LOCAL MATTERS.

For additional Local News see First Page.

POINT LEPREAUX, JULY 28, 9 A.M.—Wind south, calm, hazy; therm. 57. Four schooners inward; steamer Lansdown passed outward.

ST. ANDREWS CHURCH now has the incandescent light.

THE RAYMOND EXCURSION party went to Fredericton this morning.

BARK DUSTY MILLER, Capt. Hughes, arrived from Carnarvon, Wales. She was 51 days to this port, during which time calm, light winds and fog prevailed.

PRICE OF LUMBER FALLING.—Advices from timber merchants in New York to parties in this city state that the lumber market is becoming demoralized. There is already a shrinkage of $2 or $3 per thousand.

CHARTERED.—Bark Lillian, Boston or Portland to Rosario, lumber at $13.50 per m, Don Enrique, New York to Marseilles, crude petroleum at 2s 6d per bbl, back to United States from Trapani with salt at about £2200 and port charges; Levuka, 60,000 cases refined petroleum, New York to Shanghai, 35 cents.

COULD NOT HEAR THE FOG WHISTLE.—Captain Burns, of the bright Edmund at this port from Barbadoes, reports that Thursday night he passed within about three miles of Brier Island and was unable to hear the fog whistle on that place. Capt. Dugas of the bright. Venice reports that he was also unable to hear the whistle.

SALVATION FREE.—A number of Hindoo Salvationists united with the ordinary corps of this city yesterday, and the whole force had a march out. The principal streets were taken in, and the regulation manœuvres of the army gone through. A big crowd was present at the barracks last evening to listen to the service.

RETURNING HOME.—The party of American capitalists who passed through this city about a week ago en route for Port Mulgrave, returned yesterday morning. The day was spent pleasantly in the city the party being driven to the various points of interest. They left for the West at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The train stopped before reaching Fairville to allow the excursionists a view of the bridges and falls.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—Canton "La Tour" I. O. O. F. advertise to-day in the GAZETTE a grand moonlight excursion on the river on Thursday next. Of all excursions designed for summer enjoyment, perhaps a moonlight one is the best, and when it is considered that the excursion is on that beautiful river which many persons call "the Rhine of America," then the delights are multiplied beyond description. An efficient committee has this affair in charge and they guarantee a truly enjoyable time.

A RELIC OF EARLY RAILROADING.—One of the first sleepers, if not the very first, ever placed on the Windsor & Annapolis railway is still doing good service. It was put in its place twenty-two years ago in June, and Mr. G. W. Abbott, section foreman, says it is apparently good for ten years yet. Mr. Abbott remembers well when it was put in. It was a piece of Southern pine which was not considered fit to be used for the purpose for which it was intended and was put in for a sleeper. The rails and engines for the road were brought by vessel to Wolfville, where the headquarters then were, and the track laying was begun here. The sleeper referred to is a short distance from the station.—Wolfville Acadian.

IN WESTPORT.—A Westport correspondent of the Digby Courier writes of Briar Island in the following strain: Here the blushing American bride, with the new Italian count that papa has just purchased at such an enormous price, could honeymoon to her heart's content, and bring her hazel orbs and Vassar classics to play on the hieroglyphics carved on the great boulders that tell where lie the spirit-guarded treasures of the late lamented Kidd, and feast her æsthetic soul on the wealth of legendary lore; while the count, relieved of the care of the hand organ and monkey, would feast his æsthetic stomach on almost anything from the refuse bait of the lobster trap down to the epicure's lobster-salad. Yes, the nobility of Europe and the nabobism of America could here find joy in the indulgence of their varied tastes.

AT MONCTON.

The game at Moncton Saturday morning was an exhibition one, and fortunately did not count. The score stood 6 to 2, at the end of the seventh inning when the game was called. The batteries were: Monctons, Smith and Manning; St. Johns, Small and Whitenect.

Rain put an end to the afternoon game at the same place, only 3 innings being played, and the score standing 2 to 0 in favor of St. John. Howe was in the box, and he struck out five men in the three innings.

The Turf.

DECLINES TO ACCEPT.

The Turf, Field and Farm publishes the following concerning the Sunol–Belle Hamlin match:

"The challenge thrown out last week by the Turf, Field and Farm to trot Sunol against Belle Hamlin for $10,000 a side, half forfeit and entire gate money, has been the talk of the country. In a personal letter to us, Mr. Hamlin says that he is not responsible for the statement that he had forced Sunol to take to the woods, and his formal reply to the challenge is as follows:

"To the Editor of the Turf, Field and Farm.

"In reply to the challenge which appeared in your last issue, offering to match Belle Hamlin for $10,000 a side, $5,000 forfeit, the winner to take the entire stake and gate receipts, I respectfully decline to accept, as in my judgment the chances are in favor of Sunol's beating Belle Hamlin. Besides I would not put up a forfeit of $5,000 and run the risk of the mare going wrong. I will, however, match Belle Hamlin against Sunol for $5,000 a side, $2,500 over any track mutually agreed upon, the winner to take 60 per cent, of the earnings and the loser 40 per cent. "Yours truly,

"C. J. HAMLIN.

"Buffalo, N. Y., July 21, 1890.

"This is frank, but it has not been the desire to trot Sunol against aged horses. When she does start against a matured horse, it must be for a stake which will fully recompense her for cancelling other engagements. The flying filly from California is being held in reserve for a race with the young stallion Axtell. We have no authority to accept the proposition."

Built at Blue Rock.

The bark Dusty Miller, which is discharging ballast at Rodney wharf, Carleton, was built at Blue Rock, Carleton, in 1865 by Messrs Stackhouse & McLaughlin. From the time the keel was laid until the vessel was launched just ten weeks elapsed. She loaded lumber for Wales and on her arrival on the other side was purchased by H. Owen & Son, of Carnarvon, her present owners. It is said that this vessel derived her name from a friend of one of the builders who was a miller. He came down to the yard where the vessel was being built with his dusty clothes on, and when asked what they would call the ship, he answered "call her the Dusty Miller." This was done and she is now the only vessel of that name afloat. Her timbers are as solid as when first put in her and she is as tight as a cup. Captain Hughes reflects great credit on her builders for the staunch way in which she was put together.

Harkins' Dramatic Co.

Another new play, entitled "Queen's Evidence" will be given by the Harkins' Dramatic Co. at the Institute to-night and will be cast to the full strength of the company. The play is a strong melo-drama and presents some beautiful scenic and mechanical effects which will be the work of Messrs. Hilliard and Rose respectively scenic artist and mechanical superintendent of the company.

"Queen's Evidence" will be given tomorrow night also, and will be followed by "Fate" on Wednesday and Thursday, "The Golden Giant" on Friday and "Jim the Penman" on Saturday.

As this is the last week of the season and as all the plays are first class, there is no doubt the Institute will be crowded to its capacity every night this week.

BUTLER'S JOURNAL.—The first number of Butler's Journal, devoted to local news and gossip, published at Fredericton by Martin Butler, has been received. The paper will likely be well received by Mr Butler's numerous acquaintances throughout the province. The following item from the editorial pen will be of interest to the lady compositor: We have been repeatedly asked if we have got that wife we advertised for last fall. We haven't; but when we go on another hunt, we will select a wife from some of the printing offices of this city, where there seems to be several available candidates.

EASIER THAN BASKET MAKING.—A sweet hay Indian is perhaps the proper term to describe the redskin who sold a large number of people in the city on Saturday, and at the same time made a handsome profit on an armful of swamp grass, among which a few spears of sweet hay had been distributed. This business may be easier than basket making but it will not stand developing.

NEARLY ASHORE.—From Boston for this port, bark Fido drifted into Chance Harbor, Friday night and came very near going ashore. Word was sent to the city and the tug Dirigo was sent down, arriving here with her in tow yesterday. The Fido encountered very thick fog nearly all the way from Boston.

BARK UZZIAH, which arrived yesterday afternoon from Limerick, Ireland, came across in 42 days. She had the best of weather, with the exception of a few days when first out from Ireland.

ALLAN STEAMER MANATOBAN arrived at Halifax, last evening with goods and passengers for St. John.

A LADY JOURNALIST.

Sent by the New York World to Write Up the Business Interests of the Provinces.

Mrs. M. R. Wright, one of the lady specialists attached to the New York World, is in the city preparing a series of articles for that paper. She is staying at the Royal hotel, and very pleasantly entertained a GAZETTE reporter who presented his card this morning.

During the past two or three weeks this lady has been travelling through Nova Scotia on a similar mission as that which brings her to New Brunswick. She has been writing up the business interests of the various cities and has also contributed many bright little sketches of these places to the columns of the World.

While in Nova Scotia Mrs. Wright was royally treated, and she has many kind words to say of the province, and of the people whom she had the pleasure of meeting there. She arrived in St. John Saturday evening, but proceeded to Bangor where she spent yesterday, returning this morning.

"I am very much pleased with St. John," said the lady, "It is the brightest little place I have visited since I left New York. Everything here looks neat and in order, and I am sure my visit will be thoroughly enjoyable. How long shall I remain? Perhaps a week, or more, according to the length of time it takes to collect my information. In connection with other matters I wish to learn all about your fall exhibition, for I believe the World can be of some service, in not only inducing people to come to St. John but in inducing them to send exhibits, as well."

The experience of this lady in journalism will certainly conduce to the worth of her articles on the maritime provinces. She has been connected with the World for the past three years, and has, during that time travelled through many countries. Mrs. Wright spends her winters in the Southern States, where she is the World's regular correspondent. The value of her present series of articles will be a dual one, the readers of the World will be enabled to learn something of this country by the sea, and we are likely to derive considerable profit thereby.

Police Court.

Chas. Yorkson, David Moran, Thos. Smith, Robt. Ready and Robert Quinn, drunks were fined $8 each.

Max Cook and John Paramoor, charged with drunkenness, were fined $8, which was decreased to $4 each on account of previous good conduct.

Sarah Cain, drunk and disorderl in a house on Duke street, and Ellen Hamilton, drunk, were fined $8 each.

Magistrate Ritchie delivered judgment this morning in re North end cases. After citing the sections of the various acts, His Honor stated that as the Canadian Temperance Act was in force in the old city of Portland, liquor could not lawfully be sold there, and as liquor could not lawfully be sold in Portland it could not lawfully be kept for sale. He therefore would impose a penalty of $20 each, with costs, on Oliver Akerly, George Quinn, James Dalton, Mathew Dalton and John McCann, who were defended by Mr. C. N. Skinner, and the same penalty on Mathew A. Harding, Thomas Kiffin, Peter Mahony, Charles Patton, James Duffy and John Doucett, defended by Solictor General Pugsley and Mr. A. I. Trueman.

The solicitor asked for a copy of the record, and a stay of proceedings, which was allowed.

From Barbadoes.

Topsail schooner Herbert D. Rice, Capt. Dunham arrived early this morning from Barbadoes with 363 puncheons, 25 hhds. and 25 bbls. of molasses for Hall & Fairweather. She came up in 16 days and had ordinary weather. The Rice made a round trip from Weymouth N. S. to Barbadoes and another port and back to St. John in the good time of 56 days. Capt. Dunham reports leaving the schooner Francis Rice at Barbadoes to sail in two days after he left.

Brigt. Venice also got into port last night from Barbadoes. She was 21 days from the latter port. The Venice has 355 puncheons and 56 small packages of molasses.

A Relic of the Old Time.

The exterior lines of he ramparts of the Fort built by Claude LaTour, at Port LaTeur, Shelburne Co., N. S., in 1692, are easily traceable. The places where the parapets had been built are clearly discernable. The place of the embrasures is plainly recognizable. On the western side of the fortress the glacier extends about three hundred feet to high water mark. On the eastern side the earthworks show well built up walls, some ten or twelve feet high and nearly perpendicular. The outside walls of the fortification appear to have been about four hundred and fifty feet in length, and to have enclosed an area sufficient to contain suitable barrack room for the residents and grounds for military movements.

THE OTHER RAFT.—Another large sea raft to be towed to New York for Mr. James D. Leary is now in readiness at Grand Bay. It contains 17 sections or cribs and will probably be towed to New York by the same tugs that took the last one from here.

FREDERICTON ITEMS.

A Candidate for Victoria County—Excursionists—Church Services—Hotels Open—Cricket.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

FREDERICTON, July 28.—It is rumored that a delegation from Victoria county, waited on Mr. George F. Gregory requesting him to run as the opposition candidate at the coming election in that county and that he has consented to do so.

A portion of the Raymond excursionists will arrive by steamer David Weston this afternoon from St. John. They will take dinner and tea on board the steamer, and after visiting the city will leave by special Pullman train for the West.

Rev. Mr. Roberts officiated at the services last evening at St. Mary's Episcopal church, St. Marys. This church has been without a rector for some time.

The Barker House and Queen Hotel which closed on the 14th of May last, threw open their doors to the public this morning. During that time a great many changes and improvements in both of there hotels have taken place.

The Queen office has been greatly enlarged by the large screens being taken down between the arches, the passageway leading to the bar has been removed and the bar converted into a private office, which presents a handsome appearance with its frescoed ceiling, bronzed hot water pipes and beautiful stained glass windows. The gent's parlor is now receiving a thorough overhauling, new register grate having been placed in position and a new Corinthian tile hearth put down. All the rooms have been newly painted and present a bright and cheerful appearance.

The cricket match between the married and single men did not take place on Saturday afternoon owing to the rain storm.

Diphtheria Breaks out in a Hotel.

The breaking out of diphtheria at Hampstead last week is most unfortunate and the fatal termination of the first case in the death of winning little Edith Brock, the nine year old daughter of Mr. F. W. G. Brock, of Charles street, is very sad indeed. The Brock family were stopping at Vanwart's hotel at Hampstead and were thoroughly enjoying themselves until last Wednesday, when little Edith suddenly became ill. Mr. Brock, who was on his way to New York when the dread disease seized upon his child, was telegraphed for, and everything was done for the little one, but in vain, and yesterday morning she died.

Three of Mr. Vanwart's children are reported to be down with the disease now, and of course the hotel is deserted. It is only a short time since this hotel at Hampstead was opened by Mr. Vanwart. It has been crowded with guests from the first, and the most of the accommodation it afforded is said to have been engaged ahead for the remainder of the season, so that the breaking out of this dreadful malady in the hotel is a heavy blow for Mr. Vanwart in more ways than one.

Of Personal Interest.
