

REV. EDWIN FESSANT

THE Rev. Edwin Fessant was born in Sheffield, England, in the year 1833. In 1842 he came to Canada with an uncle, and settled in Guelph. Subsequently he resided in Detroit, and it was here that he entered the ministry. In 1857 he was appointed to his first circuit at Kingsville, Ont. He also labored at Milford, Collingwood, Danville, Leeds, Newboro, Portage du Fort, Sarnia Indian Mission, Gorrie, Millbank, Centralia, Avon, Goldsmith, Indian Mission, Walpole Island, Ravenswood, and finally at Straffordville. In 1861 he married Miss Emily Williams, who died two and a half years ago. He was superannuated in 1897, and during the past ten years has resided at Sarnia.

THE Rev. R. J. Garbutt was born in Canada, of English parents. In the early days they moved to the Queen's bush, and took up and cleared a farm in the township of Peel. His youth was spent on the farm, but after coming of age he attended college, and entered the ministry in 1891. Later he graduated LL.B. at Victoria. All his ministry has been spent in the London conference, and he is now stationed at Petrolia.
