

C 67134

Imperial Economic 5

of the 1923 Conference as to the impracticability expense and friction involved in the alternative methods of preference proposed, namely subsidies import licenses and state purchase and food control, the prospect for an adequate and workable alternative is not very certain. They will, however, be prepared to co-operate in such an inquiry by the Marketing Committee, as to which a despatch was sent last week.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA