POLITICAL SERMONETTES.

Once to every man and nation Comes the moment to decide, In the strife twixt truth and error, For the good or evil side.

Dear People-I read the other day in a newspaper supporting the Detestable Hazen this remarkable question Whose money is it the government are spending?

It seems to have been the aim of the writer to confuse the public mind, to raise a doubt, to suggest by implication that the people have a right to question the manner in which the revenue of the province are expended by our Revered Dr. Pugsley and our much be loved the Honorable Tweedie. Surely, brethren, there is a limit to the free dom which should be granted to the press. I trust that none among you have taken seriously so villainous a suggestion, subversive as it is of the principles of righteous administration. Whose money do the government spend? Their own, of course—their immemorial custom. What right has a tax payer to ask what a bridge cost, er how much a member of the government got for travelling expenses, or any other question touching the uses to which the revenue is devoted? None at all. It is our duty, my be loved, to praise everything that is done by our Revered Dr. Pugsley and our much beloved the Honorable Tweedie. bridge or a road or a public service of any kind, we may humbly ask for it, and as gratefully accept a refusal, if in the wisdom of our rulers we are not vet fitted to receive the blessing. If on the other hand, they are graciously pleased to grant our petition, it would be most ungrateful in us to criticise a need more faith. We are prone to ask The ideal commonwealth is that where was in New York in the days of Tammany. I implore you, do not be led by the sneers or the insinuations of the hireling press of the Detestable Hazen to ask questions. It is a fatal habit, subversive, as I have already

BOURINOT DEAD.

Canada's Esteemed Clerk of the Commons.

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—Sir John Bouring bad boys and the police, endorsed a statement made by a former correspondent that an officer or officers in plain clothes would most successfully cope with the young rascals who meet and plot mischief. The suggestion is worthy of the attention of the authorities. It would probably pay the city to add to the present force an officer not known as such to the boys, whose special duty it would be to familiarize himself with the names and haunts of the bad boys, worm out their secrets and introduce among them such an element of fear and distrust as worth out of the authority of the authority on parliamentary entirely overseen the present of the pr the bad boys, worm out their secrets and introduce among them such an element of fear and distrust as would entirely overcome their present comments of the second official reporter of the legislature. Through the greater part of his life perfectly obvious that they can keep their doings very largely a secret from officers in brass buttons, or from officers in brass buttons, or from officers in plain clothes whom they know. Action should certainly be taken in this matter. There is daily evidence that the bad boy is neither frightened nor deterred from rascality by the fate of those now behind the bars. Reforming agencies are needed, but they are a loss to Canada and to the Empire at large. placent disregard of authority. It is but there is also something needed to impress upon their minds a wholesome respect for the law and its officers. The resolutions adopted by the Albert county prohibitionists last week are quoted in today's Star. It will be noted that the course of the govern-ment with regard to the present elec-tion law is condemned. The convention declared for a secret ballot, for fighting and the government as stead-ily refusing to introduce.

SOCIETY OF SACRED STUDIES.

Warden: The Bishop of the Diocese.

The Diocesan committee met last week, the Bishop presiding. The names of Canon Roberts and the Rev. C. D. Schofield, rector of Hampton, were added to the committee. Proposals for a course of Divinity lectures to be given in St. John during the coming winter season were considered and approved.

The Warden has consented to deliver the inaugural lecture of the course, on Thursday evening, October 23. His subject will be: "The language of our Lord," dealing with the very important question whether Greek or Anamaic was the language used by Jesus Christ. Other lectures, the dates of which will be announced later, are as follows:—

HOMILETICS.

The Very Rev. Dean Partridge, D. D. BIBLICAL STUDY.

Rev. Canon Roberts, LL.D. THE STUDY OF CHURCH HISTORY. Rev. John de Soyres.

Rev. John de Soyres.

These lectures will be delivered at the Church of England Institute, and admission to them will be free.

The committee decided to admit as Associates of the Dlocesan branch, lay communicants who are interested in theological study. Such lay-associates will receive the local leaflets to be issued, and will also share the privileges of the theological circulating library which it is proposed to form. Particulars can be obtained upon application to the secretary.

A correspondent writes:—"Would it really benefit a young clergyman to purchase all the books concerning the Holy Communion which the Soglety recommends? Would he not be perplexed in finding different conclusions drawn by Ridley and Waterland, Pussey and Wordsworth, Luckock and Gore?" To this question the only reply is that if any clergyman has yet to learn that different aspects and statements have been held, and may lawfully be held, in the Anglican Communion, his "perplexity" had better be confronted and conquered as soon as possible. The present Archibishop of Canterbury's Charge to his clergy delivered is 1899, (Rivingtons, price la), admirably deals with the question. To pruse carefully and compare the statements and conclusions of the eminent teachers mentioned, will tend to strengthen rather than to perplex, it will increase knowledge and enlarge the statements and conclusions of the eminent teachers mentioned, will tend to strengthen rather than to perplex, it will lucrease knowledge and enlarge the statements and conclusions of the eminent teachers mentioned, will tend to strengthen rather than to perplex, it will nicrease knowledge and enlarge the statements and conclusions of the eminent teachers mentioned, will tend to strengthen rather than to perplex, it will be applied to the conclusion of the manner, how Christ performeth his promises; let disputes and questions them selves, it skilleth not; it is enough, the manner how Christ performeth his promises; let disputes and questions them will be a provided the provided t plish; why should any cogitation possess the mind of a faithful communicant but this: O my God, thou art true; O my soul, thou are happy!"

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 13.—Wesley Wheaton. blacksmith, was severely burned on Sunday night. His hands were sore and he wrapped them in cloths saturated with turpentine. He attempted to light his pipe and the cloths took fire, and before they could be stripped off his hands both were badly burned, 36 badly that it is feared he may lose one of them. He is at the hosyital.

Major Paul Weatherbe, chief architect of the militia department, arrived here this evening upon business connected with a new rifle range. Work upon the range was commenced last spring and between $4,000 and $5,000 have been spent and the range is not yet ready to fire a shot upon. It was discovered after the work had progressed pretty well that the target could not be seen from the firing points, as the plans had placed them beyond five hundred yards, and after the firing points were about done, work was stopped upon them, and Weatherbee summoned from Ottawa. The range is located at St. Marys, about 'two miles from the city. There is now no range upon which local militiamen can practice, and even men of the royal regiment have to go without rifle practice.

CROWDED THE OPERA HOUSE.

The audience which filled the Opera House last night was flattering evidence of the great popularity of Miss Jossie Maolachian and Harry McClaskey, and St. John honored them in a signal manner by seeing to it that the S. R. O. sign decorated the box office shortly after 7 o'clock. It was one of the beat popular concerts ever given in this city, and its hearty endorsation was not less pleasing to the singers than to Fred G. Spencer, who has so successfully managed the singers for a tour of the provinces. That the audience was enthusiastic goes without saying, and there were times when it was almost overwhelmingly in its encores, to which hearty demands the singers responded in a good natured way. There were times when the hearts of those present, whatever their nationality, could almost be heard beating out their applause in recognition of the matchless manner in which the songs of Scotland were interpreted by Miss Maclachian. With every appearance this singer gains a stronger hold on St. John, which was clearly demonstrated by the way in which Blue Bonnets Over the Border, and The March of the Cameron Men were received. The audience rore to a height of enthusiasm seldom equali-

BARK ASHLOW WRECKED.

BARK ASHLOW WRECKED.

A despatch reached this city from Halifax yesterday announcing the wreck of the bark Ashlow about seven miles to the eastward of East Iron Bank. She struck on a sunken ledge about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. At daylight, yesterday the vessel's masts had gone out of her and there was nothing visible but a small portion of the hull. Captain Larkin and his crew got ashore safely. All the boats and some of the gear were landed. Capt. Larkin proceeded to Halifax, leaving the mate in charge.

The Ashlow was bound from Sydney to St. John with a cargo of coal. She left Sydney on the 3rd. The Ashlow was owned by E. Lantalum of this city. She was built at St. Martins in 1830 and registered 639 tons. She was once one of the Oliver Emery fleet.

BOER GENERALS.

BOER GENERALS.

PARIS, Oct. 13—A big, cheering crowd gathered during the afternoon in the vicinity of the Hotel De Hollando, where the Boer generals are staying, and the police and municipal guards had to cordon part of the Rue De Las Paix. A few anti-British crowder talked but the cheers were generally the singing of the Marseillaise. The generals had to appear several times on the balcony, and once General Botha held in his arms a little French girl, who presented him with a bouquet tied with the Boer colors. This evoked a great outburst of cheering. Numerous delegations were received in the afternoon by the generals, who later drove to the Elyssee Palace, the foreign office and the ministry of the interior to leave their cards.
