To Let.—Eight room dwelling over my store, all conveniences.—F. J. HERRIN.

The dwelling and barn of Mr. and Mrs. McAndrews, on the "ridge road," Lower Wolfville, were destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. The fire originated in the barn which was completely destroyed with its contents, including stock, &c. The flames spread to the house and by this time the fire was seen by neighbors who assembled and removed part of the furniture. The loss is a heavy one. There was a small amount of insurance.

Jan. 18, 19, 20.

The remains of Pte. George B. Caldwell, of the 95th Batt., who died at Halifax on Friday last of wounds, were brought home on Monday morning for burial. There were a large number of citizens at the train to meet the body and pay the last respects to one of our soldier boys. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Harkness, pastor of the Baptist church. Members of the 95th acted as pall bearers. The circumstances attending the death of young Caldwell are particularly sad and the family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Orange Lodge.

On the evening of December 11th Rev. W. Harvey, M. O. B. A. of Toronto, Grand Organizer of the Grand Orange Lodge of Nova Scotia, organized an Orange Lodge in the vicinity of the Baptist church at Port Williams.

Twelve members were initiated, and Rev. Bro. A. J. Prosser, Bro. George Fraser, Bro. Curry and Slater Murphy became members by certificate.

Bro. Fraser was a member of the Orange Lodge in Canning, which became dormant over forty years ago. He carefully preserved his certificate, now yellow with age, awaiting the time when there would be an opportunity of again becoming an active member of the order. Through all these years his interest in the order never flagged and through his efforts P. C. Master A. A. Bligh was able to arrange the visit of the Grand Organizer at Port Williams. The following officers were elected:

W. M.—Robert N. Brown
D. M.—Leonard Cogswell
Chap.—Rev. A. J. Prosser
R. S.—John Gates
F. S.—A. B. Rand
Treas.—George Gates
D. of C.—B. S. Fraser
1st Lecturer—Slater Murphy
2nd Lecturer—Kempson Gates
Committeemen—Bro. George Fraser, Everett Fraser, O. G. Cogswell, Charles Thompson, and Kempson Lantz.

On Dec. 20th the P. C. Master initiated the following citizens of Port Williams, John Donaldson, D. S. Collins, A. B. Mills, Fowles Newcombe, Waldo Gates, and Norman Chase and also conferred the second and third degrees on the 12 members initiated by the Grand Organizer at the first meeting.

On Jan. 31st the P. C. M. assisted by Bro. A. Bishop, H. H. Bligh, A. Meister and Frank Harvey, of the Kentville Lodge, conferred the fourth degree on ten of the new members and installed the officers.

At the close the brethren were kindly invited to the home of Bro. George Gates where they did full justice to a most appetizing and delicious dinner. This thoughtfulness on the part of Mrs. Gates was much appreciated. It was in this home that the Rev. Bro. Moore was so hospitably entertained during his stay in Port Williams. We regret that Bro. O. Car Chase will be absent from the lodge for some months as he intends spending the winter in Bermuda. This Lodge will be known as Cornwallis Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 2657, and will meet in the Temperance Hall, Port Williams, on the first Monday of every month. Visiting brethren always welcome. A special meeting will be held on the 17th inst.

Roll Call at Baptist Church, January 12th, 1916.

A very interesting roll call and sumptuous banquet took place in the Baptist church on Wednesday evening of this week, when 300 responded to their names by reciting a passage of scripture. Letters were read from a number of absent members, and sent contributions amounting with thank offerings by those present to about $125. The pastor, Mr. H. K. Macdonald, at close of his address gave as a motto for the year: "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than himself." All stood and sang, "Be ye the salt of the world."

A big prosperous business must be managed carefully. It cannot afford to misrepresent, because exposure would cause talk and the loss of many customers. Its reputation is its very life. This is why the advertising of good, well established firms is almost invariably trustworthy and worth reading.
