SNOWED UP .- The Windsor and Annapolis contended for the baltot. E. M. McDonald

SNOWED UP.—The Windsor and Annapolis Railway was so completely blocked up with snow drifts between Wolfville and Kentville on Friday and Saturday, as to effectually impede travel by that line. The passengers who left Halfax on Saturday morning for Kentville and other places beyond it wave returned to Half LIFE OF COLLINS, should be put into circulation on every Circuit of the Conference. The latter work we are now ready to furnish t $1.25 per copy, or $12.50 per dozen copies.

Hahfax on Saturday morning for Kentville and other places beyond it, were returned to Hali-fax on Saturday evening, having learned by telegraph that it would probably be Monday evening before the track could be cleared of Scotia franchise, and other personal property, also annual tenants. It is thought the bill will be amended in com-mittee to approach nearer the present Nova Scotia franchise, and also to continue the ballot in New Brunswick.

There is nothing positive about the currency. Tenders for the rolling stock of the Interco-lonial Railway were opened to-day.
