

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may know about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personals concerning yourself and your family; we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here; if you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Marriages or Deaths, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 10 cents a line. Better send them with the item, counting six words as a line. No advt. less than 25¢ a week.

The schools close today. Remember the C. of E. picnic—Dominion Day.

Recent refreshing showers have saved the crops and everything is growing finely.

Miss Louise Wightman of Florenceville has accepted a position as stenographer in The Observer office.

"Stolen Orders" is one of the most thrilling photodramas ever presented. Will be shown after the picnic on Dominion Day.

Mrs. Jack McLean of East Florenceville will receive at her home in East Florenceville on Wednesday and Thursday, July 7 and 8 from 2 until 5:30.

H. H. Hatfield, Miss Helen Raymond, Miss Dora Robinson, Miss Lyde Reid, and Miss Ruth Boyer motored to Fredericton on Saturday returning on Monday.

At the horse races in Woodstock on Tuesday C. R. DeWitt's Lady Bell and G. M. McLeod's Cassie W. made a splendid showing both horses taking third place in their respective classes.

Parish of Brighton S.S. Convention will be held at Cloverdale on Tuesday, June 29 at 2:30 and 7:30. Will all schools please send delegates and as many others as possible? All are welcome.

L. R. Hetherington of Riverside, Albert Co., is in town having arrived here yesterday with his wife's remains. He was accompanied on his sad mission by Rev. I. B. Colwell of Albert and his sister, Mrs. Mason of St. John.

Ostermoor Mattresses are made, first, to give absolute comfort, second to be absolutely sanitary, and third, to give long years satisfactory service. They are built of pure white chemically prepared cotton, made in standard sizes. Carr sells them.

Wilnot Lipsett of Charleston was here on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. H. Morrison is recovering from an attack of diphtheria.

Vince Fewer of Lakeville was a caller at The Observer office on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hayward and master Norris leave this evening for Montreal.

The Urban Stock Co. is billed to play in Star Theatre two nights—June 28-29.

Ralph Robinson who is attending the Business college at Fredericton came home on Saturday.

Pulpwood wanted—highest prices for peeled or green. Call A. A. Rideout, N. B. or Farmers' phone, Hartland.

The stores of the town will be closed tomorrow afternoon, inaugurating the Friday half-holiday that is to be observed until the end of August.

Mrs. Walter Hay of Woodstock has been visiting at the home of C. S. Baker. Returning she was accompanied by her grandsons, Aubrey and Allen Baker.

Miss Jennie Boyer has accepted a position as stenographer and book keeper with J. Clark & Son. Miss Hazel Baker is soon to be transferred to the Woodstock office.

The road from Hartland to Woodstock on the eastern side of the river has at last had long needed repairs made upon it and in a short time should be in first class condition for motor or other traffic.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hagerman left on Monday evening for a tour of the Canadian west. Their extreme destination is Vancouver, where they will visit Mrs. Hagerman's brother, Harry Paget. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Tinker in Ottawa.

The house and laundry of H. Y. Tommy is quarantined with diphtheria.

Vitriol and Bug Poison at last year's prices to early buyers at S. W. Smith's.

Mrs. Gertrude Day has gone to Smyrna Mills to live with her son, Charles Gallupe.

Mrs. George Boyer spent a portion of last week at Edmundston acting as court stenographer.

Call at Keith & Plummer's Ltd. and see their bargains on millinery. They have reduced the prices.

Mrs. Leigh H. Estey who has been confined to her bed for some time with lung trouble is slowly improving.

Ford Car for sale—in good running order, equipped with all new tires. Ask about it of H. Y. Tommy, Hartland.

Stove For Sale—An Enterprise Monarch steel range as good as new. Call and see it at McQuarrie & Dickinson's.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Davis and Miss Elinor Davis out-of-town guests in attendance at the Adams-Davis wedding.

Keith & Plummer Ltd., have a good supply of blue vitriol and different kinds of bug poisons which will be sold at a low price.

Estey & Curtis Co., have a number of barrels suitable for mixing Bordeaux or for batching rain water which they will sell cheap.

On Tuesday evening a large delegation of the Women's Institute of Hartland motored to East Florenceville to pay a fraternal visit to the Institute at that place.

The building wherein is situated the express office has been moved from its position on Main street to Depot street. This was done to make room for the Bank of Montreal building the erection of which is soon to begin.

The musicale given by Miss Alvaretta Estabrooks and her pupils on Friday evening was listened to by a highly appreciated audience and the work of the pupils reflected credit on their teacher and upon themselves. Of this event The Observer has heard nothing but words of praise and commendation.

The following are taking the High School entrance exams in the Hartland Superior school: Josephine Small, Mildred Orser, Madeline Peoples, Agnes Waters, Marion Donkin, Basil Hoyt, Molly Neales, Hilda Nevers and Charles Barter of the Hartland school; Marv Birmingham from Victoria; and Eldon Simms, Jackson Giberon and Arnold Wilson from Bath.

Victory Lodge Knights of Pythias, No. 36, of Bath observed Memorial day by attending in body divine service in the United Baptist church of Bath on June 13 at 2:30 p.m. Rev. C. O. Howlett, B.A., B.D., delivered an impressive sermon using as his subject "Friends Forever." The local choir rendered most acceptably music for the occasion.

House Cleaning means NEW WALL PAPER

We will have a complete stock in a few days. Our last Shipment is on the road. We have this year the largest and best assortment ever and the prices are right. Look over our Sample Book.

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries

Dry Goods

Furniture

FISHING TACKLE

We have the finest assortment of Rods, Flies, Lines, Hooks, Reels, Bait Cans, etc., in town.

Come let us fix you up for this healthful Sport.

Garden Tools, Hoes, Rakes, etc.

C. R. DeWITT Everything Worth while in HARDWARE

Fresh, rich, full-flavored tea—the same every time

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

Sold only in sealed packages

C. of E. Picnic JULY 1

This is sure to be one of the most important events of the season in this part of the country. Elaborate plans are being made to refresh and entertain a multitude.

There will be all the well known Picnic SPORTS and a host of new attractions. Lots of fun every minute; something doing all the time. You are invited to come early and stay until the lights go out. Bring your family if you have one, your best girl if you haven't, and spend a pleasant afternoon and evening with us.

SUPPER SERVED ON THE GROUNDS

Races, Contest, Merry-go-Round, Dolls, Bowling, Cocoa Nut Shies, Rifle Target, Fortune Teller, and Fire Works Toys and Gimcracks for the kiddies.

This space is donated by G. Murray McLeod, Insurance Agent