THE HYMN OF THE LUSITANIA
(Translated from the German by Edith Wharton)
The swift sea sucks the death shriek under,
As the great ship reels and leaps asunder,
Crammed taffrail high with her murderous freight
Like a straw on the tide she whirls to her fate:
A warship, she thought, she lacked its coat,
And lustful for lives as none afloat,
A warship, one of the foes' best workers,
Not penned with her rusting harbor shirkers;
Now the Flanders guns lack their daily bread
And skipper and buyer are sick with their dread.
For neutrals Uncle Sam may be—
Your surest neutral's the deep, green sea,
Just one ship sunk with lives and shell,
And thousands of German gray coats well,
And for each of her gray coats German hate
Would have sunk ten ships with all their freight;
Yea ten such ships are a paltry fine,
For one good life on our fighting line;
Let England ponder the crimson text
Torpedo struck! and look out for the next.

A HUNDRED SOCIETY LADIES AT HENLEY
Will Control Grand Stand Receipts, and Sell Refreshment for Red Cross.

This year's war-time "Henley" next Friday and Saturday at the St. Kitts course, should be a huge success. Not only did the entries exceed expectations but the St. Catharines Keen Cross Society is taking hold of their end of the meet in grand style and a handsome sum will surely be realized for Red Cross purposes. Not only will the proceeds in the grand stand be devoted to the Red Cross fund, but too of the society buds of St. Catharines will invade the grounds. They will serve tea and ice cream in makes, sell tags and souvenirs and generally make a great big affair of it in aid of war funds. To assist in stimulating recruiting among the oarsmen and other friends—if any stimulation is necessary—the C.A.A. will hold a recruiting rally in the St. Kitts City Park on Friday evening, Senator Loughheed, Acting Minister of Militia, will preside and among the speakers will be A. Claude Macdonnell, P. Col. Currie, Joseph Thompson, and Lieut.-Col. Logie, O. C. Divisional Area of Niagara, and his staff will be present.

WILL TORONTO GIVE UP MOTORS AND FASHIONS?
T. W. P. League May Follow Suggestions of Britain's War on Luxury.

"We might pledge ourselves against using jitneys," said a Toronto club woman in discussing the decrees advocated by the British Parliamentary War Savings Committee in their war against luxury, "but as most of Toronto hasn't an automobile, and much of them already parted with its car, we can't do much more than that."

The call is for pledges that the people abstain from luxuries, and the committee suggests many varieties of sacrifice for the different phases of society. Those definitely outlined are that the use of motor cars for private purposes be given up, that no restaurants be patronized and that no attention be paid to passing fashions.

"Fear out your clothes," says Mr. H. E. Monaghan, of the committee, "and ignore the changing styles."
"It is quite possible that Toronto will take some action in that regard," said Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, of the Toronto Women's Patriotic League. "Of course, much more economy has been practiced this year by Toronto women than most people realize."

"Very little entertaining has taken place. Many have given up their summer tours, and others have only taken short trips. It is amazing to note how many women have already returned to town. Many luxuries have been more sacrifice than people know. Some of it has been caused by necessity, but much of it is pure sacrifice or patriotism, that more could be given for the war."
"As for the suggestion that restaurants should not be patronized—that requires thought. It would be hard on the restaurants. Apart from that, many Toronto people living in apartments find the restaurants an economy."
No combined action has been taken by Toronto in the war against luxury.

"There is no doubt more of us could do without motors if we had adequate car service," said another Toronto woman. "We people living north of the tracks have to walk from Farnham avenue, and back again up hill, and as for riding home at night, it is simply disgusting. Even the jitneys are filled to overflowing down at King street. Motors are more necessary in Toronto than many other items of living."

BURGLAR CAUSES FIRE WHICH LEADS TO THE DEATH OF TWO CHILDREN

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Montreal, Aug. 7.—Two children were burned to death early this morning in a fire caused by a burglar, who surprised by Mrs. Cyprien Tetreault of 1455 St. Zetique St., while he was sprawling about her shed, hurled a stone at her, knocking a lamp from her hand. The oil ignited and the house was destroyed. Mrs. Tetreault escaped from the burning house with her year-old baby, but her four-year-old son, Lorenzo, and her ten-year-old niece, Yvonne Tetreault, lost their lives. The burglar escaped.

A gallant rescue by a chief officer has been recognized. The Imperial Merchant Service Guild have conferred a diploma on vellum and the honor clasp of the Society for presentation to the chief officer of the Immanuel, who jumped overboard and rescued a passenger on the night of the 15th May last. The officer was in his room when he heard the shout of "Man overboard." He rushed out and without hesitation jumped into the water and held up the passenger until they were picked up by a small boat. The water was intensely cold and both the officer and the rescued man suffered greatly from their immersion. About eighteen months ago it was brought to the notice of the Guild that this same officer had saved the life of a lady passenger who fell overboard from the steamer whilst the vessel was lying in Cork Harbour. Upon that occasion the Guild made representations to the Royal Humane Society and he was awarded the bronze clasp.
