Local Affairs.

er unnoticed and started the horses. Seeing at once that the little fellow would be killed if the team ran away, "Will" turned suddenly and sprang to the horses' head, only a few steps away, but in doing so he gave his left knee a bad wrench which snapped the knee cap, breaking it off horizontally. Dr. Tuck was soon on the spot and did everything possible for the young man who was suffering intensely. Mr. Hueston will be confined to his room for a long time, and it is earnestly hoped that the break may knit together so that nothing further than a stiffness of the joint may result.
The Mail says of Parker's Dye Works, Toronto: "No longer is it necessary to give away, or sell for a trifling amount, the partly worn goods when they can be cleaned and dyed so as to present as good an appearance as new, and last double the time they would otherwise." This firm have now a most enviable reputation and are distinguished from other and less competent dyers by the fine work they turn out." We cannot say any too much for R. Parker & Co., the well-known dyers, of Toronto. We advise our readers to look through their wardrobe and have their soiled or faded garments cleaned or dyed to look like new. Agents: A. B. Allison, Gorrie; Jas. Fox, Wroxeter; J. C. Bell, Fordwich. Orders left at any of the above agencies will receive prompt attention.

Sad Death in Detroit.

Early on the morning of Sept. 2nd, Mrs. William A. Leech passed away at her home in Detroit, after only a few hours illness, at the early age of 82 years. Her home was next to that of her sister, Mrs. Ed. W. Leech, and the two sisters had spent the evening together, after which deceased went home. In a short time she was heard moaning as if in pain, and Mr. and Mrs. "Eddie" (as he is familiarly known in Gorrie) were speedily at her side and found her in convulsions from the effects of which she died. Fearing that her strange disease might be cholera the Health Officer was notified and he ordered a post mortem examination which showed that she had, by some means taken at least 6/10ths of a grain of strychnine. How the poison was taken is a mystery. There is not the faintest suspicion of suicide as her life was one of contented happiness and her surroundings the pleasantest. She had been taking pink pills which she got while on a visit to her parents and friends in Bluevale and in this section a couple of weeks ago, but it is not possible that a sufficient quantity of the deadly drug could have been taken in this way. The jury's verdict was strongly against the theory of suicide, as are all her friends, yet how she partook of the strychnine which caused her death is a mystery. Her sister is prostrated with grief and the many relatives and friends, both in Detroit and in this neighborhood are profoundly sorrowful over the sudden closing of this young and beautiful life. She leaves a child and a sorrowing husband, who was absent from home at the time.

Wroxeter.

Wroxeter council met on the evening of Tuesday, 20th inst.

Present, Reeve Sanders, Councillors W. Lee, J. B. Vogt and Thos. Hemphill. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

An account from Martin & Adair, Gorrie, for cedar sidewalks, amounting to $26.88, was passed and a debenture drawn for the same.

On motion of Messrs. Lee and Vogt the reeve was empowered to have the bond of the collector properly executed, and to have the roll handed to him.

On motion of Messrs. Hemphill and Vogt the council adjourned to meet on the third Tuesday of October, or at the call of the Reeve.

J. COWAN, Clerk.

Lakelet.

If the amount of apple butter, jelly and cider is correspondingly great to the quantity of apples that pass through here to the mill at Clifford, the people in this vicinity will have an over dose of the ingredients. Load after load goes by, and it is surprising how the Cliffordites can attend to the wants of all. The return with Clifford failed to come off on Saturday. The Clifford boys, for reasons they fail to disclose, would not play. It is not likely the return will be played as the Clifford boys are very indifferent about it, hence our boys came to the conclusion they are afraid to meet them.

There will be a literary contest in our lodge on Saturday night. As the long nights are here, we expect a series of interesting, instructive programmes henceforth.

There is a great deal of sickness lurking round here. Some of the younger people are afflicted, and Mrs. J. Rolston and Mrs. Mahood are seriously ill, both being under medical treatment. LATER.—As we go to press we learn that Mrs. Mahood passed away on Tuesday evening.

Owing to the very disagreeable and wet weather of Tuesday last, the report regarding Mr. Beattie's death was not extensively circulated. The reason was that the funeral was not so large as it otherwise would have been. The remains were interred in the cemetery here after the preaching of an appropriate and impressive sermon in the church by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Potter.

Our carpenter, Mr. Cook, is employed by Mr. Dulmage to-day repairing the windows and otherwise beautifying the front of the store. The work done adds much to the appearance of the store and reflects credit on the workman.

Quite a singular accident happened one of Mr. Adam Scott's horses on Sunday. It appears it kicked at a dog which was in pursuit of it, but missing the dog struck the fence with such force as to break its leg. The animal, which was a fairly good one, will doubtless have to be shot.

Miss Lottie Hovey, accompanied by Miss Crittenden, of Blyth, arrived home on Friday.

Mr. Brewster, brother of Mrs. Carlton, of this place, spent Saturday night here. He then drove to Wingham, from which place he purposed taking the train to London to attend the exhibition there this week.

Some weeks ago reference was made in a rather obscure way to what was supposed to be a case of theft. About that time Mr. Robt. Scott, thresher, had a watch and waist coat stolen while at work at Mr. W. Montgomery's. For weeks all theories were advanced as to its disappearance and no doubt Mr. S. had abandoned all hopes of recovering it. Last Wednesday morning the watch and waist coat were found by some of the milkmen in a vehicle at Springbank factory. Some maintain it was hidden merely as a jest; others that the criminal's conscience convicted him and constrained him to return it. These are, however, only people's opinions, but the real cause of its mysterious disappearance and return may never be unearthed.

Second Line Items.

On Sept. 7th occurred the marriage of Mr. Henry M. Roadhouse, 2nd con., and Miss Elizabeth, daughter of the late James Armstrong, Esq. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brownlee at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. B. Scott, in Gorrie. The bride was supported by her cousin, Miss Eliza Lennox, while Mr. Ed. Dean, of Wallace, acted as groomsman. About 50 elegant gifts were presented to the bride. The happy couple enjoyed a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and other places returning to their home here on Tuesday last.

Quite a large number from our community availed themselves of the cheap rates to Toronto to take in the exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Armstrong left last week for Toronto, where Mr. A. enters upon his fourth year at the medical faculty of Toronto University. We wish him success.

Mr. John Faust has bought a new safety bicycle, and can be seen making trips to various points. The machine is a slick one and John will soon become an expert wheelman. But the girls all want to know why he has furnished it with a lamp.

Messrs. B. Cooper and A. Spotton took in the London exhibition this week. But there is something more attractive than the exhibition about London.

Mr. John Hovey has acquired the services of a youth from the Stratford Orphans' home as a general farm hand.

On Sunday afternoon last, while Mr. Adam Faust was returning from church at Mayo, the horse which he was driving became very refractory and attempted to run away. By skillful handling the animal was kept in subjection and did little damage except breaking the shafts and giving the party a general shaking up.
Mrs. Edward Cooper returned on Monday from a two weeks visit with her mother in Oshawa.
