NOT A WORD ABOUT MAYOR

Public School Board Meet but Make no Reference to Charges

Central School Closed for Great Fair Starting on Night of Oct. 24—Other Matters

Those who attended the special meeting of the Public School Board last evening in the hopes of being treated to a display of pyrotechnics upon Mayor Cowan's charges were doomed to disappointment. No reference was made to his worship or his arraignment, and the business of the Board was transacted as quietly and as though such incidents as Mayors and charges and investigations had never been heard of.

There were present: Chairman Morley and Trustees Dr. McKeough, McArthur, Drader, Robertson, Lenfestey, Heyward and Bensen. On motion of Messrs. Bensen and Drader it was decided to close the Central school during the great School Fair, which will be opened by the Minister of Education on the evening of October 24th and extend for the balance of the week. Elaborate preparations for this function are being made and the occasion promises to be unique in Maple City educational history.

It was decided to advertise for tenders, to be in by Tuesday next, for heating the new addition to the Central school, with and without boiler.

On motion of Dr. McKeough and Mr. Heyward the managers were empowered to interview the Steam Heating Company regarding heat for the new wing now and probably the remainder of the school next summer.

The McKeough school managers were given power to have the smoke pipes on the furnaces repaired and a sufficient supply of wood was arranged for.

GOOD EXHIBIT

Westlake Bros. Carry off First Honors for the Finest Collection of Photographs at the Peninsular Fair.

Of all the many beautiful and creditable exhibits at the Peninsular Fair this year, there were none that are more universally admired or more favorably passed upon by the judges than the magnificent and artistic showing of portraits and photos made by Westlake Bros. of this city. The exhibit was a worthy one and one that would stand high in competition with more extensive exhibits made at far larger exhibitions than the Peninsular Fair.

Outside of the merit of the work itself, this firm deserves great credit for the artistic manner in which the exhibit was arranged. In this respect great taste was employed and the effect was none the less striking by the presence of innumerable red cards marked "First Prize," which were added to it by the judges during the exhibition.

About two hundred pictures were shown and awarded the first prize as the finest collection of photographs on the grounds. Westlake Bros. have been established in Chatham for four years and each year they have been successful in carrying off the first prize at the Peninsular Fair.

The large work was especially good a special prize was awarded for a large portrait of W. R. Landon, which was remarked upon as an artistic gem. Other large portraits which were favorably passed upon were those of Mayor Cowan, Matthew Wilson, K. C. Judge Woods and Mr. Turnbull. Two enlarged sepia portraits, one of Miss Belle Smith and the other of Will Stevens, and one of Miss Ruby Johnson, in water colors, were much admired by delighted visitors.

Messrs. Westlake Bros. are to be complimented on their splendid and successful work.

HE WAS CHARMED

A number of young people from the Park St. Methodist Church assembled at the home of Miss Pearl Dennis, Raleigh street, last evening and presented Lyman Fead with a gold watch charm.

Mr. Fead, who has been connected with the staff of the Standard Bank here, is leaving shortly for Harrison and the presentation was made as a token of the esteem in which he is held by the friends he leaves behind him. Mr. Fead made a fitting response, saying he would always look back with pleasure to the time he has spent in Chatham. After the presentation a very pleasant social time was spent in music and games.

There is something wrong with the person who complains of conditions which could be changed by a little effort.

There is no profit in relating our sorrows. Everybody we tell them to has got one that he thinks weighs more.

CHILD DRANK THE POISON

Infant Son of Isaac Cofield Drained Bottle of Laudanum

Dr. McRitchie Saved Life After Two Hours of Effort—A Very Narrow Escape

(Special to The Planet.)

Etobicoke, Sept. 29.—A serious case of accidental poisoning occurred here yesterday shortly after 11:30 o'clock, by which the little 2-year-old son of Isaac Cofield nearly lost his life.

The baby was left for a few moments playing alone in the room. It succeeded in climbing a chair and reaching the laudanum bottle on the shelf above. The bottle contained over half an ounce of the deadly opiate and the child fell over just as its mother re-entered the room.

No time was lost and a rig was hurriedly dispatched to McKay's Corners, where Dr. T. L. McRitchie was summoned. Before the arrival of the doctor the child appeared in a very hopeless condition, but with the stomach pump and proper antidotes it was soon put beyond danger, some two hours after the deadly draught was taken.

TRACK RECORD WAS BROKEN

Chairman Glassford Pulls Off the Finest Races Ever Seen at the Fair

Irene D. Establishes New Record—Splendid Work of Attril Bells—Capt. Miller's Success

To Chairman John H. Glassford, of the Speed committee of the Peninsular Fair, belongs the credit of presenting the Fair patrons with the finest series of speed contests in its history. The races on both days were far excellence and thousands gathered to witness them, enthusiasm at times knowing no bounds. Everyone was delighted and Mr. Glassford deserves all of the many eulogies extended on his splendid work.

The genial chairman has also other reasons for congratulation. Irene D., the speedy mare which he developed himself in Chatham and sold this spring, broke the track record, travelling in 16 1-4. Moreover he drove his own stallion, Attril Bells, to victory in three straight heats in the 2.18 trot or 2.22 pace. Attril Bells is a magnificent stallion. He is bred from the greatest sire of speed on the turf and has only had this season's work. Mr. Glassford, who weighs some 200 pounds, drove him himself and nosed out in three splendid finishes amid the greatest enthusiasm.

The running race was also very interesting to Kent people. Glenmore, the winner, although now a Petrolia horse, was raised by S. S. Arnold, of Glenora, brother of Bartley S. B. Arnold, of this city. Mr. Arnold yesterday ran Donnie D. a colt and a full brother of Glenmore, to a splendid second, the young colt pushing his brother for all he was worth.

Captain Miller, owned by J. C. Saint, of Wallaceburg, also won a fine race—in fact every contest was magnificently fought out.

THE CHAMPION HOLDS TITLE

Sprinter White Claims MacIntyre Cup and Bows Gracefully to Speech Calling Crowd

Claims His Victory by Default—Buried the Book Makers—The Great Event of the Fair

Standing statuesquely, daintily doffing his silken chapeau; with his Adonis-like, living-picture racing regalia tucked gallantly under his left arm—seeking gallantly to satiate the thousands who clamored madly for "a speech"—Champion John Wesley White, sweet singer, speedy sprinter and successful solicitor, presented a picturesque and memorable setting in the judges' stand at the Fair yesterday afternoon. (At least, this is the way Mr. White described it to The Planet when he called this morning.)

"I claim the MacIntyre cup by default," declared Mr. White. "There was no one there to contest the fat man's race with me and so I appealed to the judges. I was invited up to the stand, while Mr. Corey made the announcement that J. W. White, champion of the west, was there to defend his title, and as no other competitors appeared, to claim the cup. I stepped forward and graciously raised my hat, and the crowd cheered me repeatedly and the ladies waved their handkerchiefs. They called on me for a speech, which I delivered in my modest style, and taking off my hat, had to bow repeatedly."

It would seem from Mr. White's account that he was entitled to the cup by default.

E. J. MacIntyre gave The Planet a statement regarding the matter. "Mr. White was in to see me bright and early," he said, "to demand the cup. But Mr. Corey, to whom I appealed, told me that the champion never even went over the track, and, as other claimants appeared, I have not yet been able to deal with the case."

THE RECEIPTS

Peninsular Fair Took in Over $1,500—Beat Last Year's

R. G. Fleming, treasurer of the Peninsular Fair Board, this morning handed out to The Planet the statement of receipts as follows:—

First day, gates and grand stand, $1,098.95.
Second day, gates and grand stand, $415.15.
This is some $72 better than last year.

TAKE CARE OF THEMSELVES.

Otherwise New Ontario Hotels Will Lose Licenses.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—Referring to liquor selling in New Ontario, Provincial Secretary W. J. Hanna said:

"If the liquor people are alive to their own interests they will not only strictly observe the law themselves in New Ontario, but will see to it that others do likewise. The matters referred to by Dr. Chown in The Christian Guardian have been brought to our attention from different sources. "As to new hotels going up, I can only say that they have not the promise of a license in any case, nor have they any likelihood of getting one."

Ontario Printers Organize.

St. Catharines, Sept. 29.—The master printers of Ontario, in large numbers, met in convention at the Welland House yesterday afternoon and unanimously decided to organize a national guild. The members of the Canadian Press Association met in the morning. In the afternoon the newspapermen and job printers met together. There was a strong feeling among those present that the organization if formed should become a Master Printers' Section of the Canadian Press Association. A committee was appointed to arrange details of organization.

Verdict in Worrell Inquest.

Toronto, Sept. 29.—The coroner's jury returned a verdict touching the death of fire Captain Worrell last night, and said the jolting in the Brown Milling Company's building was not properly constructed and that there should be a better system of inspection of buildings by the fire department.
