UGLY FIRE

The residence of Chas. Bryan, proprietor of the laundry, Adelaide street, came near being destroyed by fire Saturday night. About 12 o'clock midnight Mrs. Bryan was taken ill and the doctor summoned. He advised that Mrs. Bryan be propped up with pillows. J. A. McGregor, the son-in-law, went up stairs for more pillows. When he opened the bed-room door of one of the boarders, Fred. Quick, Mr. McGregor was met by a rush of smoke that fairly blinded him. On investigation he found that the interior of the room was almost all ablaze. Quick, the boarder, who works at Parks foundry, had thrown his oilly working clothes near the stove pipe. They had caught fire and burned up, setting fire to the carpet. The flames had reached the wainscotting and were climbing up the wall when the mild conflagration was discovered. Mr. McGregor summoned help and the fire was extinguished. The carpet and clothes were destroyed and the room considerably damaged.

inch rail wood, 70 cords of maple and elm, 20 inch, and 30 cords of beech and maple, 20 inch. The committee recommended that no more wood be purchased and that $350 of the money loaned by Ga W. Cowan be returned. A.d. Cowan read a later communion from the factory which the city offered a free site, free water and exemption from the general taxes. The name of the concern had not yet been divilged. They asked in addition a fixed assessment at $5,000. A'd. Cowan said that the Dowsley Co. had a flant valued at $60,000 and they had a fixed assessment of $17 000. The plant of the prospective factory would be worth, $15,000 and they asked for a fixed assessment of $5,000

Ald. Cowan recommended that their request be granted. A'd. McCoig asked if the school tax vould be on the actual value of the building or on the fixed assessment of $5,000. He understood that other firms paid school tax on th actual value of their plant. Ald, Cowan - No, they don't. Take Gray & Sons, for instance. The actual value of their plant is $150,000. They pay school tax on $30,000. A'd. McCoig-I see they pay general axes on their fixed assessment of $10,000, and school tax on $30,000. "If Ald. Cowan's contention of a few minutes ago was a good one, how s it that he is advocating this motion to fix the assessment of the new concern at $5,000 when the value of the plant is $15,000. If he refused the request of John Piggott & Sons, why does he offer to do it for some one else. If we have been doing things wrong in the past, now that Ald. Cown has discovered it, let us do them right. I think we should refer this matter to the people and let them decide at the general elections. If other councils have done wrong there is no reason why this council should.

Andrew Thomson-I think I will oppose the motion, too. Any firm that has the nerve to ask for a $15,000 has nerve enough for anything. The poor man is assessed $600 for a piece of property worth $500 has to pay it, too.

Ald. Cowan said that advertising the by-law would cost $75. Mayor Sulman said that he was satisfied that if the council could bring a factory here for $500 that not a citizen would complain. There was no need of submitting a by-law to the people. As far as the illegal part were concerned, the city had been doing it all year. Personally, he was in favor of accepting the offer, not haggling over it.

Ald. McCoig said that the company themselves would feel safer if their action were endorsed by the people.

Ald. Taylor-If the firm is willing to take the chance we don't need to concern free site, free taxes, free water and a fixed assessment of $5,000 on a $15,000 plant carried,. ANOTHER FACTORY.

Ald, McCoig read a letter from the Ohio Cultivator Company offer-ing to locate here and asking what inducements Chatham would offer. Ald. McCoig said that this factory would be equal to the branch of the Deering works started at Hamilton.

They mapufactured a full line of Ald. Mounteer said that the by-agricultural implements except binders, mowers and rakes. Sugar beet tools are their specialty. Ald. Taylor reported that the tenders for a new roof for the market building had been advertised for and the tender awarded to W. H. Carswell at $4.45 per square. He asked that the action be approved. Ald. McCoig asked if it was advisable to spend $250 on the building if it was to be condemned afterwards by the Board of Health. The question was whether to repair the old building or build a new one. Ald. O'Brien said that 11 years ago he had his business in the building and he couldn't get a longer lease than three months because a new building was going to be put up. This hadn't been done yet. Ald. McCoig had no idea that the Property committee had been given power to award the tend-Ald. Taylor said that the Board of Health couldn't condemn the build-They might order the basemen cleaned out. The tenants were near y drowned out every time it rained. Mayor Sulman said that the only blot on the finest business street in Canada was the market building. Ald. Mounteer remarked that one thing about the building was that it was bringing in over $300 per annum in revenue. Ald. McCoig thought that the Board of Health should be heeded. There were also houses in the city that needed condemning. These had been the cause of a great deal of the small-pox. The Board of Health should follow up their condemnation of the market by condemning some houses in the city. Ald. Taylor pointed out that a new roof would be a step towards fixing up the market building. The Mayor wanted to spend $2,000 or $3,000 on the building. Ald. McCoig suggested laying the matter over for two weeks to see what the Board of Health purposed Ald. Mounteer stated that there was an agreement existing between the city and the old Erie & Huror that they should keep that part of Head street where their tracks ran in good repair. Head street from Thames to the city limits was in very bad condition.

Ald. Mounteer moved that the City Clerk notify the Lake Erie to at tend to this matter.-Carried. Mayor Sulman said that the Lake Erie Railroad had not replied to the council's last communication in re gard to putting their car shops here is ordered by the Privy Council. The Mayor suggested that the city so licitor be sent to Ottawa to lay the matter before the Privy Council. The Mayor was convinced that the city could get $15,000 in lieu of the shops.

Ald. Mounteer said that from in formation he had that it would be just as well to keep quiet at present. The Lake Erie had been purchased by the Perce Marquette, and Chat-ham being central, had a good chance $5,000 assessment on property worth of getting the carshops. The Mayor $15,000 has nerve enough for any-Ald. O'Brien was in favor of making the Lake Erie settle. Ald. Cowan moved that the city solicitor be instructed to make application to the Privy Council that they should order the Lake Erie to pay the $15,000 in lieu of car shops and that the city solicitor should also partify the Lake Erie that this also notify the Lake Erie that this had been done.—Carried. The tenders for the Wade street sewer were opened. Horn Bros. ten-dered at $200 and Richard Stevens at $188. Richard Stevens' tender being the lowest, was accepted. TENDERS OPENED. The tenders for the William street pavement were opened. The Dominion Paving Company offered to pave carbolete carbolineum at $2.20 per square yard for road bed complete and 85 cents per foot for granolithic curbing. Blight & Fielder offered to pave the street at $2.98 for asphalt, $2.08 for vitrified brick, with 82 cents added for grading and curbing 70 cents per foot. These tenders were referred to
