Recipes

Flume Flannel Cakes

Scald one and one-half cupsful of milk, and add one-fourth cupful sugar, one-half cupful butter, and one-half teaspoonful salt. When lukewarm, add half of a yeast cake, and when yeast cake is dissolved add four cupfuls of flour. Mix thoroughly and add two egg whites beaten until stiff. Cover and let rise overnight; in the morning cut down, turn into buttered iron gem pans, having pans one-half full of mixture. Let rise, and bake in a hot oven twenty minutes.

Sausage-Toad-in-the-Hole

Take five ounces of flour, a pint of milk, two eggs, a little salt, and a pound of pork sausages. Mix together the first three, afterwards adding the salt. Put sufficient dripping into a baking-tin to form a thin layer when melted, beat up the batter again and add half a teaspoonful of baking powder to it; pour it quickly into the tin and put in the sausages. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour and add boiled potatoes before the dish is served.

Rabbit Pie

After boning the rabbit, put the bones with sufficient water to cover, into a stewpan, together with a large onion, a bunch of mixed herbs, and nutmeg, mace, salt, and pepper to season, and simmer for an hour. Arrange the rabbit meat in layers in a large pie-dish, placing a little fat bacon cut in strips and the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs in between. Strain over the gravy from the bones. Cover over with good pastry, and bake for an hour and a half.

Beef and Tomato Pie

Slices of cold beef should be arranged in a pie-dish with layers of thickly-sliced tomatoes and onions, then add seasoning. Continue the layers till the dish is full; add sufficient gravy to moisten the whole, cover with par-boiled potatoes cut in slices, and bake in a moderate oven for one hour.
