

emulate her great ancestor, which once had her day of small things, and now stretches her parental arms over the four corners of the earth."

May the Spirit of the living God be abundantly outpoured upon the Ministers and Members of our beloved Church; may He cause our present meeting together to promote His Glory and our mutual edification; and grant His grace to all assembled here, that they may go hence with minds and hearts more earnestly resolved to "work the works of Him who hath sent us, while it is day, since the night cometh when no man can work."

The Report having been read,

J. J. MARSHALL, Esq. M. P. P. and a Delegate from the Guysborough Local Committee moved the first Resolution, as follows:—

I. Resolved.—That the Report now read, be adopted, printed and circulated, under the direction of the General Committee.

Which being seconded by the Rev. CHARLES ELLIOTT, was agreed to.

The Rev. W. COGSWELL, Secretary of the Society then moved:—

II. Resolved.—That this Meeting rejoices in the advancing prosperity of this Institution: and desires, especially, to express gratitude to God, for the increased interest in the work of the Society manifested by the Local Committees, which have been some time formed, and for the readiness with which those of more recent formation have joined in the work.

Which was seconded by S. P. FAIRBANKS, Esq., Delegate from the Liverpool Local Committee, and passed.

The Hon. The CHIEF JUSTICE then moved, and the Rev. Dr. SHREVE seconded the following:—

III. Resolved.—That this Meeting desire to express their sense of the deep importance of early training, on the principles of true Religion, and rejoice that the Society have engaged in the endeavour, as their means may enable them, to supply at least, one School, conducted on the principles of the Established Church, to each mission in the Province.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. JAMES C. COCHRAN then moved as follows:—

IV. Resolved.—That this Meeting, thankful for the religious privileges they enjoy, rejoice over every effort to spread the knowledge of salvation among those less favoured than themselves; and desire to praise God that the Society has been encouraged to undertake the support of two travelling Missionaries who may convey to the most retired settlements and secluded cottages of the Province the glad tidings of the Saviour's love, through the regularly appointed Ministry of his Church.

Which being seconded by Dr. HENRY, P. M. O., was agreed to.

The Fifth Resolution was moved by the Rev. WILLIAM BULLOCK, and seconded by the Rev. R. F. UNIACKE and adopted, as follows:—

V. Resolved.—That this Meeting is fully sensible that, in order to sustain the important undertakings which have been mentioned, great and
