American Secretary of State Delivers Message at Paris

Germans Must be Fed and Given an Opportun-ity to Sell Goods in Foreign Markets if the Premier Voices Country is to be Saved From Bolshevism-German Fleet to be Limited to 15,000 Men and No More Poison Gas Allowed—Germans Recapture Two Towns From Bolshevists

CRISIS IN AFFAIRS OF WORLD SAYS LANSING

PARIS, March 12-"We have reached a crisis in the affairs of Mr. Johnson,of the world," said United States Secretary of State Robert Lansing at a banquet here last night. Lansing was emphatic in his statement that the Allies must feed Germany and give "Mrs. J. W. Johnson. the Germans an opportunity to sell their products in foreign markets if the danger of Bolshevism was to be avoided. He painted a vivid picture of conditions in the war zone of France myself, I extend our deepest sympa- gram acquainting me of the death and pointed out that it was not through pity for Germany but thy to you in the loss you and your of the member for West Hastings to the Allies' own advantage to see that anarchy was prevented respect in which your late husband Hearst.
