

In case of such assumption, compensation to be made to Company.

XXXI. In case of such assumption as aforesaid, the Government shall within four months after the Company shall render an account in writing of the amount of money expended by the said Company, and all their then ascertained liabilities up to the time of such assumption, pay to the said Company, the whole amount of the money so expended and of the liabilities so ascertained, together with interest at the rate of six per cent, and ten per cent additional thereon, after deducting the amount of any dividends before then declared, and the said Government shall also from time to time pay and discharge all liabilities of the Company, not ascertained at the time of such assumption, as the same shall be established against the Company; Provided always, that in case of a difference between the Government and the Company as to the amount to be paid by the Government, such difference shall be referred to two Arbitrators, one to be named by the Government, the other by the Company; and in case of disagreement, such difference shall be referred to an Umpire, to be chosen by such Arbitrators before entering into the consideration of the said difference, and the said award so made by the Arbitrators or the Umpire shall be final; and provided also, that in case of refusal by the Company to appoint an Arbitrator on their behalf, the same shall be appointed by any two of the Judges of either of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Upper Canada, or by any two Judges of the Superior Court in Lower Canada, on the application of the Government.

Public Act.

XXXII. This Act shall be a Public Act.
