

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

their services, and resulted in a net gain to the funds of the Society of $100.00.

ANNUAL RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The Annual Religious Services were held in St. James's Cathedral, on the 21st of April, and in the Elm Street Methodist Church, on the 28th of April; and the Committee would desire to express their appreciation of the very courteous way in which those Churches were granted for the services:

The Sermon in St. James's Cathedral was preached by the Rev. J. Pearson; and that in Elm Street Methodist Church by the Rev. T. W. Handford, the Chaplains of the Society.

The collections amounting to $258.77.

DINNER ON ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

On the evening of St. George's Day a Dinner was held in the American Hotel, only 60 gentlemen, sat down thereto; the dinner was well served, and a very pleasant evening was spent; but the pecuniary gain was small, being only $7.00, which was appropriated to the Charitable Fund.

UNION OF ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETIES OF NORTH AMERICA.

The three Vice-Presidents were elected as the representatives of this Society at the meeting of this Union at Guelph. They were received and entertained by the brethren at Guelph, with all kindness and hospitality. The excursion to Guelph on the 28th of August, barely met the cost.

LECTURE BY THE REV. T. W. HANDFORD.

The Rev. T. W. Handford delivered a lecture in Shaftesbury Hall, on behalf of the Funds of the Society, the subject being "The Pilgrim Fathers:" the evening proved very unfavourable, being very stormy. The net proceeds amounted to $46.58.
