PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES.
To the Editor of The Times:
Sir—I have before me a letter from one of our local merchants headed thus: "Similar articles are being sold from door to door at very much higher prices." Many of these articles sold in this manner are products of manufacturers outside the confines of maritime Canada. "Patronize home industry" should be the motto of every maritime Canadian. If this country is to become prosperous it is necessary that we encourage present industries and attract new enterprises. We have plants which produce just as good clothes, brushes, extracts, coffee and tea, etc. as any producer in Canada. Upper Canada is not interested in our products from a consumption standpoint, so we in order to protect our existence should support our industries and thereby support ourselves. All things being equal, give maritime products the preference. If the door to door canvasser is offering something manufactured in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island or New Brunswick, patronize him. Make the home markets as large as possible for our products. Every dollar spent for other than home products deprives our industrial workers of a certain amount of labor. Consider maritime Canada first. Yours, EASTERNER.

AN INTERESTING PAMPHLET FOR INVESTORS.
The latest St. John publication is "A Safe Guide for Investors," published by Eastern Securities Co., Ltd., and contains much valuable information and sound advice, both to small and large investors. The introduction states that the object is to point out as clearly as possible the vital principles governing investments. How to choose and distribute investments is dealt with, and the importance of periodical valuations is laid before the reader. A method is shown by which securities can be purchased on an easy payment plan, and earn for the investor a good and safe rate of interest. Full information is given on how to purchase bonds by mail. From the investor's point of view, the pamphlet is exceptionally valuable, and should be read by everyone looking for information along these lines. It is being printed and distributed by the Paterson Printing Company. The publishers (Eastern Securities Co., Ltd.), have a limited number of copies on hand, and will gladly forward one to any enquirer.

Rev. F. G. Francis, who has been pastor of the United Baptist church at Salsbury, for some time, has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church at Oranmore made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Goudie, who is now located at Fredericton Junction.

Twenty-One Soft Alabastine Shades For Restful, Harmonious Bedroom Walls.

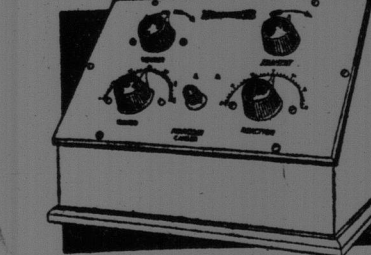

WILL NOT RUB OFF

HOW many different color tastes are there? The insistence on interior decorations that suit individual taste and temperament makes of Alabastine the most adaptable and most artistic finish for walls and ceilings. In the bedroom, for instance, one wants a soft restful harmony of colors. There are twenty-one unfading Alabastine tints and any number of combinations can be made by intermixing tints shown on the Alabastine Tint Folder. Many of the tints are most appropriate for the bedroom. In, addition there are Alabastine's Opaline Tints attained by a simple process, and providing effects of unusual charm.

Is your home brightened and given more sanitary walls and ceilings by the use of Alabastine? Every room in the home may be beautiful to suit your own individual taste by decorating with Alabastine. Its application leaves no unpleasant odor of turpentine or paste. It can be used with hot or cold water. Sold by paint dealers or applied by your decorator.

POINTS TO REMEMBER ABOUT ALABASTINE
Mixes equally well in hot or cold water. Does not sour, spoil nor "set" when left to stand. Can be easily washed off with water and sponge, and can be re-coated several times without removing first coat.
Always smells sweet and clean. Alabastine Opaline Effects are of unusual beauty and take the place of wallpaper. More sanitary, more economical. Hide bad wall conditions, and will not show marks or stains.
