

the past decade. None of the surrounding Countries — excepting Canada — have increased their population so rapidly as this Province, and we believe that we have had comparatively as little or less poverty and distress.

We look forward with hope to the future, trusting that when new Returns will be required, they will be found to contain even more cheering results than those which we have now the honor to present.

Yours, very respectfully,

CHARLES A. EVERETT, }
JAMES S. BEEK, } COMPILEES.