You miss his elbow from your tired kneekneeThis restless curly head from off your breast,
This lisping tongue that chatters constantly—

stantly—

ff from your own the dimpled hands had slipped,
And ne'er would nestle on your palm again;
If the white feet into their grave had tripped,
I could not blame you for your heartache

I wonder so that mothers ever fret
At little children clinzing to their gows.
Or that the footprints when the days are wet
Are ever black enough to make them frown.
If I could find a little muddy boot,
Or cap. or jacket on my chamber floor,
M I could kiss a rosy restless foot,
And hear it patter in my house ones
more;

To more,

To morrow make a kite to reach the sky.
There is no woman in God's world could say

She was more blissfully content than L.
But ah! the dainty pillow next my own
Is never rumbled by a shining head,
My sincing birdling from its nest has flown,
The little boy I used to kiss is dead.

BUSINESS AND PATRIOTISM. Why Not Place a Duty on Foreign Ad-

The Dominion Government promised that as soon as steel rails were being produced in Canada it would impose a duty of seven dollars a ton on imported rails. Rails are being produced at the Sault, and the Government's pledge has been fulfilled.

Foreign magazines which contain on an average seventy-five per cent.

of advertisements now come into Canada free of duty. Will the Government agree that as soon as maga-zines are produced in Canada they will impose a similar duty on foreign periodicals?

Seven dollars a ton on rails worth $28 a ton is equal to 25 per cent. This would mean a duty of two cents on every ten-cent magazine and five cents on every twenty-five cent magazine, assuming eight cents and twenty cents to be the wholesale prices.

Since it is thought right to impose $7 a ton duty on steel rails, it is equally right to impose a duty of two cents on a ten-cent and five cents on a twenty-five-cent maga-

But there are greater reasons. Foreign magazines displace Canadian pa-per, Canadian printing, Canadian en-graving and Canadian labor and cost the Canadian postoffice depart-ment hundreds of thousands of dollars annually for mail transmission and delivery, thus enabling foreign manufacturers to reach the fireside of many Canadian buyers and users of many Canadian buyers and users of first importance and all at the ex-pense of Canada and of Canadians. Furthermore the presence in Cana-dian homes of these foreign products tends to injure Canadian patriotism and confidence, by fixing the minds of impressionable Canadians on the ac-tivities of the United States and other foreign fields.

Tendencies of Thought,

Present tendencies of thought was the subject of a scholarly and elo-quent address by Prof. Ten Broene, Ph.D., on the occasion of the autumn convocation of McMaster University in Toronto. Axoiding the language of the schools, the lecturer made so interesting a survey of philosophical and religious thought in Germany, with lines running back to Kant, that he held the rapt attention to a large audience to his conclusion.

One of the manifestations of the spirit of the age, he began, was to be faithful to the whole ol experience, desire to stand squarely on the actual facts of past and present experience. That arose primarily in the study of the natural sciences. Positivism had passed and systems of mathematics or natural laws had come to be regarded as symbols, methods of mapping out human knowledge. The result of physical science was to raise questions that could not be answered by physical Science.

The lecturer spoke of the belief that faith passed knowledge and laid hold upon the unknown and spiri-tual. He sketched briefly the history of philosophy in the last century, emphasized the materialism of tir-latter portion of it and traced is transition as the work of Nitzschi, Ritsche and Hegel to the spiritual interpretation of life and a philosophical religion that found its highest expression in the experience of redemption.

Served Under Buller. Major-General Sir Frederick Stopford, who was appointed Director of Mounted Infantry Training at the War Office early in the year, has sailed for South Africa in the Saxon. The General—a half brother of the Earl of Courtown—has been through four heavy wars in Africa— Egypt and the Soudan in '82 and '75, Ashanti in '95, and the late Boer campaign, where he served as Military Secretary to Sir Redvers Buller, and won the K.C.M.G.

correspondent in India heard as unctuous Hindoo police kharvati the other day: "When I went into house I saw four dead bodies. One them was carried away alive."

Then you saw three dead bodies and the saw it is a saw four dead bodies and the saw it is a saw four dead bodies and the saw." I saws indicate the saw it is saw in the saw it is saw in the saw it is saw in the saw. ot four?" I queried.
"No, sir," was the reply, emphatically and reprovingly given. "I saw four lead bodies. The one taken away live turned out to be dead."

"What does he mean?" I asked of his uropean superior, an Irishman.
"He means, sorr, that of the four ead men the wan carried away aloive doyed, by jingo, as he was going along in the kyart."

And another story comes to us from the east: There is an orphanage at Ban-dora. A gentleman made a feast for the little inmates, one of whom was the little inmates, one of whom was observed to be stuffing his pocket with cake. "Why don't you eat it?" said the kind donor. Quoth the orphan, "I'm keeping it till my parents come to see me." It used to be said that bulls were an Irish specialty. But, then, the learned are forever pointing out the oriental cast of Irish thought.—Westminster Greatie.

Vest and the Vellowstone.

A string of jack snipe was responsible for the founding of Yellowstone park, says a St. Joseph (Mo.) communication to the Galveston News. The snipes were carried into a hotel in St. Fredericks and attracted the attention of George Graham Vest, late United States senator. The jack snipes answered the purpose of an introduction, and the two men were soon on friendly terms. Fredericks, who had been all over the west, began telling Vest, who was a sportsman, of the wonderful country in Montana and other states. Vest later joined a party in Omaha and inspected the country of which Fredericks had told him. When he became a senator one of the first things he did was to introduce a bill setting aside the Yellowstone district as a national park.

The Microscope In Tibet. The French traveler M. Huc, when in Lassa, in Tibet, early in the last century, commemorated his visit by pre-senting the dalai lama of the day with a good microscope, which was put to a strange test before all his court. Among unwashed Tibetans there is never any lack of insect life, and a courtier, producing a specimen from beneath the folds of his sleeve, handed it to M. Huc, who amazed the simplicity of the lama and his dignitaries with its magnificent proportions. The ex-periment over, there arose a little difficulty as to the disposal of the insect, which might not, by the tenets of me tempsychosis, be slain. The owner reverently received it back and restored it to the happy hunting grounds of his

Freak Names.
A. G. Wright in his Directory Bulletin says:
"In the way of freak names a publisher chronicles the following:

"One of our canvassers ran across Angel. When asked what the W. H. stood for he declined to answer. Through another source, however, it was learned that the man's full name was Welcome Heavenly Angel. Small wonder that he felt a delicacy about disclosing it.' "Of the same nature were the names conferred by one of Milwaukee's eccentric pioneers, who named one of his boys Welcome U and signified his approval of another by stamping him

Better Than Stealing. per cent. of advertising. If Australia finds such a duty necessary, then the proximity of the United States to Canada makes it a greater necessity.

—Canadian Magazine for October.

Many years ago a newly arrived highlander was being shown the sights of Glasgow by a fellow countryman. As they crossed a street they saw in the distance a dense crowd of people. and the newcomer asked what meant. He was told that there was a man being hanged. He then inquired what they were hanging him for, and was told it was for sheep stealing. He looked aghast at this news and at last exclaimed: "Ochan, Ochan; hanging a man for stealing sheeps! Could he no' ha bocht them and then no' reved for them?"-"Reminiscences Şir Archibald Geikie."

> Thought His Gas Bill Too Big. Mr. Peck had an enormous gas bill after he had had a gas stove one month. Protest to the gas company ought no explanation, so he went to the cook Bridget for an explanation and opened the subject with "How do you like the gas stove, Bridget?" Sure, it's foine. I haven't had to light the stove but once since it came.'

An Archbishop's Wit. Archbishop Ryan once concluded brilliant defense of the Irish cause when a listener shoute "But the Irish are guilty of treason!" "Perhaps," replied the archbishop, "but please remember that what is treason elsewhere becomes reason in Ireland because of the alleentee."

Teaching Out West

A former Leeds County teacher, vriting to the Reporter from Alberta

District, says:—
This is certainly the place for eachers, and I am glad to say Outario achers are at a premium. One ca get $600 a year in any of the country, who is, and never has to pay more than $12 a month for board, which is good and wholesome

The school houses are complete and are models of neatness. They have all the modern appliances and are easily managed. The great wonder is that more of our Ontario teachers do not ake advantage of such opportunities

Teachers agencies are our best friends. They keep salaries high just for us, when they sould make twice the profit by lowering them some. In ost cases, the agents have been teach ers themselves, and they have hearts. But our teachers are not always going have the chance they have now, A spirit of independence seems to pervede this territory. Alberta dos not want to be the depository for text books that Ontario has outlawed years ago, and so she will soon he demanding er own district teachers. In the schools here are the old Kirkland and succeeded in Ontario by two or three newer publications, and the people are not slow to complain about it. teeling will eventually lead to a demand for teachers trained, scholastically and protessionally in this district, such as is found in British Columbia.
