Crown Attorney Smith left at noon to-day for a short vacation in North-ern Michigan.

Miss Evelyn Currie, of Lynden, is the guest of Mrs. S. A. McCornock, Park St., for a few days. Mrs. Peter Robert, Third St., will leave for Ridgetown, to-night, where she intends spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Carron.

Inf rmations have be a laid against two young fellows for raising a dis-turbance around the Garner House last night.

The firemen were called out by still alarm last evening to the corner of Wellington and Third Sts. A lan-tern fell down a trench and set fire to some wood.

Misses Queenic Taylor and Agnes Wrighton left to-day for New Mexico, where they will spend the winter. Ex-Ald. G. G. Taylor accompanied them on the journey.
The Public School Board will hold a meeting to-night to receive applications for the position of janitor of the Central School, to take the place of Anthony Edwards, resigned.

The schooner Eric Stewart and a steam barge, New York, are expected to arrive In port next week with a cargo of lumber for Piggott & Sons. They will likely put up for the winter

Last evening Edwarl and Gentrude Gerber gave a Tarewell party for their friend, Harris Kimmitt, who is about to leave the city for his home in St. Catharines. The evening was a most pleasant one.

We were in error yesterday in stating that Rev. Mr. Hodgins would entertain his congregation this evening. The Ladies of the Mite are giving a social evening at the rectory to-night, at which everybody is welcome who brings 15 cents as a mite. J. W. Humphrey has received from Ivor E. Brock a copy of the Lucania Bulletin, published daily on board that trans-Atlantic steamer Lucania. The news is all supplied by marconigrams. It is a very interesting newspaper.

It has been rumored that the Do-It has been rumored that the Dominion Express Company had been withdrawn from the Pere Marquette Railway, which is not the case, as the only change that has taken place is the withdrawal of the Canadian Express and the substitution of the United Express.

Lemuel Purdic and Oliver Purdic were both fined at the Police Court this morning for being drunk and disorderly. Purdic has a wife and six children, but is a slave to liquor. He and his hephew, Oliver, were found fighting on the street yesterday afternoon. They both claimed they did not buy their own whiskey, but got drunk on treats.

Falsehood has an infinity of com-binations, but truth has only one mode of living.

We age never so ridiculous by the qualities we have as by those we affect to have.

To be merely "well dressed." Your clothes should show excellent taste and perfect fit. Unless your clothes are made by experts you will look just like the ordinary man.
