

Miscellaneous.

THE PROFESSOR AND STUDENT. A professor of Latin in the university of Edinburgh, now no more, having desired the students to give a list of their names in Latin, was greatly surprised on seeing written on a slip of paper the name "Joannes Ovum Novum."

After in vain seeking for a translation of this, he at last, became convinced that it was either one of those dark Latin passages, which even the skill of Bentley would have failed in solving, or that it was a hoax. He therefore, next day, in the class, read out the three dark words, and desired the writer of them to stand up.

One of the pupils immediately rose. "What are you?" said the professor. "A poor scholar, sir," was the answer. "A very poor scholar, indeed, sir—or you would never have written such stuff as 'Joannes Ovum Novum.' That can't be your name, sir."

"I don't see," said the student, "where you can find better Latin; my name is John Egnew, 'Ovum' for Egg, 'Novum' for new; 'Ovum Novum—Egg new.'" The professor, seeing that he had rather the worst of it, immediately laid his finger upon his forehead, and looking at his hopeful pupil, who was standing somewhat in the attitude of a drill sergeant, exclaimed in a pitiful voice—

"Alas! alas! something wrong here, I fear." "May be so," shouted "Ovum Novum," "something wrong may be there; but," striking his hand upon his own forehead, "there is nothing wrong here!"

Beat this who can.—We are informed by a correspondent, that the wife of a man, named John P., residing near Little Falls, was on Monday, July 22, safely delivered of five children at one birth, all boys, and that with the mother, are all doing well. Beat this who can.—Albany Express.

The New Cardinal and Temperance.—A subscription is on foot to raise the sum of £200 to stock the wine-cellar of Cardinal Wiseman. This, it is said by the party getting up the subscription, will be "a most acceptable present."—English Paper.

Three or more of our contemporaries, says the Nottingham Journal, have been, telling their readers of an inquest on "part of a human body, consisting of the skull, one arm, the thigh bones, and two boots!"

A Very Significant Simile.—There is a lady of some note in Monterey, who is the mother of twenty-two living children. The youngest is at the breast, and must soon, it is said, relinquish his place to a new comer, who will, in all probability, be allowed only the same brevity of bliss.—There is a lady in the department below, who has twenty-eight children, all living, in fine health, and who may share the envied kiss with others yet to come. What a family—what a wife—what a mother? I have more respect for the shadow of that woman, than for the living presence of the moping being who raises a whole village if she has one child and then puts it to death with sugar plums. A woman with one child is like a hen with one chicken; there is an eternal scratch about nothing.—Walter Colton's Book.

Roundabout Evidence.—Mother Hopkins told me that she heard Green's wife say, that John Glarrie's wife told her that granny Hopkins heard the widow Basham say, that Captain Weed's wife thought Col. Hopkin's wife believed that old Miss Lamb reckoned that Samuel Danham's wife had told Spalding's wife that she heard John Frinks say, that her mother told her old Miss Jenks heard granny Cook say, that it was a matter of fact!

The King of Dahomey has had some coffins made at Hamburg for the use of himself and the members of his illustrious family when they shall have departed this mortal life. They are in a style of great splendor, the King's own box costing over $4000. At each side of the head are fixed liquor cases, with decanters and glasses, so that the defunct may be able duly to wet his whistle. The coffin is lined with cushions of red satin, and adorned on the outside with ornaments of bronze and carving. It is supported with a lion of metal.

Sagacious.—"Pa," said a little fellow the other day, "was Job an Editor?" "Why, Sammy?" "Because the Bible says he had much trouble, and was a man of sorrow all the days of his life."

Professional Excuse.—An Editor at a dinner table, being asked if he would take some pudding, replied, "Owing to a crowd of other matter, I am unable to make room for it."

Whistle your Lobster back!—A man had received a large lot of lobsters, fresh and lively, when a boy stood looking at the critters, accompanied by his dog—"Suppose you put your dog's tail between the lobster's claw?" said the man. "Agreed," said the boy. The dog was extracted from the claw, and the dog's tail inserted. Away went the dog off home, howling at the squeeze his tail got from the lobster. "Whistle your dog back, you young scamp," said the man. "Whistle your lobster back," cried the boy, and absquatulated. The boy made a lobster supper that night.

At the North Riding Sessions last week, the trial of a prisoner for robbery on the Northallerton Race-course recalled to the Rev. T. W. Morley a personal anecdote. The Rev. gentleman was once in a crowd in London, and felt some one put his hand into his pocket. He turned round and said to a man behind him, "You have had your hand in my pocket." "Yes, sir," said the thief, "and I am sorry to say I found nothing in it."

None are so invincible as your half-witted people, who know just enough to excite their pride, but not so much as to cure their ignorance.

No man has a right to do as he pleases, except when it pleases to do right.
