SANCTIONS - RIDDELL

RIDDELL INCIDENT - 15

Newspaper Comment of Oil Embargo - 3

(Hansard Feb. 11 - Pages 110-111)

London Spectator - Nov. 22.

No rapid results can be looked for unless the extension of the list of key products proposed by Canada is agreed on.

London Spectator - Nov. 29.

Canada, very properly dissatisfied with a list of key commodities from which the master key was absent, proposed that petrol and coal should be added, provided that the non-league States were willing to co-operate.

Associated Press - Geneva - Nov. 5.

An official communique said a Canadian proposal adopted by the sub-committee provided that the list of "Key-Products" barred to Italy should be extended by various articles "as soon as conditions necessary to render this extension effective have been realized."

Canadian Press - London, Nov. 26.

Official quarters mentioned that Britain already agreed in principle to the proposal at Geneva of Dr. W. A. Riddell of Canada, that coal and oil be added to the list of products not to be sent to Italy, when such an embargo could be made effective.
