Twamley, of the last named place. Investigation and inquiry were immediately set under way, with the result that although Mr. Shine maintained that the picture was that of his dog, the Canadian Kennel Club found that the charge of misrepresentation was established. The matter was dealt with at the quarterly meeting of the club last week. The original photo sent by Mr. Shine as representing Badger Boy was produced; also photos from the owner of Tipperary Tyke. After careful examination they were pronounced identical even to the minor defects in the prints. Mr. Shine also sent a drawing of Badger Boy, recently made. It was decided, on motion of Messrs. Macdonald and Sands, that for violation of rule 23 James Shine be suspended for two years, and that an apology to the owner of Tipperary Tyke, to the printer in the Canadian Kennel Gazette, be demanded.

SOME SNAPSHOTS AT SPORTS AND SPORTSMEN

There is not much likelihood of Fred Bartl and Conkle's Unknown coming together on the mat in Bartl's present visit to this city. Conkle left for Kansas City yesterday, and he has engagements which will keep him away for three weeks. Joe Ullman, known from New York to California as a sporting man and bookmaker, died in New York at the Amityville Sanitarium, of brain trouble. Mr. Ullman had been ill a year or more. He took a trip to California for his health a year ago and returned here last spring somewhat benefited. Some time ago his friends placed him in the Amityville Sanitarium for treatment. Chaucer Elliott, the well-known Rugby coach, may take a permanent position with the Montreal A. A. A. as coach and athletic adviser. PEARCE MADE A CREDITABLE SHOWING.

Indian Who Left Here at 10 Ran Into Toronto a Little After 5.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—One of the greatest feats in the history of Canadian athletics was made yesterday by Claude Pearce, the Irish-Canadian distance runner, who ran from Hamilton to Toronto in a raging blizzard, a distance of over 41 miles. Pearce left the Hamilton City Hall at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and at 5:29 last evening he bounded up the steps of the Toronto City Hall on the jump. He was not perceptibly fatigued, and stated that he was ready to run another twenty miles if anybody thought he was unequal to the task. Clad in a light sweater and short running breeches, which scarcely covered his thighs, Pearce set out from Hamilton, while people who had gathered to see the start ridiculed the idea of his attempting such a gigantic task as to cover the lonely lake shore road, with its treacherous footing of snow-covered ice and deep ruts. Pearce was attended by Lou Marsh, of the L. C. A. C., but the latter's bicycle broke down at Burlington, and the runner plodded on alone along the bleak wind and snow-swept "road" which skirts the banks of Lake Ontario, until Oakville was reached, at which point his attendant caught up to him in a train, and Manager Flanagan, of the Irish-Canadians, met him with an automobile, fully expecting to have to carry him home. Pearce would not listen to such a suggestion, and Flanagan saw that he was quite fit and ready to finish without assistance. The mercury, which registered many points below freezing throughout the trip, was dropping rapidly, and the runner, donned some thin underwear at this point. He had his ankles and knees well plastered with vaseline, which kept the joints from stiffening up in the cold. Tommy Longboat, the great Indian, patted Pearce on the back when he arrived in Toronto, and stated that it was a great feat, indeed, especially under the conditions which prevailed. Pearce is not yet nineteen years of age, but is big and very strong for his age. His performance is a striking example of what persistence will do. Last August he made his initial appearance as a runner, when he started five minutes ahead of Longboat in a five-mile exhibition at Oakville Fair. When he had run a short time Manager Flanagan said: "Pearce, you had better quit running. You are not a runner, and never will be if I again." Pearce resented the insinuation, but said nothing, and resolved to show his friends that he could run. He kept at work on the roads, and ran very well indeed in several races late in the fall and on New Year's Day at Burlington. Pearce gets a gold medal and the Mulqueen Cup for his great performance. One which the peerless Tommy Longboat failed to accomplish in November, when all the conditions were much better than yesterday.

Ontario Motor League Held Annual Meeting.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—The formation of a chauffeurs' bureau for the purpose of securing that only the most reliable drivers may be employed was decided at the annual meeting of the Ontario Motor League held last night in the King Edward. It was also decided to urge on the Government the necessity of granting increased aid for the improvement of main roads throughout the province and to urge legislation favoring the use of wide tires on all vehicles. The membership fee was increased from $2.50 to $5. It was decided to remain in affiliation with the Royal Automobile Club, of which the King is patron. The automobile show to be held in this city next month will be under the auspices of the league, and during the show a convention of motorists from all parts of the province will be held in the city. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $457. The officers elected were: President, A. Russell; Vice-president, William Doherty; Directors, G. H. Gooderham, Toronto; O. Hezlewood, Oshawa; Paul J. Myler, Hamilton; Lloyd Harris, Brantford; F. F. Miller, Napanee; W. W. Doran, Niagara Falls; A. E. Chatterton, F. E. Mutton, Noel Marshall, William Stone, George Graham and J. C. Eaton, all of Toronto. Mr. E. M. Wilcox is secretary-treasurer. Mr. Noel Marshall presided.

Canadian Cockfighters Cleaned Up at Buffalo.

Buffalo, Jan. 24.—Buffalo lovers of the cock fighting game who are willing to back their birds and judgment with coin of the realm were given a tremendous cleaning up by a coterie of Canadians headed by a man named Finnegan, of Toronto, yesterday morning. A big man, attended by about seventy-five sports from this city and a small but select bunch from Canada, was held just over the Erie County line, and although the enthusiasm brought the spectators to the cheering point several times, there was no sign of any disturbance of the enjoyment. The place where the battles were fought is isolated from the ordinary paths of travel and as all arrangements were made with the greatest secrecy and caution only invited guests were present. The Canadians came here loaded to the gunwales with money which they were willing to wager on their stock, and that they had a choice collection of birds is evidenced by the fact that they carried off the booty in bulging pockets. It is said that not one of the local bird's backers escaped and that such a thorough cleaning up has not been known in inter-city mains in years. Thirty-two birds were weighed in before the main opened, but only eleven battles were necessary, the Canadians winning the necessary seven while the Buffalo birds could only crowd in four. The Canucks started right off the reel with a brace of winners and the Buffalo birds captured the third and fifth battles, winning also the eighth and tenth. All the others fell to the batlers' extreme pity by the bunch from over one. Such extreme caution was observed and the hour of starting was so late that it was near daylight when the victors and vanquished straggled back into the city by various routes, for as much care was taken in covering their return as before the event. The exact amount of money won and lost probably cannot be definitely stated, but it is said that the Buffalo bunch is about $12,000 poorer since the affair. LEWIS SCORED A KNOCKOUT. New Haven, Conn., Jan. 24.—Harry Lewis, of Philadelphia, by a left swing to the jaw, knocked out Frank Mantell, of Providence, R. I., holder of the welterweight championship, in the third round of his twelve-round bout last night. The unexpected ending coming when Mantell had risen to his feet after a knockdown in which his head struck the

Gets a Member of Canadian Kennel Club into Trouble. Toronto, Jan. 24.—Last November the front page of the Canadian Kennel Gazette was adorned with a portrait of a very fine specimen of the Irish terrier, which was labelled Badger Boy, the property of Jas. Shine, of Gananoque. Very shortly Editor H. B. Donovan, who is also secretary of the Canadian Kennel Club, was advised from points as widely separated as Victoria, B. C., and Sible Hedingham, Essex, England, that the picture was suspiciously like that of a certain Tipperary Tyke, owned by Dr.

Mr. Fred Milnes, captain of the Pilgrims, the famous English football club which made a tour of Canada in 1903, writing to a friend here, ridicules the idea of Mr. Parker, the football promoter, who announced some time ago that he was going to bring the Civil Service team to Canada next season. "In the first place," says Mr. Milne, "Mr. Parker has no football standing here and his influence and efforts will only be of a very moderate character."

boards with a crash which was heard all over the hall. He held his title by recent defeat of Honey Meloy. Lewis, upon winning, stated he would challenge Billy Papke for the middleweight title. Mantell and Lewis weighed in at 142 pounds.

Boston, Jan. 24.—Frank Gotch defeated Jim Sweeney in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling bout here last night. The match was held at Columbia Music Hall and fully four thousand spectators witnessed the battle. The champion won the first fall in 16 minutes and the second in four minutes. Bob Fitzsimmons, the noted fighter, acted as referee.
