which starts on Saturday next when Harvard goes to Princeton. The Cambridge boys have made a miserable showing this year and on paper, Princeton should win, having the advantage of the home field. But you never can tell in football. About 55,000 people are expected to tax Palmer Stadium to capacity for the game. Other leading United States games are: Dartmouth at Cornell; Holy Cross vs. Fordham; Yale vs. Maryland; Notre Dame vs. Penn State; Illinois vs. University of Chicago; and Columbia vs. N. Y. U.

ROY MITCHELL WINS ON FOUL FROM JACK WARD

Nearly Knocked Out Montrealer in the Sixth Round

OUTSIDE of the dinner bell, Jack Ward, Montreal heavyweight, never listened to a sweeter sound last evening than the gong ending the sixth round of his bout with Roy Mitchell, Halifax light heavyweight, in the Arena. It is quite possible that Mons. Ward never heard much of the bell outside of a faint tinkle calling him back out of a rather dazed state into which he had been suddenly plunged by his younger colored opponent's flying fists for the way he staggered around the ring and fell into the ropes one would imagine he was Atlas trying to carry the world. At that, he had a heavy burden to prevent the raw young Nova Scotian from landing what the writers term "the final punch" and had not Mons. Ward been a crafty, experienced veteran, skilled in the ways of in-fighting, the bout would have ended then and there under decidedly auspicious circumstances for our friend from Halifax.

The opening rounds were rather tame and as matters progressed, the frisky Mr. Ward slowly got lulled into a sense of security by the cautious attitude of Mr. Mitchell. He commenced circling around like a lunatic in the fourth round after closing up Mitchell's eye and jarring a few molars and his pupils loose and in round five looked even sicker with Mr. Mitchell's rather sorry-looking mess. The sixth opened with Mr. Ward making plenty of hay under the calcium glare and the fans started in with pencil and pad to figure out how long Mr. Mitchell could last, when, presto—Mr. Ward caught a few on the jaw and the next second saw him caving his way to the floor. Before Povey got up to five in the count when Mr. Ward groggily staggered to his feet, one arm clutching the ropes, Mitchell sailed into him and gave almost fell him in his desire to enfold him. Vainly, Mitchell tried to shake him off. They parted and Mitchell pushed Ward to the other side of the ring where he was a great deal in the ropes, almost doing a Jack Dempsey into the spectators' laps. Mitchell could not find the desired punch in his stock to end matters. Ward slipped but was soon on his feet again. He socked him high and low but the Montreal warhorse refused to go down. Dr. H. S. Clark pronounced the best chance Mr. Mitchell ever had of reaping fame and glory by doing something even Jack Renault could not do. He said that he had a great deal to see and there under expert handling he revived sufficiently to last out the next round. Mitchell's over-eagerness again cost him dearly for as the minutes progressed, Ward's head cleared and he was coming back strong when soon after the ninth round, Mitchell dropped to the canvas on a low blow, Dr. H. S. Clark pronounced it a foul blow and the bout was awarded to Mitchell.

Outside of the sixth round, it was the timest fight here in some time. Ward is a lumbering fighter with a knowledge of in-fighting while Mitchell showed speed and cleverness and looks like a real comer. It was the only bout

Quite a Difference

GETS JUDGE'S DECISION

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Sergeant Sammy Baker, soldier welterweight, battered his way to a judges' decision over George Levine, Pacific coast welterweight, last night, in a ten round bout.

ROMANOFF WON

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—Mike Romanoff, heavyweight wrestler of Italy, defeated Sandy McDougall, of Scotland, two falls out of three in their match here tonight. In the semi-final Paul Le Brun, the Swiss grappler, took two straight falls from Bill Sherry, of Montreal.

AUTOMOBILE PARTY.

A. B. Kitchen, D. W. Oils, W. G. Kitchen, W. E. Vaughan, W. D. Gunter and T. V. Monahan, of Fredericton, arrived in the city last evening by automobile to attend the boxing match at the Arena. They are at the Victoria Hotel.

PIONEER BICYCLE RIDER.

PLYMOUTH, Nov. 2.—The Rev. T. G. Carew, whose death at the age of 77 has taken place at South Brent, where for about 40 years he had acted as honorary curate, was the first man to ride a bicycle in the County of Devon. It is said that when farm workers engaged in hay-making first saw Mr. Carew on his machine they dropped their rakes. They were terrified at the sight, as they afterwards described it, of "a man riding on a big wheel and a little wheel without a horse pulling it."

HOPE TO HAVE LEAGUE FORMED IN BASKETBALL

Definite Action Expected at Meeting Next Tuesday Night

As there was no definite information available as to whether boys' or girls' rules for basketball would be used in other parts of the Maritime Provinces and in Canada as a whole for girls' basketball teams, the meeting of representatives of the girls' basketball teams in the city, which was held last night in the Y. W. C. A., was adjourned until Tuesday evening of next week, when it will be convened again in the same place at 9 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by W. E. Stirling, and Miss Marion Belding was chosen as secretary. There were present representatives of the Y. W. C. A. basketball teams, and the teams of East and West Saint John and Trojan Rovers. It had been hoped that arrangements for the formation of a City Girls' Basketball League could have been made last night, but the question of what rules were used by other teams was brought up and it was decided to adjourn the meeting until the desired information was available. One representative from each girls' basketball team in the city is invited to attend the meeting on Tuesday.

Here's a buttonhole that won't break

KABLE KORD buttonhole enlarged.

The Linen KABLE KORD

25 LBS

Look for dealer's window display of KABLE KORD

Buttonholes standing a 25-lb. test.

It will stand a strain of over twenty-five pounds, without tearing or breaking.

It is able to do so, because a strong KABLE KORD of linen goes around the edge of each buttonhole underneath the stitching.

Wear a Tooke Collar with KABLE KORD Buttonholes and you'll not have to discard a collar because broken or torn buttonholes make it fit so badly you're ashamed to wear it. KABLE KORD buttonholes put an end to that waste and annoyance. They're guaranteed to stand hard usage.

Your dealer is authorized to give you a new collar if any KABLE KORD Buttonhole breaks.

Another good point:—You can slip these buttonholes over the stud and take them off easier than ordinary buttonholes, yet they hold the collar firmly in position and make it fit better.

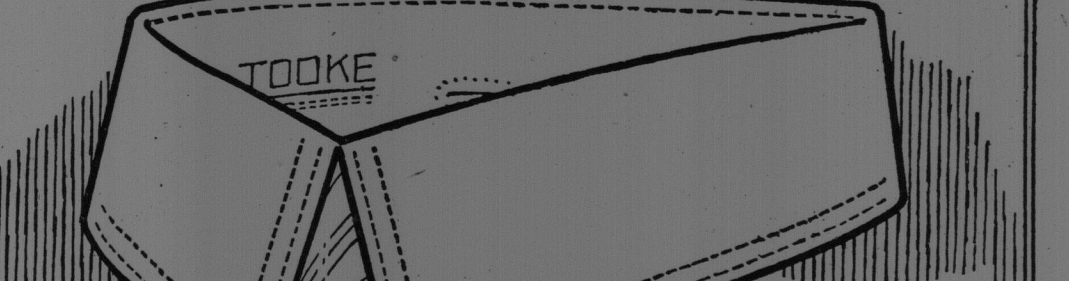

If you men fully realized the truth about these new KABLE KORD Buttonholes, you wouldn't wear a starched collar without them. You would insist on—
