

Gifts for the Fields

Following the church service Sunday, June 16, a reception was held for Rev. Paul Field who was leaving Streetsville United Church to take up duties at Central United, Weston.

Tom Fulcher was master of ceremonies at the event. Gifts were presented to Mr. Field by the junior and intermediate choirs and Trinity Anglican choir.

Mrs. Field received gifts from the UCW and flowers from the Sunday School. On behalf of the congregation Gord Bentley presented Mr. Field with a tape recorder. Coffee and tea were served during an informal hour with the Fields.

It happens. Even to Mississauga's finest. Const. Gomer Banting thought it a nasty blow.

Mystery fire guts empty Malton home

Mississauga firefighters fought a blaze in an abandoned house in Malton Sunday for over an hour before it could be "knocked down."

The house on Goreway dr., north of Morningstar dr., was almost completely burned out.

Neighbors told fire department investigators the house has been closed for some time. Windows had been smashed and the dwelling was in a state of disrepair at the time of the incident.

The owner of the house has not yet been located, although it is known to be in trust to a

G. Pyne, a solicitor in Toronto. Mr. Pyne left on vacation last week and cannot be contacted. The land is for sale, but it is understood the house is of no value since it is unsuitable as a dwelling place.

The Malton fire station was called to the scene at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon. No precautionary measures were taken to prevent the blaze from spreading because neighboring houses are some distance away.
