NAME VANDICATED

By Courier Lensed Wire. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 25.—Canadian and American government officials have formally denied that Alfred Benninghaus, a prominent local merchant, was involved in any way in the incident of August 20, which caused American soldiers to fire on a launch in St. Mary's River.

It is claimed that one of the soldiers who reported this incident, informed newspapers that Benninghaus was in the launch. It developed later, according to the authorities, that the man's name was Benoit. Mr. Benninghaus, a native of Canada, has on more than one occasion, proved his loyalty to the Canadian and American military forces, local officials said to-day. He is the owner of a launch which is quite well known on the river, but the boat was not in use at the time of the shooting.

(From our own Correspondent)

Do It Now The 1917 voters' list for Simcoe was posted yesterday. Since the assessors were around there have been many changes. It may be there have been errors or omissions in the making of the list. It is the duty of every citizen who values his franchise to examine the list and give notice to the clerk in writing of any alterations that should be made. Now's the time to act. The morning of election is too late. Lists may be seen at the post office lobby; the court house or the clerk's office. If you do not think it worth while to look now, do not threaten to upset the half of a continent later in case you are deprived of the ballot. If you can't get out, ask some one to see the list for you.

There is a departure in the new lists in that the street address is given, and the distinctions north and south, east and west, are also indicated, even where there was formerly no ambiguity. Typographically, the volume is a credit to the office of publication, the British-Canadian Job Shop, and the stock and binding in keeping with the press work.

School Fairs Mr. Neff has issued the following list of dates and places for the holding of township school fairs: Charlotteville, Sept. 13th, at S. S. No. 11. Houghton, Sept. 11th, at Fairground. Midleton, Oct. 4th, at Courtland. Townsend, Sept. 7th, at S. S. No. 14. Windham, Oct. 2nd, at Windham Centre. Woodhouse, Sept. 27th, at Port Dover. Prize Oats in Norfolk—Townsend Leads.

The winners of the standing crop competition for oats, in Norfolk county, with one exception are Townsend farmers. There were eleven competitors for seven prizes. The list follows: 1. W. M. Mason, Townsend, (O. A. C. 72) 90 1/2 pts. $20.00. 2. W. M. Woodley, Townsend, (O. A. C. 72) 89 1/2 pts. $15.00. 3. Geo. Erwin, Townsend, (Banner), 88 pts. $12.00. 4. E. W. Hyde, Townsend, (Banner), 84 pts. $10.00. 5. Bruce Wilson, Townsend, (O. A. C. 72) 83 1/2 pts. $8.00. 6. Earl Mott, Townsend, (O. A. C. 72) 83 pts. $6.00. 7. Benson Hall, Ch'ville, (Banner) 80 1/2 pts. $4.00.

Clover Seed Brings Big Money. But oats are not the only crop in Norfolk. The Norfolk Milling Company has developed a big seed business and has just completed the complete re-modelling of their seed cleaning plant. Blue grass he delivered cleaned the day received. Geo. O. Boughner, of Woodhouse brought in 65 bushels of clover seed threshed off 16 acres. The best two acres gave 14 bushels. His cheque was for $629. Like the ancient new wine, this seed is marketed usually in New bags.

Fred Misner came in last evening with 48 bushels which brought $508.86 yesterday evening.

The Park Policy? The town park presents at present the best appearance for years. Presently seem to have taken a liking for tidy surroundings and are desisting from scattering lunch boxes and refuse about the place. The parks committee have attended to the grass cutting, but seems to have determined that if those who frequent the park would enjoy themselves better among the refuse, they may do so. It is therefore quite in order for lunch parties to leave all manner of refuse, orange and banana skins, and general picnic refuse around about the benches they expect to sit upon during the next visit to Lynnwood. It will be there no doubt on their return. And why not? Anything to please.

Press Photographs. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Collier, of Comber have been visiting and camping at Normandale with the latter's brother Mr. R. Cropp and their mother. At the same time Miss Elizabeth Cropp of Welland and Miss Mary Cropp of Moose Jaw have joined the family re-union. The sojourn east will wind up with a week-end trip to the falls and the ladies from the west will leave for home on Tuesday. Mrs. Fedgewick, of William street, Brantford, and Mrs. Miller and daughter, Miss Jean, also of Brantford were visitors at the home of Mrs. Gunton, Talbot street on Wednesday day. Mr. Guy Marston was in Toronto yesterday. I. McNally is on an official trip to Hamilton to-day. Lloyd Cattel returns to Toronto after two weeks' holidays at home. He will begin at the Harris Litho

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson IX.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 26, 1917.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings xxv, 1-21. Memory Verses, 10, 11—Golden Text, Ezek. xxxiii, 11—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The topic of this lesson is the captivity of Judah, for, although such men as Hezekiah and Josiah did what they could to turn the people from their sins to the Lord, the results were only partial and temporary, and their sins increased. The Lord God had compassion on them, notwithstanding their rebellion against Him, and sent them His messengers, His servants the prophets, to tell them of His love and His readiness to forgive them and bless them if only they would turn to Him with the whole heart, but they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words and misused His prophets until the wrath of the Lord arose against His people, till there was no remedy (II Chron. xxxvi, 15, 16).

Many times He had told them in the beginning of their national history how He would bless them in the land He had given them if only they would obey Him and honor Him and keep themselves from the idolatries of other nations. See for example Lev. xxvi, 1-33. He told them just as plainly what He would do to them and how He would punish them if they would not hearken to Him and keep His commandments (Lev. xxvi, 14-39). Three times in that chapter He told them that if they persisted in disobedience He would punish or chastise them seven times for their sins, an expression which we should consider later in our lesson (Lev. xxvi, 15, 24, 28). Not only during their wilderness journey, but also while the judges ruled, and afterward when He gave them kings, He many a time forgave their iniquity and delivered them and saved them for His name's sake (Ps. lxxvii, 28; cvi, 8, 49), but the time had come when there was no remedy but the captivity.

Josiah was succeeded by four kings, three sons and a grandson, each of whom did evil in the sight of the Lord, and during the twenty-two years of their reigns Judah was carried into captivity in three different companies until all but the very poorest were carried away. The fourth year of Jehoiakim was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, and in that year, which was about 606 B. C., some of the princes, including Daniel and others, and part of the household of the house of God were carried to Babylon (Jer. xxv, 1; Dan. i, 1-3). About seven years later Jehoiakim, who reigned only three months, was taken to Babylon, with his mother and servants and princes and officers and 10,000 others (perhaps 18,000) in Kings Jer. xl, 10, and this year later, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, the captivity of Judah was completed by the carrying away of Zedekiah and the rest of the people, except the poor, who were left to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

It is necessary for us to understand the remaining vessels destroyed or carried away (II Kings xv, 1-17). Then was fulfilled the strange prediction through Ezekiel concerning Zedekiah, "I will bring him to Babylon, yet shall he not see it," for after his sons were slain before his eyes they put out his eyes and bound him and carried him to Babylon (Ezek. xl, 13; Kings xv, 7). However seemingly impossible any prediction of the Lord may appear, it will surely be literally fulfilled in His time, either by a near or a far distant fulfillment, or oftentimes by both, for as we shall see, the Lord has many a germinal fulfillment, while the full accomplishment may be still in the future. The Lord had said through Jeremiah that this punishment of Judah would continue seven years and that then they would return, and so it came to pass, as we shall see in our lessons (Jer. xii, 12; II Chron. xxxvi, 20-23). Because Israel rejected their Messiah, when in the fullness of time He came to them, they have ever since been scattered among all nations, and He said that Jerusalem would be trampled down by the gentiles until the times of the gentiles be fulfilled (Luke xxi, 24).

The times of the gentiles began with Nebuchadnezzar, 606 B. C., and correspond with the seven times already referred to in this lesson, during which God said that He would punish Israel for their sins. According to Dan. xi, 13, margin, times are years, and in Num. xiv, 34, there is a way of the Lord revealed, wherein He used years for days. Seven times 360, the days in a Scriptural year, equals 2,520, which seems to cover the seven times of Israel's punishment. Now, 606 B. C., added to 1914, the year in which the present European war began, gives 2,520, and there seems therefore to be good reason for believing that the times of the gentiles began to run out in 1914. As they began gradually with the three deportations of Judah, referred to in this lesson, so it may require eighteen years, more to Jesus, to end them. Since, then, we are already in the beginning of the end of these times, how fully occupied we should be in giving the gospel to help complete the probation of the body of Christ, and hasten the coming of the kingdom of righteousness and peace, always expecting to be caught up any day and yet ready to continue here in His service or be absent from the body and present with the Lord.
