

"Will I make an extra profit, or will I stick to quality???"

—Whenever the grocer buys tea this is the question that comes to his mind.

If he is after the biggest profit he will never buy Red Rose Tea for it gives him less profit than other teas which he sells at the same price. But he buys Red Rose.—It has the quality.

A soft answer is all right, but frequently when we call down to the janitor we want to have him answer with some heat.

BEAR INVADERS LOG CABIN.

Comes in at Back Door, Is Hit on Head by Old Man, Then Flees.

Suffern, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Henry Ryerson, seventy years old, a colored guide, living in a log cabin in Tourist Mountain at Hillburne, was awakened about ten o'clock on Sunday night by a growling and snorting at the back door. On opening the door a cub bear walked in. Climbing on to a ladder leading to his bedroom, the old man seized a club, and when the bear tried to climb up Ryerson struck it with the club, knocking it to the floor. The bear got up and fled through the door.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson, 190 Rodney street, West, on Monday evening, January 17, many friends gathered to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Games and music were enjoyed. B. Edwards, on behalf of the Roxborough lodge and friends, presented to the host and hostess many gifts of silver and china. Dainty refreshments were served and in all a very enjoyable evening was spent.

TO TAX SERVANTS.

Copenhagen, Jan. 20.—A Berlin message says the municipality is in desperate straits for money, and has adopted six new measures of taxation, including tax on servant girls. The first girl is taxed at $25 a year, the second $25, the third $37.50 and the fourth and subsequent, $50.

VEILS AND GERMS.

London, Jan. 20.—Veils accumulate germs in front of the mouth and nose, which multiply in the air, according to Dr. Octavia Lewin, assistant physician at the London Homeopathic Hospital. She advised against the use of the veil.
