

TO BE SOLD

THE Farm at present in the occupation of Mr. Andrew Smith, at the Corner Rye, Ontario. For particulars apply to the office of T. HEATH HAVILLAND, Esq., Barrister at Law, Charlottetown, April 25th, 1856.

"ALBION HOUSE," STURTELL & COUCHMAN, D. Lottor and his widow, that they have taken the store lately occupied by Mrs. M. H. VAN KIN, and have opened it under the above title with a magnificent stock of goods.

DRY GOODS MOST EXTENSIVE STOCK OF NEARLY DECORATION.

This stock having been purchased with great accuracy for taste, variety, quality, and cheapness, would be surpassed by that of any house in the island. It would be impossible in the space of an advertisement to participate in the merits of the various articles. The stock is large, and well assorted.

Dresses, Silks, Shawls, Mantles, &c. In making this announcement, we trust the public will encourage us in this undertaking, and we pledge ourselves to carry on this business in a fair and honorable manner, and to offer to purchasers advantages which will be no doubt, be appreciated.

STURTELL & COUCHMAN, CHARLOTTETOWN, May, 17, 1856.

A NEW WAY OF MAKING MONEY.

When he had gone, I started back to my chamber, and fell into the arms of my dear wife. How long I continued there, I cannot say.

My wife was now highly excited, and I accompanied her to the dining-room.

I sat down at the table, and you opened the door, and I immediately went to the hall.

The young man said the gentleman with an air of excitement, and immediately went to the hall.
