

St. Andrew's Fiftieth Milestone

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

THE TRUE STORY of a church is contained in the lives of its members which no man can relate. St. Andrew's has steadily gone on from strength to strength, rich indeed in memories, but richer still because it has felt within its heart the life of God. A Church of the living God! What friendships have been sheltered here! What noble names treasured like gold! What communings and inspirations interwoven with its life! For some of us St. Andrew's is crowded with many of the most precious memories we know."

This is the message of a former pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Rev. W. L. H. Rowand, sent on the occasion of the celebration of the Golden Jubilee of the Presbyterian congregation at Fort William, when it can look back on fifty years of development, during which the seed planted by the early missionaries by the waters of Thunder Bay has grown into a living Church, from the parent stem of which offshoots have been planted throughout the district, bearing testimony to the zeal of those who have done the work and the Grace of God Who has blessed their labors.

Sunday, June 1st, has been selected as the day for the fitting celebration of this Golden Jubilee, in St. Andrew's Church, Fort William, and the session and board of managers feel that, on an occasion such as this, it is appropriate to publish a short sketch covering the history of the
