HALIFAX NOTES.

Programme for sale in Halifax by the members and at the following news stands and centres.

Mr. J. A. Kirkpatrick is confined to his room and unable to attend his practice.

Rev. N. LeMoine, rector of St. Mark's Anglican church of this city, left for Sydney, C. B., last week, on account of the serious illness of some of his family relations, who reside there.

De Pachman, the great pianist, will be greeted by an overflowing house on the 20th, several hundred seats having been already subscribed for and the balance are being rapidly taken.

The theatre-goers of Halifax are looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to the original production of "Blanche" or "Red Riding Hood," which Prof. E. MacQuarrie is putting on at the Academy of Music on the 14th, 16th and 17th instant.

A progressive whist party was given Monday evening by Miss Foster of Dartmouth, which was most enjoyable.

There was a large dance at the residence of E. L. Thorne, Dartmouth, Tuesday evening, in honor of friends in the Canadian contingent.

The concert in aid of the Dartmouth reading room is to be held February 16: hand a number of prominent Halifax and Dartmouth amateurs have consented to take part.

The funeral of John McKay took place at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon from his late residence, 142 Gillingham St., and the remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of people.

The deceased served 25 years with the 67th regiment, during which period he held the respective ranks of drum major, color sergeant, paymaster clerk, orderly room clerk and sergeant-major, and was the proud possessor of the Crimean medal with clasps of Inkerman, Balaklava and Sebastopol.

The disagreeable weather of Monday evening had a dampening effect on the carnival, preventing many from attending, but there were between 600 and 700 spectators, and about 70 in costumes.

The decorations were more than of former years, and with the splendid music by the Leinster and St. Patrick's bands were alone worth the price of admission.

Owing to the wet weather, Manager Clarke has decided to repeat the carnival Feb. 19. The child rears carnival takes place Feb. 14.

In the Wright Building last evening was a most enjoyable affair and successful in every way.

There were many handsome costumes among the ladies; a most patriotic dress was Red, White and Blue; a costume typical of the yacht Shamrock was particularly striking.

The refreshments and supper were furnished by caterer E. D. Maher, who provided all the delicacies that taste could wish for, and served everything in his usually excellent manner.

Nothing lacked to make the evening's most enjoyable one, and the students are to be congratulated on the event, made so pleasant by the courtesy and attention shown by

FEMALE MAIL.

That sounds more contradictory than it is, when attention is called to its being a description of the largest mail received by any man in the United States exclusively from women. This "female mail" is received by Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in women's diseases, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is only fair to say that it is not the man that women write to, but the doctor. One of the remarkable features of this correspondence is that years after a cure has been effected, grateful women continue to write to Dr. Pierce, being thankful for health and for the kind and fatherly advice, which was blended with the physician's counsel, and which was so helpful in preserving the health when regained.

The offer of a free consultation by letter is extended by Dr. Pierce to every sick and ailing woman. Every letter received is read in private, answered in private and its contents treated as a sacred confidence. To exclude any third party from the correspondence, all answers are mailed in a plain envelope, bearing upon it no printing or advertising whatever. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the great remedy for female troubles, irregularities, debilitating drains, inflammation and ulceration, is for sale by all dealers in medicine. Accept no substitute which may be recommended as "just as good" that the dealer may make a little extra profit.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

The students The pinner furnished excellent music and were seated behind the bars at the bar-keep or at the Maritime Commercial College, where daily in business hours it is of exchange are bought and sold.

The chaperones were Mrs. John F. Stairs, Mrs. Dr. Russell and Mrs. Dr. Farrell. Mrs. Stairs looked charming, attired in a white satin dress. Mrs. Farrell wore more silk, and Mrs. Russell a cream brocade silk. The dresses of the young ladies here is in this description that it is difficult to single out three who displayed the greatest and most beauty.

A few of those who by the ladies were, however, as follows: Miss Seaton, green with white tulle; Miss Pearson, white; Miss Lillie F. quahar, black and blue; Miss Holmes, yellow silk with a green and cream overcoat; Miss Keith, white brocade silk; Miss Geraldine Stairs, yellow silk; Miss D. Holmes, cream silk; Miss Elizabeth White, crushed strawberry.

ton on the 20th ult. for Boston. Messrs. Charles and George Hayward accompanied them on their way to Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. Keith Watson, who has been in the employ of the Midland Railway near, left on Monday for his home in Truro.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held one of the most pleasant social meetings they have had at the home of Mrs. F. M. Fielding on Tuesday evening of last week. There was a bright programme, among the numbers vocal and instrumental music and readings. Perhaps the most enjoyable feature on the evening programme was the readings of "Echoes from the Dominion Convention," written by a friend in Charlottetown in a pleasing manner in which many little helps were interwoven. A number of visitors were present. Mrs. E. B. Dakin, ex-President of the Society, opened the meeting.

The arrival at the new rink on Tuesday evening of last week was, as all expected, a grand success. A large number of our local skaters appeared in costumes and their number was augmented by a goodly contingent from Hantsport and other places. The 6th Batt. Band, who had the managing of this enjoyable affair played a choice programme of music, which inspired not only the skaters but the spectators.

The building was tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns, and the whole arrangement was bright and pleasing. There was extra lighting also. The skaters one and all looked well, and the masquerade throughout was excellent. Many of the costumes evidencing skill and taste in their preparation, and not a few maintained their luster until almost the close of the skating.

The prizes consisting of a pair each of silver plated skates, for the prettiest ladies costume and the most original Gent's costume, were awarded respectively to Miss Donnie Cox, who represented winter at the North pole, and Wm. Fuller, as Temperance Lecturer. Miss Cox wore a pretty blue costume and the representation was appropriate and becoming.

Mrs. Phineas of Bear River who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. A. E. Dunlop returned home Monday. Mr. Phineas arrived here on Saturday and accompanied her back.

A Much Maligned Beverage.

"Death in the tea-pot." Well cheap teas—stewed instead of steeped—caused the saying. Good teas properly drawn, are a wholesome, as well as palatable drink, but they must be good, as for instance, Tetley's Elephant Brand Indo-Ceylon Tea.
