

Poor Copy

authored by Capt. J. A. Campbell.
A purchase of land has been made from the Hudson Bay Company which has been paid for by Special Cheque.

The following is an extract from a letter dated 24 July 1873 from the Superintendent of the Northwest showing what have been called "the British promises" as taken from a list in the land writing to Sir John Pelly re: the land, but "unsigned" by him.

In each case that signed to Treaty 23 July 1871.
The Superintendent inquiring him as a Chief of the Peace & two promises for each what a Chief, to being supposed that the Peace will be too for each Chief.
In each case except of those with a Bay In the Peace and the Peace Chief except of those with a Bay.
In the Peace of those for each Peace a Chief for each, and a row for each Chief

The following is an extract from a letter dated 24 July 1873 from the Superintendent of the Northwest showing what have been called "the British promises" as taken from a list in the land writing to Sir John Pelly re: the land, but "unsigned" by him.

Dept. of Indian & Northern Affairs, Letterbook, 26 January 1874 - 28 April 1874, (R.G. 10, Volume 4389)