J E. COLLINS..... EDITOI TWO PICTURES.

This is what the great Edmund Burke says of the duty of a Representative. We want Mr. Snowball a: c his friends to read it :-

" It is the duty of your parliamenta ry representative to sacrifice hi repassand his pleasures to yours, an above all. TO PREFER IN ALL CASE YOUR INTEREST TO HIS OWN."

OUR COLUMNS.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the general condition of our columns. The STAR contain more original news, the same madup mostly of industrial notes, in one issue, than any other paper in the province, in one issue. We do no edit our paper with a scissors, cutting out two or three columns of drear stupid stuff; but we endeavour to give a little of everything, rather than dose of one thing, and nothing at al of another. We have a large staff of contributors, who, as our readers can see, keep us informed of everything of note that transpires within the area of our circulation; and this is the reason why scarce a day passes that we do not add half a dozen subscribers to our list. The paper that interests itself in the affairs of the people and chronicles the events pasing among and around them, and notes every effort made in the way of improvement or industry, is the pape the people will buy. We do not care about sounding our own trumpet, at we are of the opinion that deedspeak louder than words; but w would just call the attention of on readers to our local columns to da They are literally filled with shor interesting news items, gleaned from Chatham, Newcastle and suburb -: from our river, form our coast, from the fishing places, and all the industrial points. It is because the STAL is so brimful of home news, and fa off things, in few words, that our circulation is increasing so rap'dly, while we have not a canvasser in the

In a few days an employe of the Star will go out up m a sum ner's work of canvassing for our paper. He will first visit all parts of Northumberland, then he will go to Gloucester and when he has finished therhe will proceed to Restigonchelocal agent will be appointed for Kent. Already we have a very large circu lation. We began here with our ful FredericionSTAR list; and those readers have not deserted us. Since coming here, we have been marvellously successful in getting subscrib ers; so that to day there is no paper in the province, outsi le some of the dailies, that comes anywhere nea the circulation of the two issues of the NORTH STAR.

We call the attention of businesmen to the above facts.
