APPOHAQUI

Apohaqui, April 24—Once more the fragrant blossoms of the Trailing Arbutus have made their appearance, some very beautiful specimens having been gathered at the Falls, a beautiful and picturesque spot, situated about a mile from the village, between the huge hills which skirt the northern bank of the Kennebecas. This secluded resort, which sheltered from the winds and facing the morning sun, has ever been the home of the early Mayflower, and has been the scene of many parties, and pleasure seekers for generations. Many pleasant reminiscences of this delightful spot are still fresh in the minds of the oldest residents of this vicinity.

Jones Bros. lumber drive which will be upwards of 2,000,000 feet, is making satisfactory progress down the Millstream river. The foreman of the drive, J. P. Cooney, reported them as far as Barwick on Tuesday, and it is expected that the drive will run into the booms at the mouth of the Millstream, the latter part of the week. James Smith of Berwick, millwright for Jones Bros., is busily engaged in the preliminary work connecting the mill, which will probably begin operations in about two weeks.

Mrs. Percy L. Folkins, wife of Pte. P. L. Folkins now in France, was the guest of Mrs. D. J. Cooney, who has been spending some time with his parents.

Mrs. G. A. Taylor accompanied by her brother, Pte. O. K. Taylor, spent a few days of last week in St. John.

Miss Greta Connelly has recovered from a slight indisposition. Miss Connelly's place as organist was acceptably filled on Sunday by Miss Jones in the Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. W. E. Moore in the Methodist.

Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Nesbitt, Sussex, were guests of Mrs. Douglas H. Bennett, Moncton, was the guest of Mrs. Henry Parlee and the Misses Parlee on Monday, enroute to St. John, where he was guest at the Masonic banquet.

Mrs. George H. Secord and Mrs. Jas. H. Manchester, are in St. John, as delegates to the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican church, which convened in Trinity Church, on April 24th, 25th, and 26th.

Miss Nellie Veysse spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Heber Wiles of College Bridge.

Ralph T. Pearson has been confined to his home for several days through illness, but his many friends are pleased to know he is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Nelson Secord spent part of last week with relatives in St. John. Major Morrison was a weekend guest with friends at College Bridge.

HARCOURT

Harcourt, April 25—On Saturday, Mr. William Cameron of this place received an official notice stating that his son was reported as wounded and had been removed to the military hospital in Boulogne, France. Pte. Cameron went overseas as a sergeant in the 14th Battalion, but gave up his stripes in order to set to France with a battalion which left England shortly after his arrival.

Mr. Joe Baldwin of Bass River, also received official word on Saturday stating that his son, Pte. Fred Baldwin had been wounded.

W. G. Thurber of Millerton, was in the village last week.

Among the visitors to Moncton last week were Miss Louise Cumming, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ward, J. A. Wathen and J. N. Wathen.

On Wednesday evening of last week a special service was held in the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Rowlands, pastor of the Methodist church in Millerton, gave a very interesting and beneficial address on missions.

Mrs. Margaret W. Wathen entertained several of her friends on Monday evening of last week.
