

Your son is a football player.
Yes, it is heredity.
I never heard that his father was a football player.
He isn't, but he is a chronic kicker.

Kidney Disease for 20 Years.
Mrs. CARRIE REED, Ottawa, Ontario, writes: "For twenty years I was troubled with kidney disease and have recently been completely cured by using three boxes of Dr. Cassel's Kidney-Liver Pills. I had tried many remedies, but nothing seemed to do me much good until I used this splendid family medicine."

Duffer—My wife got a fever out of me to-day with one happy remark.
Puffer—Let's have it. Duffer—She told our boy Willie that she was his closest relative, but that she was his parent.

First Officer—Yes, we were marching over a plain, a ridge when it gave way, and the men fell in.
Second Officer—And what did you do?
First Officer—Oh I ordered them to fall out.

The Original Corn Cure.
No substitute has ever been devised that gives the quick, painless results of Putman's Corn Extractor. For fifty years its success has been unequalled. For safety and thorough cure use Putman's only.
Husband (to wife)—Do you believe in the theory that the greatness of a father often proves a stumbling block to the advancement of his son in life?
Wife—I certainly do. I am thankful John, our boy will never be handicapped in that way.
Husband—Oh!

The Wasting Process of Disease.
Disease is a tearing down, wearing away and destroying of the tissues of the body and a shriveling up of the nerve cells and blood corpuscles. Nature demands assistance to overcome this destructive process and the needed help is best supplied by Dr. Cassel's Navy Food, the great blood builder and nerve restorative.
"Look here," exclaimed the angry man, as he rushed into the real estate agent's office, "that grogged I bought from you yesterday is thirty-five feet under water!"
"Pardon my oversight," apologized the gentlemanly agent. "We give a diving suit with each plot. I will send yours to-day."

Do you know the wages of sin? asked the dominie sternly of Johnnie, who was lustily trying a can to a dog's tail.
Is it a sin? queried John without looking up.
It certainly is.
Well, I don't want no wages for dis. I'm doin' it fer fun.

Little Johnnie, having in his possession a couple of bantam hens, which laid very small eggs, suddenly hit on a plan. Going the next morning to the fowl run, Johnnie's father was surprised to find an ostrich egg tied to one of the beams, and above it a card, with the words:
"Keep your eye on this and do your best."

MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., LIMITED.
GENTLEMEN—Theodore Dorris, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of suffering by the judicious use of MINARD'S LINIMENT.
The above facts can be verified by writing to him, in the Paris Price or any of his neighbors. A. COFFE, Merchant, St. Isidore, Que., 12th May, '96.

An Irishman was giving a spirited address on the glories of the British nation. After describing some affronts received from other nations he exclaimed:
"And must England stand with her arms folded and her hands in her pockets?"
He made an effective pause which, however, was quite spoiled by the roar of laughter.—Fit-Bits.

MINARD'S LINIMENT Cures Dandruff.

An editor of a United States paper received the following unique letter:—
Send me a few copies of the paper which had the obituary and verses about the death of my child a few weeks ago. You will publish the enclosed clipping about my niece's marriage. And I wish you would mention in your local column if it don't cost, that I am going to have a few extra bull calves to sell. Send me a few extra copies of the paper this week but as my time is out you can stop my paper as times are too hard to waste money on a newspaper.

Do Not Crowd the Season.
The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all come from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it has been used. It is pleasant and safe for children like it. For sale by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations by Rand's Drug Store.

Landlady (of country inn on the eve of a popular holiday to her daughter, who is kneading the dough for a cake)—Rese, you'd better put a couple of eggs and a bit of butter into the cake. It looks as if we were going to have a storm, and if the townfolk don't stir out to-morrow we shall have to eat it ourselves.—From the German.

Are You Weak Instead of Strong?
You are discouraged.
You feel old and worn.
You are sick, but not aware of the fact.
You can drag yourself around—but work is impossible.
With your stomach crying out for assistance and the nerves all on edge why not try Ferrozone—it will surely do you good.

Ferrozone is a wonderful combination of vegetable extracts, fortified by excellent tonics for the nerves and stomach.
When you feel despondent, Ferrozone cheers you up.
When languor and oppression weigh you down, Ferrozone braces you up.
When sleep is impossible, Ferrozone calms the nerves and gives you rest.
For bounding health, good looks, good spirits, nothing equals Ferrozone; makes the weak strong and the sick well. Good for men, women and children, try Ferrozone 50c per box at all dealers.

Our minister does have the hardest luck. Just think, the baby's down with the croup. Albert broke his collar bone last week, their horse died yesterday, and now Mrs. Rector has pneumonia.
I suppose that by and by, on top of all that, some fool will get them up a donation party.

Is Your Cold Better?
No, it's as bad as ever. Nothing seems to help. Why not use the up-to-date specific 'Catarrhazone,' which drives out cold in one day. Inhalant Catarrhazone and you will be relieved in two minutes. Continue the treatment and cure is assured. Healing, germ destroying and pleasant, nothing for colds, throat trouble and Catarrh compares with Catarrhazone Sold every where, 25c and 50c.

Two kinds of business men are bound to succeed. We refer to the man who knows how to advertise and to the one who knows that he does not know, but knows enough to get one who does know to write and place his advertisements for him.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.
B. F. Crocker, Esq., 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good. Sold by A. V. Rand."

"A man is known by his works," declared the irrepressible reformer, who was addressing a large and enthusiastic audience.
"Yours must be a gas works," shouted a rude, uncultured person who occupied a back seat.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and Eczema.
These are diseases for which Chamberlain's Salve is especially valuable. It quickly allays the itching and smarting and soon effects a cure. Price, 25 cents. For sale at Rand's Drug Store.

At Worcester, England, the slab erected over a departed auctioneer is inscribed with a single word, "Gone." In Sussex the initials and date of the death of the deceased are followed by two words, "He was." The most remarkable inscription is at Cane Hill cemetery, Belfast, where the inscription says, "Left till called for."

Indigestion
Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not the cause of, indigestion. We think of indigestion as a symptom, not a disease, and they are symptoms only of a certain species of indigestion—acid indigestion.
It was this fact that first attracted Dr. Shoop to the study of that now very popular stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerve, it brings about success and ease to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. It is not original and highly vital principle, but each and every component part of the Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and so for your relief what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Nervous Women
Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Female Disorders Perhaps Undiscovered.
A MEDICINE THAT CURES
Can we dispute the well-known fact that Canadian women are nervous? How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly," or, "I don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable, you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.
The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that minor troubles of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Pains of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pains in the abdominal region and between the shoulders; loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia; a tendency to cry at the least provocation—all these points to nervous prostration.
Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Miss Leila Stewart, of 117 Wellington St., Kingston, Ont., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"Four months I labored a Godsend to suffering women, and I only wish that they all knew what it can do for them and there would be no more of this dragging, miserable lives in agony. I suffered for years with bearing-down pains, extreme nervousness and excruciating headaches, but a few bottles of your vegetable Compound made life look new and promising to me. I am light and happy and I do not know what I owe you, and I have enjoyed the best of health now for over four years. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sent sunshine into thousands of homes and hearts."

Mothers' Resting.
I'm sorry, now, I gave so very little thought to all the helpful lessons which my patient mother taught. Now older grown, and she has gone. I often long to tell how they all come back to me, each one remembered well.

For in the work and cares of life that come from day to day, I find I stop to ask myself, "What was my mother's way?" There never seemed to be with her a druggery of lie. She got along so quietly with all its cares and strife; She always sang, about her work, and mid perplexing things The farmhouse walls re-echoed, "Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings. I never hear old 'Amsterdam' but that I think how oft It bore my mother's soul from earth to unseen things aloft!

When sitting in her rocking chair, her lap with mending piled, She used to say, "I want to rest, now read a psalm my child." I learned by heart about the "hills, and lifting up my eyes," "Thou pastor green" and waters still The shepherd's love supplies, and all about "Abiding" health the shadow of his wing.

For God our refuge is, our strength, I read in everything. Sometimes I hurried through the Psalms, taking but little heed, And then her thanks, so kindly said, encouraged me to read Some of the words that Jesus spoke, for that was mother's way To read from Psalms and Gospels both upon the busiest day; For at such times she needed a much longer rest, and so, While but a child, I learned the favored passages to know.

These precious words of quiet come to my own soul now I A busy woman, full of work, my daily duties ply. I sing her hymns when fretted with ceaseless rounds of care, I repeat the Psalms and Gospels when in my sewing chair, I wonder if she knows it, and how glad I am each day, That my mother's way of resting was such a hopeful way.—Congregationalist.

Fruits of the Traffic.
There died a few days since, in a cell of the Winnipeg police station, a woman who but a short time ago was one of the most popular concert singers. She was the wife of a Minneapolis millionaire. The coroners having attributed her death to alcoholism. The wife and five children of a German settler in Manitoba were recently frozen to death. The man had gone to a near-by village for fuel and could have returned with it at once, for there was no storm. He got to drinking and remained away three or four days, and before he reached home his wife and children perished.

At the license-granting meeting of the Halifax City Council, last week, Rev. J. W. Aikens, Methodist minister, made these three charges against licensed drink shops in the city: (1) In a bar-room was a half intoxicated man with a group of others. They asked for drinks and forcibly took the money out of the man's pockets to pay for them. (2) In a bar-room a half drunken man was taken by his companions, who bought liquor and forced it down his throat. (3) Children had come home and told their parents that liquor had been given to them free by a dealer.

These are only samples of what the liquor traffic does. Numberless things equally as horrible are being done by it every day in the year. How many men who pose as good citizens signed the applications for license and the fellows who carry on the traffic of degradation and death? Petitions are being presented to the Ontario Legislature asking for amendment of the clause in the Local Option Law which requires a three-fifths vote to adopt prohibition.

'One of the Grandest.'
The Mayor of Salford, speaking at a great Temperance parade on Saturday, said "The Temperance cause was often derided, but it was one of the grandest missions to which one could put hand and heart." It is one of the grandest, and it is one of the most urgent. Long ago, in another part of Lancashire, the late Prince Leopold, Duke of Albany, said that drunkenness was the only enemy England had to fear. The Mayor of Salford had to say it differently, but with equal accuracy, when he said that "England need fear no foreign foe so long as her people were faithful to themselves, so long as she had a sober, righteous, and manly race of brave and God-fearing men and women."
