THE BONAPARTE FAMILY

It is known that when Bonaparte had married the daughter of Francis of Austria... The only danger is in political agitators taking advantage of it...

SPAIN

Changes succeed one another rapidly in Spain. O'Donnell has resigned, and Narvaez, an exile only a few days ago, has formed a new Ministry...

ITALY

We have the authority of the Times correspondent for saying that the "ultimatum" has been sent to Naples with the rather amusing intelligence that the fleets are to support its demands by cruising at a distance...

RUSSIA

The Times correspondent writes: "A few days since you were informed that a note, which was a kind of pendant to the circular of Sept. and had been forwarded by Prince Gortschakoff to this government..."

years may, however, be readily understood when considered that the Russian territory has now an extent of 22,000,000 of square kilometres... The London journals announce that the Moscow correspondent of the Times has met a disagreeable loss on his return home...

DENMARK

The Faederlandet, of Copenhagen, announces that the question of the Sound dues is settled, England and Denmark having come to an agreement. The land transit duty is to be reduced.

GREECE

The Greek clergy.—The schism so obstinately adhered to by the clergy of the Greek Church is now producing its sad fruits in the destruction of all legitimate authority that could or would be a check upon the scandalous lives of some ecclesiastics...

IRELAND

Not many years ago there lived on the western shores of Ireland a certain gentleman, who was by profession an attorney at law... The M.P. had a tenant named Tom Macnamara, a very shrewd fellow and quite an adept at minor matters of law...
