

University College, TORONTO.

In the year 1827, a Charter was granted by His Majesty George IV., for the establishment of a University at York (now Toronto), under the designation of "King's College;" and in the following year the Institution was endowed, by patent, with a portion of the land which had previously been set apart by His Majesty George III. for educational purposes.

Under this Royal Charter, as modified by subsequent Statutes of the Legislatures of Upper Canada and of the Province of Ontario, the University of Toronto and University College are now constituted. The University prescribes the requirements for Degrees, Scholarships and Prizes; appoints Examiners; and confers Degrees in the Faculties of Law, Medicine, and Arts. University College gives instruction in the Departments of Arts and Science prescribed by the University for the Degrees of B.A., M.A., and LL.B., and for the Diploma in Civil Engineering.
