No. 3 S.F.T.S. Calgary, Alberta.	27-6-41		thoroughly appreciate their visit. Squadron Leader E.J. Ellis, No. 4 T.C. Regina, visited the Station and discussed training problems. No. 3 S.F.T.S. was well represented by a wing of 475 and band in the Monster Recruiting Parade held during the evening. A steady rain fell throughout the proceedings but failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the thousands who lined the streets to see the largest parade ever held in this City. Prime Minister W.L. MacKenzie King took the salute at the City Hall. Concluding the parade, a varied programme of music and community singing was enjoyed by a large crowd at Victoria Park. Led by the massed R.C.A.F. - I.(R) T.C. Band, about 7000 men representing the three services, 5,000 school children, as well as members of the auxiliary groups were present.
	28-6-41		Equipment of the Station band was further augmented by the addition of a beautiful leopard skin apron to be worn by the drummer. The apron was presented by Mr. Frank Webster of Calgary and will add further to the already smart appearance of the band. Flying Officer G.G. Foolkes, Security Guard Officer, arrived on posting from No. 32 S.F.T.S., Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. Pilot Officer Wurtelle arrived 1245 hours from Edmonton and departed for Regina via Medicine Hat 1515 hours. Heavy rainstorm 1415 hours to 1440 hours. Officers' Dance was held in the mess, music by No. 31 E.F.T.S. dance orchestra. A large and enthusiastic crowd attended.
