Evening Telegram

W. J. HERDER, - - Proprietor
W. F. LLOYD, - - - - Editor

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 15th, 1913.

The "Evening Herald" APOLOGISES To 'Evening Telegram' And Pays Costs of Libel Suit.

The HERALD, on the 7th inst., contained the following editorial note:

"The claims of the Telegram's 'circulation liar' remind us strongly of its boasts as to 'victory all along the line' in the late political campaign."

On the 8th inst.:

The proprietor and editor of the TELEGRAM commenced an action for libel against the Herald Co. and its managing director, alleging that the foregoing reflected upon a statement as to its circulation purporting to be sworn to by Mr. W. J. Herder which the TELEGRAM had published on the 2, 3, and 4th inst., and to a statement as to its New Year circulation published over its editorial columns by the TELEGRAM on the 6th inst.

It has been arranged between the parties to the action for libel that it shall be discontinued on condition that a complete and unequivocal apology shall be published in the HERALD, and the costs of the action be paid by the defendants. In pursuance of this agreement, the HERALD now tenders an apology for the utterance complained of, declaring that it did not intend to reflect, and does not reflect on the veracity of Mr. Herder or Mr. Lloyd, and did not and does not question that the circulation of the TELEGRAM has been accurately represented.

The representation of the circulation, as published in the Evening Telegram on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th inst., was contained in a statement sworn to by the Proprietor, Mr. W. J. Herder, before Judge Knight. The statement showed the daily issue for every day of publication for the year 1912, and showed in short an average circulation of 5,104; and the second representation was published on the 6th inst. in the Evening Telegram, showing the circulation on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th of January of this year to have been 5,564, 5,518 and 5,625, respectively.

How Morris is Making Good.

McGrath declares Morris is making good. But the people of Bay Roberts don't seem to think so. They, at all events, were not very enthusiastic about Sir Edward Morris's arrival, according to accounts which have now reached us from reliable correspondents.

According to one account which reached us from the police to meet him at the Bay Roberts station. There are always a few congregated there when the train comes in, and when Sir Edward arrived there were fifteen persons present, and this included mailmen, carmen, etc. The number of influential citizens who met him consisted of Messrs. Russell, Jardine, Martin Sharpe and Albert Morgan. The reception was poor, and there were few flags flying.

The meeting opened in the Orange Hall at 3 p.m. As Morris and Parsons headed by Piccott, walked up to the platform three cheers were called for Coaker, and heartily given; very weak applause for the others.

Sir Edward spoke for about three quarters of an hour. He tried to show he had carried out all his 1908 promises. He dwelt on the extraordinary boon he had conferred on fishermen by offering a pension of $50.00 a year on a number of them.

He also touched upon the increase in the school grants, told of the railway branches he was building, of the erection of lighthouses and Marconi stations and of its passing of the Labrador steamer Bill.

He tried to make a point of the suspending the duty on hay this fall. But we do not hear that he had anything to say about his failure to take duty of the prime necessities of life.

Nor did we learn that he had explained about his failure to make good his promise about cheapening coal. He told of his having taxed the Bell Island companies and the Cable companies. But we heard nothing of his failure in the dispute with the Commercial Cable Company, nor why he had found it necessary to go to the London market for a second railway loan, after promising to complete the railways with the first loan.

McMurdo's Store News.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 15, '13.
We have just received and now have on sale a fresh lot of Menthol and Eucalyptus Pastilles. These lozenges are found by many people to be the most effective means of preventing or curing coughs and colds, loss of voice and throat troubles generally. In some cases of catarrh and colds in the head, too, they have done good work, checking the running from the nose and clearing the nasal passages. Our Menthol and Eucalyptus Pastilles are freshly made and of full strength. Price 25c. a tin.

Cream of Lilies will cure those chapped hands and make them as smooth and soft as they would be in the "good old summer time." Price 25c. a crock.

Supreme Court.

Before the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Johnson.)

Arthur Barrett and Nahtan Barrett vs. James H. Loughlan, Trustee.
On motion of Kent, K. C., for plaintiffs, and by consent of Mr. Fenelon, for the defendant, the hearing of the argument in this case was adjourned till Monday, February the 3rd.

The King vs. Spracklin.
To-day, at 11.30 judgment was given in the appeal brought by the prisoner against the conviction at Harbor Grace.

The Chief Justice read his judgment, which was a lengthy one, and held that the appeal must be dismissed and the conviction upheld.

The judgment of Mr. Justice Emerson was then read by the Chief Justice and was to the effect that the appeal should be allowed, and the conviction quashed.

Mr. Justice Johnson then read his judgment, concurring with the Chief Justice.

Mr. Justice Johnson then pronounced sentence, which was that the prisoner be confined in the Penitentiary for two years with hard labour, sentence to run from the date of commitment.

Have you heard the Chimes in Cochrane St. Church Organ? Attend the Recital, Thursday evening, at 8.15, when there will be solos by Misses Herder and Vincent and Mr. Bugles, last. Yesterdays and this forenoon they made a thorough search of the country roads in the West End, but up to dinner hour to-day had found no tidings of him. If exposed to the weather of the past few nights, must have perished. Byrne's friends say he was always in the habit of visiting wharves as he carried on a cooperage business and there is a slight theory that his body may be found in the waters of the harbor.

FURNESS LINE.—The s.s. Almeriana, which put into Queenstown for repairs, leaves for here on Saturday. The s.s. Tabasco will leave Liverpool on Saturday for this port. The s.s. Durango leaves Liverpool about the middle of February for here.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS!

We thank you very much for your patronage throughout the past year—1912, and extend our Good Wishes to you all for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

We have met with great success in our three preparations, namely, Stafford's Liniment, Prescription "A" and Phoratorne Cough Cure.

All our customers having placed an order with us can firmly recommend them to everyone.

These preparations are sold in almost every prominent business establishment in Newfoundland; this alone proves them to be genuine. Testimonials are being received by us every mail as to their results and can be seen at any time by calling at our office.

Again thanking you one and all for your kindness and assure you that whatever business we receive from you will be greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Funeral of Mrs. Whitemarsh.

Owing to the non-arrival of the train, the funeral of the late Mrs. Whitemarsh, mother of the Rev. C. A. Whitemarsh, M.A., did not leave the Parsonage until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Notwithstanding the severe weather the funeral was largely attended by members of the city congregations. The casket, which was supplied by Undertaker Collier, was literally adorned with choice wreaths sent by the members of the Official Boards of Cochrane Street Church, the Sunday School, the Young Ladies' Teachers Training Class and other friends. The services at the Parsonage and at the graveside were conducted by the Revs. Drs. Curtis, Rogers, Fenwick, Rev. P. R. Matthews and Rev. J. W. Bartlett.

Coastal Boats.

The s.s. Portia left Bonne Bay at 11 a.m. to-day.
No word of the Prospero was received.

Lawrence Byrne Still Missing.

Two police officers and a number of the missing man's friends, are continuing the search for Lawrence Byrne, who disappeared on Sunday last. Yesterday and this forenoon they made a thorough search of the country roads in the West End, but up to dinner hour to-day had found no tidings of him. If exposed to the weather of the past few nights, must have perished. Byrne's friends say he was always in the habit of visiting wharves as he carried on a cooperage business and there is a slight theory that his body may be found in the waters of the harbor.

FUNERAL ON FRIDAY.

It has been decided that the funeral of the late John W. Green will take place on Friday afternoon at 2.30.

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Removes All Sour Bile, Gas, Headache, Constipation.

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious, and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion; the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs. Isn't it foolish to be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs to-night, sure, and just see for yourself how gently but thoroughly it works.

Stafford's Liniment, Prescription "A" and Phoratorne Cough Cure for sale at Knowledge's Grocery Department.—Jan. 21, 13

There are various ways of saving money. One of them is not to buy a pair of field glasses for the purpose of watching a comet.

When a man is "up" the people call him "Uncle Joe" or "Honest Joe." When he is "down" they call him "Old Joe."

When a man is "up" the people call him "Uncle Joe" or "Honest Joe." When he is "down" they call him "Old Joe."

When a man is "up" the people call him "Uncle Joe" or "Honest Joe." When he is "down" they call him "Old Joe."

oughly all the sour bile, undigested fermenting food and clogged up waste matter is moved on and out of your system—no nausea—no griping—no weakness.

You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with delicious Syrup of Figs you are not drugging yourself. Bile is composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it can not injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse, with scorn, any of the so-called Fig Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you. Look on the label. The genuine, old reliable, self by morning, how gently but thoroughly it works.
