THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 10, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

We are now able to have the morning papers from Halifax for breakfast.

Public schools closed for the summer vacation on Friday last. The Wolfville schools will have eight weeks recess.

The communion of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed at Chalmers' church, Lower Horton, next Sunday afternoon.

Mr R. E. Harris has had the east side of his store neatly lettered this week, indicating to the public in bold letters the lines of goods in which he deals.

The members of "Lily of the Valley" Division, Port Williams, are to hold a strawberry and ice cream social in their hall this evening. A good time will no doubt be had by all who attend.

The band were out for a sail on the Nymph on Wednesday evening. Their music sounded very nice on the water. We should like to hear them occasionally on land. The summer is passing.

The auxiliary of the Woman's F. M. Society in connection with the Wolfville and Lower Horton Presbyterian congregations held its annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The society contributes $25.00 as a second contribution during the year.

Mr W. S. Wallace, our genial tailor, is about to enlarge his business. He has secured the services of Mr H. Layton, of Truro, an experienced and skilful cutter, and will be able to guarantee satisfaction to his customers. Mr Wallace's enterprise is deserving of a liberal patronage.

The new time-table of the Dominion Atlantic railway, which went into effect on Friday last, will be found in another column. The radical changes in time of the different trains caused some confusion at first, but the public is gradually becoming accustomed to the new order of things.

Capt. Gilmore, who has one of the best gardens in town, and makes a point of easy gardening, furnished the editor with enough new beans for a dinner, on Dominion Day. They were well grown and were much appreciated. This week we have been favored with new beans, onions and carrots from the same garden. The captain is ahead so far as we have heard.

A strawberry and ice-cream social was held by the ladies of the Methodist church on Tuesday evening. It was intended that it be held on the grounds of the church, but owing to the rain it was held in the vestry. There was a good attendance and the refreshments provided, which were of the best, were done simple justice to. The net sum of $39.00 was realized, and a most pleasant time was had.

During the past week we had the pleasure of visiting "Fair View" orchards the property which has been recently bought by Mr J. E. Smith, from the late occupant, Mr X. Z. Chipman. This place which is one of the finest in the county, is now in a most prosperous condition. Mr Smith, though accustomed to city life, and now just embarking on an agricultural career, is an enthusiast in this line. The supervision of his farm evinces a most comprehensive grasp of the art of farming scientifically. He informs us that his purchase is such a property as he has been seeking after for the last six years.

"Agricultural chemistry" is what the Prof. calls it.

Rev. J. M. Fisher will close his pastorate at Canning next Sabbath.

The umbrella-repairing fiend and the sentimental schoolboy get in their work these days.

Some of our farmers have commenced cutting their hay. There will be a fairly good crop.

Just now would be an excellent time for our Street Commissioners to get up the hay on Main St.

Mrs C. B. Munro's auction sale on Wednesday was well attended. Good prices were realized for the goods sold. Mrs Munro leaves shortly to join her husband in New York.

A library is soon to be established in Halifax, for the use of Halifax and Dartmouth school teachers. It will contain books on the science of education, and on the various subjects taught in our schools.

To LET.—The Store lately occupied by myself. Possession given at once. Apply to R. E. Harris.

A serious shooting affray occurred at Newcastle, N. B., this week, in which a Picton and a Truro man were complicated. These gentlemen, who were enjoying themselves with song and story-telling in a room of the hotel, proved offensive to a New York physician who was rooming near. A scuffle ensued in which one of the combatants was very severely wounded by revolver shot. The trial is now taking place.
