NAVY MATTERS IN MOTHERLAND

London, May 18.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Navy estimates for the new financial year under discussion in the House of Commons yesterday, earned a running criticism from a comparatively small number of members anxious to secure reduction of the various votes.

Right Hon. Walter Long, first lord of the admiralty, in reply, declared that no other department showed the same reduction as the admiralty, but the government was determined to do nothing but the margin which the admiralty laid down for the country's safety. He also said the admiralty was considering removing obstacles in the way of promotion from the lower deck to commissioned rank by which George Burns, former leader member in the cabinet, retired.

"A lower deck boy has as much chance of getting commissioned rank as I have of almost simultaneously Lord Jellicoe at the Guildhall was referring to his commissions' tour. He said:

"It is an empire of which not only the inhabitants of these islands are proud, but those of the overseas dominions also. Our sea communications depend upon the dominions which may be brought into existence to help the British navy. It is our duty to see that we are supreme in every weapon going to safeguard our communications."

IN WALL STREET.

New York, May 18, (10:30)—The even course of petroleum shares measured the opening of today's stock market. Mexican oils were by 2 points higher while European issues of the same class as reported by Royal Dutch and Shell Transport lost about that much. Sugar shares were strong to firm with several issues occurred in the railroad division.

Trading during the morning was smaller in volume and scope than at any recent period, continuing to centre in specialties. Sugars enhanced their early gains and leathers and tobaccos recorded moderate improvement.

Movements of steel, equipment, shippings and oils also yielded higher for a time, but those shares yielded to pressure before noon.

Renewed interest in the independent steel blocks from $100,000 to $250,000 per value forced the second four's, second 4-1-2's, third 4-1-4's, fourth 4-3-4's and Victory 4-2-2's to new low points of discount. Call loans opened at 7 per cent, but virtually no time money was obtainable.

Financial Position of Canada Set Out Today in Budget Speech

The war amounted to $464,000,000, increasing by $9,000,000, while imports from the United States reached the unprecedented figure of $602,000,000. This increase was all the more remarkable in view of the adverse exchange rate. It was apparent that the mere question of cost had not weighed very much upon the Canadian buyer.

Revenue for the fiscal year 1919-20 would reach approximately $388,000,000 greater than that of the first year of the war.

Consolidated fund ordinary expenditure for 1919-20 would be approximately $349,000,000. This included $108,500,000 interest on public debt; $25,000,000 pensions and $49,000,000 for soldiers' re-establishment.

For investment and capital outlays, beyond the ordinary settlement expenditure of $349,000,000, an expenditure of $187,856,991 was estimated. The result, an outlay of $536,856,991, represented the total of $585,741,110 proposed apart from war for the last year.

With a total revenue of $388,000,000 and an ordinary expenditure of $349,000,000 it would be seen that during the fiscal year the government, after meeting all ordinary expenditures including an increased amount for interest, account and pensions over the previous year, would have a surplus of approximately $39,000,000 over ordinary expenditure to apply to capital expenditure.

Demobilization expenditure for 1919-20 would amount to $350,800,000 making a total outlay of $886,741,110 for that year.

Total expenditure for the war up to and including March 31, 1920, amounted to $1,674,000,000 apart altogether from such expenses resulting from the war as pensions, soldiers' civil re-establishment, soldiers' settlement and interest or war debt. During the year, the country paid off a floating debt of $247,000,000 out of the proceeds of the Victory loan issue of 1919. The short date indebtedness at the close of the year amounted to only $89,956,000. The addition to the debt during the year amounted to $285,000,000. Main estimates for 1919-20 totalled $337,149,428, ($228,500,000 on ordinary account) and supplementary estimates for civil service bonus $124,000,000.

The question of main supplementary estimates was still standing. Revenue for the fiscal year 1920-21 estimated on the basis of existing fiscal legislation and assuming that values of importations for customs purposes should be the same as for 1919-20 should amount to $881,000,000. Including the cash on hand and outstanding accounts including balances on the Victory loan issue of 1919, a whole total of $720,441,732.88.

All in all, the whole of these accounts would be covered within a few days of the year and $71,000,000 would more accurately represent the actual cash resources for the year.

It was stated that no further loan would be made. In addition to the commitments already mentioned, certain floating obligations matured this year, totalling $74,058,400.

The revenue of the year and cash assets available, declared the minister of finance, should at least not only carry current expenditure, but retire this debt.

Current expenditure, however, would be greater this year than that already incurred. Excesses on the railway system, of having murdered his nephew, Alph Auger, at Victoriaville, last winter, was acquitted yesterday at Arthursville.

Some economies ought to be effected in the near future, but with the arbitration pending it was improbable that full benefit of the Grand Trunk acquisition could be expected in the current year.

It would be necessary to make advances to the company to cover past due obligations. These advances would constitute obligations of the company and must be taken into account in the arbitration.

In addition, advances necessarily would be made to provide for this year's operations.

The approximate amount to cover advances for the purposes mentioned was $28,000,000.

Charges of unfairness levelled against Canada by different states during the Grand Trunk meetings were unfounded. If the Grand Trunk had not been taken over the shareholders in all human probability would have lost their whole investment.

Today is the anniversary of a day memorable in the history of St. John. A profusion of flags upon the business houses of the city proclaims a special occasion, as does the number of children about the streets in school hours. The funeral will be held from his residence on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

ANNIVERSARY.

When Police Magistrate Ritchie opened the bench this morning to open the session of the police court a handsome bouquet of roses adorned his desk as a reminder that today is his thirty-first anniversary as police magistrate for the city. The gift was from some unknown donor. The magistrate glanced at the dock in which three men were seated, charged with drunkenness, and exclaimed: "Thirty-one years here as police magistrate and I haven't been drunk yet, but every morning I have had an object lesson—a Christian city with spires pointing to heaven—and people going to hell." The magistrate received hearty congratulations during the day on his anniversary.

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends took place at six o'clock this morning in St. Mary's church, when Miss Margaret Sullivan and William P. Ingraham, both of this city, were united in marriage by the Rev. R. Taylor McKim. The bride entered the church with her brother, William Sullivan, and looked charming in a navy blue suit with hat to match, and seal cape, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham left on the Boston train on a short honeymoon trip and on their return will reside at 66 Winter street. They received many beautiful presents. POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning, a case against Florence Best, charged with bigamy, was taken up but a postponement was asked for by Vancouver, counsel for the complainant. He said that J. A. Barry, counsel for the defence, was not of town and as a matter of professional courtesy to Mr. Barry he requested that the case be set over until Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The postponement was granted.

A case against Frank Minniech, charged with threatening his wife, was resumed and Sergeant O'Neil and Inspector McAleish agreed to go as sureties of $100 each to bind the accused over to keep the peace. The accused was allowed to go.

THE REFERENDUM.

To the Editor of the "Times Star":

Sir,—It is expected that early in July Intoxicating Liquor Act will be held and the province do not want to return to the enactment of this act, it is a fact, and yet the province do not want to occur means a vast amount of work must be done and money provided to meet the necessary expense of the campaign. Will our citizens rally to the aid of those who are conducting this most important work? Let us hope there will be no lack of support. When it is needed we must win this fight. To do otherwise will mean a long step backwards.

I am reminded of the time away back in 1878 when it was sought to adopt the Canada Temperance Act, at that time a new and untried law, though prohibitory in character, and one by the adoption of which the bars were closed. A citizen's committee was formed which conducted the campaign. Feeling it to be an interest and an inspiration as well, I am going to give a list of the honored men who composed that committee. It is as follows:

Andrew Cushing, T. W. Daniel, W. Wallace Turnbull, Joseph Fritchard, Vincent S. White, Sheriff Harding, Judge Travis, Dr. LeBaron Botsford, A. C. A. Sailer, Thomas D. I. Alfred Clarke, I. Allan Jack, James Reynolds, W. Frank Hatheway, Jos. Burroughs, H. B. White, Ezekiel MeLeod, A. H. Hanington, John Fraser, Charles H. Peters, Edward R. Moore, A. A. Stockton, James MacMillan, J. E. Brown, John Stewart, Matthew Lindsay, G. W. Burbridge, Hon. Robert Marshall, Jas. E. White, William Shaw, H. J. Leonard, Humphrey Toomey, John Mealy, J. K. Taylor, Dr. Musgrove, James White, G. R. Harding, J. O. Stackhouse, Wm. Dunlavy, J. B. Wilton, Chas. P. Baker, Robert Fair, C. F. Clinch, Justice Knight, A. T. Dunn, Jas. Galbraith, Henry Miller, John Tapley, Henry Hilliard, Andrew McNeil, Edwin Fisher, D. J. Purdy, James Watson and many others in the county.

The writer was chosen as the secretary of this committee and the association thus gained with these noble men, many of whom are not with us today, is a blessed memory.

May we hope their successors, who have seen and know of the benefits of the law we now have and that open bars are no longer a menace to the welfare of our people, will give all needed help not only to perpetuate the present law but to make it more effective by securing that measure now made possible to prevent the importation of liquors for beverage purposes.

Thanking you for the courtesy of the publication of this letter, I remain, Respectfully,

(Sgd.) J. WILLARD SMITH.
