

C 35901

Law School

MAY EXAMINATIONS : 1897.

SECOND YEAR.

PRACTICE.

PASS.

Examiner : R. E. KINGSFORD.

1. State the particulars required to be set forth by affidavit on a motion for immediate judgment.

2. What remedies can you ask for in an action on a mortgage (a) in an ordinary mortgage action, (b) where the mortgagee's security is being prejudiced by the mortgagor.

3. Mention the cases in which service out of the jurisdiction is authorized.

4. How is service upon an infant effected ?

5. A. and B. jointly covenant with C. You are acting for B., who is sued by C. alone. What courses are open to you on behalf of B., who wishes to defend the action ?

6. At what stage of an action, and how, can you secure the examination for discovery of the other party ?

7. State the course of procedure in the Master's office on the bringing in of a judgment ordering a reference where accounts are directed to be taken.

8. What is a stop order ? How is it obtained ? What is its effect ?

9. Explain how a mandamus is obtained and what different kinds of mandamus are there ?

10. A. obtains a judgment in his favour at the non-jury sittings in London. B. and C. are defendants. Judgment goes against B., but the action is dismissed as against C. B. wishes to appeal from this judgment. State the course of his procedure to bring on the appeal.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume C 45