SEVEN NURSES GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Graduating Class of Infirmary Guests of Alumnae at Dinner

The seven nurses of this year's graduating class of the St. John Infirmary last night received their diplomas in the chapel of the Infirmary at the close of the retreat which has been conducted by Rev. Father Cloran, C. S. R. Father Cloran gave an eloquent sermon and also gave a special address to the nurses. The diplomas were presented by Father Cloran. B.; Miss Ellen Lillian Lundy, of St. John; Miss Katherine Loretta McGillivray, of St. John; Miss Mary Louisa McDougall, of Hampton; Miss Winifred Agnes Dowd, of St. John; Miss Katherine Grace Keohan, of Hampton, and Miss Cecilia Delaney, of St. John.

The toast to The King was proposed by Miss Downing and responded to by the playing of the National Anthem by Miss Mary Doherty. Miss Downing also proposed the toast to The Graduates, which was responded to by Miss Lillian Lundy. The toast to The Training School was proposed by Miss Doherty and responded to by Miss Keohan. That to The Gentlemen was proposed by Miss Madeline Dolan and responded to by Miss Lois Graham. After a solo by Miss Frances Leonard, the toast to Our Absent Pals was proposed by Miss Kathleen Ryan. Villa's Large Domains Now Without A Leader

Former Bandit Once Held Sway Over Large Territory

Mexico City, Aug. 27.—(A. P. By Mail).—When Francisco Villa fell at Parral under a hail of bullets a small kingdom in the state of Durango lost its ruler, and nearly 6,000 potential soldiers their chief.

The fact that the former bandit leader exercised virtually feudal rights over an extent of mountains and plains as large as the state of Tlaxcala, with a population of nearly 100,000, came to light when a commission representing the "colonists" he had settled around Canutillo journeyed to the capital to ask President Obregon what the policy of the government would be in regard to the Villa holdings. They were told that it would not be altered, and those of the former outlaw's followers who had devoted themselves to agriculture would not be molested. When Villa first submitted himself to provisional President Adolfo de la Huerta in 1920 and received, for himself and his 50 followers, the hacienda of Canutillo, the government thought the Villa problem had been solved. But when the pacified rebel's friends learned of the good luck of those who had surrendered with him, hundreds of them addressed petitions to their former leader asking for lands in the district which he dominated. Villa complied, as did the government, and more ranches were bought and turned over to them for the formation of military-agricultural colonies. Prior to his death Villa was the dominating force in a district included in a line running from Rosario, along the border between Durango and Coahuila through Descurridora, El Rodeo and back to Rosario by way of Ornelas. Various villages and towns are included in this district, but most of the inhabitants, despite the existence of these municipal governments, looked to Villa for justice.

Robinson startles the Canadian Clothing World

MAMMOTH OVERCOAT CARNIVAL

FOR the second time in three years I announce an event that will throw a bomb into the Canadian Clothing field from Halifax to Vancouver. Just as I did in September, 1920, I will cause the men of Canada to realize that, because of their support, the Robinson organization wields a power so great as to practically fix the selling price of clothes throughout Canada.

Starting Saturday, September 15th

I am opening a Mammoth Overcoat Carnival that will be eagerly enjoyed by the men in every city throughout Canada, where there is a Robinson shop.

Just at the end of Summer—before the Fall season opens—before most retailers have received their Winter Overcoats, and just when most clothiers are preparing to unload their carried-over last year's overcoats—

I am going to hold a Carnival of Overcoat Values hitherto absolutely unapproached anywhere in the world. Does this sound like exaggeration? Visit my shop on Saturday and you will prove to yourself that my statements are not strong enough to fit the values.

MONEY TALKS—I HAD THE CASH!

When you see the vast and varied array of beautiful coats and see the amazing values you will marvel how I have been able to accomplish it.

There is no secret about it—NOW! My British buyers, acting under closest instructions, were able to take advantage of a situation at the mills where over-production and a lack of ready cash were the factors. I was able to buy the cream of the British looms—60,000 yards of Britain's finest—for almost half price.

Then my own workshops and my own retailing system with its many economies did the rest. But you are interested only in the result—and that you will see for yourself.

Unmatched Beauty—Unapproached Value

Worth $30.00	Carnival Price $17.50	Worth $45.00	Carnival Price $31.50
Worth $40.00	Carnival Price $25	Worth $50.00	Carnival Price $35
Worth $42.50	Carnival Price $27.50	Worth $55 to $60	Carnival Price $39

When you see this wonderful display of coats—big, roomy, belted ulsters, raglans, kimono—every one of genuine British all-wool cloth—most of them plaid backs—all hand-tailored and superbly finished—

When you go through the bewildering variety of fabrics—meltons, friezes, whitties, chinchillas—in the many shades and effects—tans, sands, greys, lavats, French blue—

Belted styles—with wide collars and the new wide belts

in single-piece, 3-piece, and back belt effects—with wide neaple patch pockets and the many new style stunts—

Finished in satin Venetians, polo and quilted linings, and superbly hand-tailored as are all Robinson garments—

And when you slip into one or a dozen of these wonderful coats—and note the price tickets showing a saving of at least $15 on every one—

You will realize why I have called this event a Carnival—an occasion of bounding spirits and genuine joy.

 A Bit of Clothing History

It is a matter of Clothing History that on September 18th, 1920, I broke the back of the clothing market in Canada by launching the greatest Overcoat Sale ever attempted up to that time. It is a matter of record that, in spite of force organized opposition, by means of my chain of upstairs clothes shops from coast to coast, I not only gave the public the finest overcoats made at a reduction of from $15 to $20 below prevailing prices, but I made every clothier in Canada radically reduce his prices.

Right at the end of Summer with the weather still sweltering, my stores from Halifax to Vancouver were crowded to the doors with eager buyers of Winter Overcoats. A stupendous and sensational success!

History repeats itself. Just three years later, almost to a day, on Saturday, September 15, I am launching a Mammoth Overcoat Carnival—a veritable feast of the finest overcoats made—at prices that will make the public throughout the wide Dominion shout the name of Robinson.

You know my reputation as a man of my word. Now, once more, bear witness to my promise of "the greatest overcoat values ever offered in the history of the all-wool clothing business."

M. B. Robinson
