The Committee on the Christian Messenger reported the following Resolution:

REPORT.

The Committee on the Christian Messenger beg to Report:

That the Committee have heard with great pleasure of the increasing circulation of the Christian Messenger during the past year.

That viewing the Press as a most important instrument of usefulness, they regard a well sustained periodical as essential to the prosperity and extension of the Baptist Denomination in this Province; since, unless the proceedings of the various Educational and other Institutions are faithfully recorded, and their claims to support strenuously advocated, they will fail to receive the amount of patronage which they require, and will drag out a lingering existence, exerting but little influence in the community.— Equally desirable is it, in the opinion of the Committee, that the state of the Churches, and providential dispensations affecting their members, should be continually reported.

Your Committee rejoice, therefore, that in the pages of the Christian Messenger the above mentioned objects are from time to time presented to view. They consider the thanks of the Denomination due to the respected Editors for their able management of the paper, and the zeal with which they advocate all denominational interests, and they recommend the members of our Churches and Congregations to sustain them liberally by constant additions to the subscription list.

J. M. CRAMP,
Chairman.
