ANNUAL CONVENTION, OTTAWA, FEB. 7 AND 8, 1912

A large and enthusiastic meeting is expected at the Capital on the above dates. The sessions of the meeting will be held in the Railway Committee room of the House of Commons. H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught has graciously extended his patronage to the convention. It is expected that the Premier and the leader of the Opposition will be present and give addresses. The railways have granted special rates for the meeting. For further information see page 141.
