"Wheep it up." Probably one of the most difficult com-plaints to doctor is whooping cough.
When treated by ordinary means the poor victim is left to whoop it up as best he can. Hasyard's Pectoral Balsam gives relief in this as well as in all throat, bronchial, and lung troubles. 2

A good authority says that a teappoon-ful of hop yeast taken every two hours or between the medicines, in cases of diphtheria, scarlet fever or sore throat, is very beneficial and has been known to give relief and work a cure in desperate

A Wide Range A wide range of painful affections may be met with Hanyard's Yellow Oil. James M. Lawson, of Woodville, Ont., speaks of it in high terms for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, and many painful complaints too numerous to mention. It is used internally or externally. 2

An experienced horseman says : "To eep the saow from balling on the hoofs of horses, clean out the feet and give them a coat of tar." He avers they can travel for days after this remedy has been applied, and will not ball. It is simple and well worth a trial.

This agreeable yet potent preparation is especially adapted for the relief and cure of that class of disorders attendant upon a low or reduced state of the system, and usually accompanied by Pallor, Weakness and Palpitation of the Heart. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of Suddien Exhaustion arising from Loss of Blood, Acute or Chronic Diseases, and in the weakness that invariably accompanies the recovery from Wasting Fevers. No remedy will give more speedy relief in Dyspepsia or Indigestion, its action on the stomach being that of a gentle and harmless vonic, exciting the organs of harmless conic, exciting the organs of digestion to action, and thus affording immediate and permanent relief. The immediate and permanent relief The carminative properties of the different aromatics which the Elixir contains render it useful in Flatulent Dyspepsia. It is a valuable remedy for Atonic Dyspepsia, which is apt to occur in persons of a gouty character.

For Impoverished Blood, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, and in all cases where an effective and certain stimulant is required the Elixir will be found invaluable.

In Fevers of a Malarial Type, and the various evil results following exposure to the cold or wet weather, it will prove a valuable restorative, as the
