DWELLING BURNED

Mr. John Brennan of Bartibogue had his house destroyed by fire on Tuesday last. The fire started, it is supposed, from a defective stove pipe. Very little was saved, and there was no insurance. Mr. Brennan lives alone and is about 80 years of age.

THE RIFLE RANGE

The competition on the rifle range on May 24 was not finished at all three ranges, and it has been decided to call it a practice. Tuesday, June 7 has been chosen as the date of the first competition for the Dominion silver salver, shooting to begin both at 10 a. m. and at 1.30 p. m. By having a few finish in the forenoon, it is hoped that more rapid progress will be made in the afternoon. All four targets will be in position, and everything possible will be done to avoid delays. There will be practice on the range every Wednesday afternoon.

RURAL DEANERY MEETING

The clergy of the Rural Deanery of Chatham held a very interesting and profitable meeting at St. Paul's Rectory, Chatham, on the 25th and 26th insts. There were present Rev. Canon Smithers, Diocesan Missioner, Rev. W. J. Bate, of Dalhousie, Rev. F. W. M. Bacon, of Richibucto, Rev. W. Nicholls, of Newcastle, and Rev. F. H. Thomas, of Harcourt. In addition to the conference of the clergy there were interesting and appropriate services in St. Mary's Chapel-of-Ease and a congregational reunion at the Rectory. The visiting clergymen returned to their several homes Friday, much cheered by the profitable chapter meeting.

MANAGERS' ASSOCIATION

Mr. A. Russell is a member of the Eastern Theatre Manager's Association which was organized recently in Truro. The new association should result in the bringing of several first class companies to the provinces during the coming season and Newcastle should receive her share of the performance.

DIED YESTERDAY

The death of Mr. George Grossman occurred yesterday about noon, after an illness of about four months of heart trouble. Mr. Grossman, who was in his 64th year has been conducting a fruit store here for some time and leaves a wife and two children. The remains were taken to St. John's this morning for burial. Messrs. Mullin & Hogan were the undertakers.

EMERSON

A pleasing entertainment was held in the Emerson School on the afternoon of the 23rd. The school was prettily decorated for the occasion, by the teacher Mrs. M. Allenach. The program consisted of lessons on the flag, a History lesson, also songs and recitations. After which Rev. R. H. Staver addressed the children also Mr. McGloin.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Beers a daughter, on the 19th.

Mr. William Stevens of Sunny Brae visited friends on Harley Road and Emerson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Havelock Fraser who have been spending the past few months in Maine, have returned to their home in Silver Town.

DIED SUDDENLY

R. H. L. Young, a prominent fish merchant and general dealer of Carleton Place, expired suddenly Thursday night. Deceased retired about 10 o'clock in his usual health and passed suddenly away at 11. He was the eldest son of the late Hon. E. Young of Carleton Place. Mr. Fred Young, of Carleton Place, is a brother. He married Miss Ferguson, of Bathurst, who, with four or five children survive. The bereaved family have the heartiest sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS

The Sisters and pupils of St. Mary's Academy gratefully acknowledge Mr. P. Wheeler's gift of a gold medal, to be awarded to the young lady who has made the best record in Piano Playing and Theory during the school year ending June 22nd. All other contributions to the prize fund will be most gratefully received. Mother Superior requests that, if possible, such contributions be sent in before June 19th.

SHERIFF O'BRIEN'S BOAT

The handsome new boat owned by High Sheriff John O'Brien, of Nelson, was launched at Chatham on Wednesday morning, when Mr. O'Brien was preparing to come to Newcastle. The new boat was constructed by the Miramichi Poultry Company and is called the J. O. B. She took to the water in excellent style. The boat was built under the supervision of Daniel Desmond and the model was designed by Captain Bullock.

BLAME THE MANAGEMENT

The Coroner's jury, euphemistically to enquire into the death of Baggage-master John Casey, who was killed in the collision at Nauyasewauk, on the 24th returned a verdict after a rigid enquiry, placing the cause of the accident to the negligence of the Intercolonial Railway management. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Wetmore at Hampton. Frederick H. Wetmore was foreman of the jury, which strongly condemned the board of management in the verdict.

REGRET DEPARTURE

A correspondent says:—It is with feelings of much regret that the travelling public as well as the people of Richibucto have heard of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Copp from the "Kent Hotel". This Hotel which is one of the oldest in New Brunswick attained a popularity under their good management which made it rank as one of the best in the Province. Good table, cleanliness, and quietness ever being the predominating features, so that the many guests who had found it a "Home" in every sense of the word. Mr. and Mrs. Copp in returning to Newcastle take with them the best wishes of every one in Richibucto and the hope that Mrs. Copp (who has never left the Hotel for a single day) will rapidly regain her usual good health.

BASE BALL

The first baseball game of the season between Newcastle and Chatham, was played here yesterday and attracted considerable attention, showing the great interest that still holds to the fine sport. The line up was as follows: Newcastle—Jas. Murphy, catcher; Harry Graham, pitcher; Leslie Miller, 1st base; Percy Lindon, 2nd base; Geo. Habert, 3rd base; Havelock Ingram s. s.; Bryan Hennessey, r. f.; Gordon Turner, c. f.; Percy McLean, l. f. Chatham—Perry, catcher; Hanley, pitcher; May, 1st base; Godfrey, 2nd base; Pineau, 3rd base; Synot, s. s.; Corrie, r. f.; Mills, c. f.; Pineau r. f. Two games were played and were both well played from start to finish, ending with a score of 33, in favor of Newcastle. The evening game was captured by Chatham, score 63. Mr. Wm. Durick umpired the afternoon game and showed good judgment in his decisions. Mr. Wm. Ashford was umpire for the evening game and gave good satisfaction. Mayor McMurdo threw the first ball. It is to be hoped that this sport will be kept up during the present season.

One Dose for Coughs

Children cough at night? Give them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Often a single dose at bedtime will completely control the cough. Good for any one with a cold or cough. Good for easy cases, hard cases; good for acute cases, chronic cases. Ask your doctor to tell you, honestly and frankly, just what he thinks of this old standard remedy. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

A lazy liver makes a lazy boy. An active brain demands an active liver. No better laxative for boys and girls than Ayer's Pills. Ask your doctor about them. No known.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Monday, June 6th being the fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Paulin's marriage, they will be at home to their friends from two to five and seven to nine in the evening.

OFF FOR THE WEST

H. Havelock Ingram left last night on the Maritime Express for Medicine Hat, Alberta, where he has accepted a good position with the C. P. R. Mr. Ingram was a most popular and obliging official of the I. C. R. here, and by his departure the East has lost and the West has gained a most desirable citizen. Mr. Ingram carries with him first-class recommendations as to character and efficiency and has the best wishes of the community. On the eve of his departure he received many tangible tokens of his friends' respect and esteem.

Percy Harriman, late of the I. R. C. service here left last night for Moosejaw to enter the service of the C. P. R. Mr. Harriman was popular and will be much missed.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Russell are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter on Sunday last.

VISIT TO ENGLAND

Mr. Arthur Peake, millerton, left last week for a visit to his old home in London, England. Mr. Peake has made many friends during his three year residence here, who wish him a pleasant trip.

DISTURBANCE ON TRAIN

A young man returning from the drive made quite a disturbance in a first-class car on Saturday the 22nd inst., using abusive and profane language while under the influence of liquor. I. C. R. Inspector Noble was soon on his trail and followed the young man to his home down the river. He was brought to Newcastle and appeared before Magistrate Maltby and was severely dealt with. Mr. Noble deserves credit for the way he is looking after the interests of the travelling public, in keeping a sharp eye on those who attempt to make things unpleasant.
