Travellers to Winnipeg Get Chance to Study Hinterland

New Ontario's Immense forest reserves and seat of Provincial Colonization Scheme of Great Interest

The traveller nowadays wants something more than formal seat space, and the well established service of the Canadian Northern to Western Canada affords ample opportunity for thought. The immense stands of merchantable timber, the untold wealth in water power, and the great commercial and agricultural possibilities of Northern Ontario should be matters of common knowledge to Canadians. Modern trains of standard and tourist sleeping cars and coaches leave Toronto Union Station at 10:00 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, connecting at Winnipeg for all points in Western Canada.

For information, literature, tickets and reservations, apply to nearest C.N.R. Ticket Agent, or write General Passenger Department, 68 King Street East, Toronto.

Like the Sound of a Bell.

One stroke of a bell in a thick fog does not give any lasting impression of its location, but when followed by repeated strokes at regular intervals the densest fog or the darkest night can not long conceal its whereabouts. Likewise, a single insertion of an advertisement—as compared with regular and systematic advertising—is in its effect not unlike a sound which, heard but faintly once, is lost in space and soon forgotten.

DRAFTEE TRIES TO SUICIDE TO EVADE SERVICE

A young man named Eli Quackerbush, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Quackerbush, South Gower, attempted to evade the Military Service Act by the suicide route a few days ago. He had been in uniform but was home on leave, which expired. On his failure to return, military police visited his home, and ascertained that he had obtained employment at the farm of Mr. Sidney Payne. They found him there and placed him under arrest. He was permitted on request, to go to the barn to get his coat; but instead he got a stone and attempted to fracture his skull; failing in this, he got a jackknife and essayed to end his existence by cutting his throat. When found he had made a nasty gash across his throat. A doctor was summoned from Kemptonville, who dressed the wounds and the young man was brought to the town, and next morning was taken to Ottawa.

Source of Strength.

Let us draw strength not from twice-told arguments, but from the busy spectacle of our great city's life, remembering that all her magnitude she owes to men with the fighter's daring, the wise man's understanding of his duty and the good man's self-discipline in its performance.—Exchange.

Heroic Wireless Operator.

The heroic conduct of Vignola, the wireless operator in the Messageries liner Natal, sunk in the Mediterranean, was brought to light by survivors. When the collision occurred Vignola, who had been temporarily relieved by a petty officer, rushed to his post and telling his substitute to save himself, sent out a signal of distress. Then he reported to the captain, who replied, "All right, now save yourself!" Instead of doing so the operator returned to his telegraph cabin and with absolute calm sent out fresh signals, which were picked up by the Marcellus station. When the ship sank a quarter of an hour later Vignola went down with it.

Replace Your Buggy With a Ford

MORE than 100,000 Fords are owned by people in Canada in preference to the old horse-drawn buggy and other makes of cars.

Your neighbors, and farmers in every section of the Dominion are abandoning their old buggies—selling their driving horses and buying Fords.

Ford cars are utility cars. They are built to endure the strain of constant daily use over rough roads.

These are the tests every farmer gives his car. The Ford meets them in a satisfactory manner. It is the farmer's car, so why not replace your horse and buggy with a Ford?
