Dear Sir,

We beg to draw your attention to the advantages offered, both in the way of security and privacy, by our Safety Deposit system which has recently been installed in our vault. The system is the most modern and complete that is known, and is deposited in a vault of exceptional strength and safety. The boxes are individual and can only be opened with the joint aid of the key in the possession of the Company and that in the custody of the customer. They are of solid metal and are arranged in nests of fifty, so that no box can be removed from the vault separately from the rest.

The boxes are rented at $4.00, $5.00 up to $20.00 a year, according to size. An inspection of the installation is invited.

Annual Outing of Ropewalk Employees.

The employees of the Colonial Cordage Co. and their lady friends held their annual outing yesterday under ideal weather conditions, and the affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable of its kind held in recent years.

At 10 o'clock a special train left the station for the "Octagon" conveying about 150 persons on pleasure bent. Upon arrival at the grounds a series of games was started by the committee in charge of the outing and continued until dinner was served.

After dinner games were again indulged in, and by the evening train some thirty guests arrived to take part in the festivities.

At 7.30 p.m. all sat down to a sumptuous supper which was presided over by Mr. J. H. Monroe, Managing Director of the Company. After tea Hon. John Anderson and Mr. A. Hiscock on behalf of the guests made congratulatory references to the management to which Mr. Monroe replied in a pleasing manner. Upon resuming his seat he was cheered to the echo.

Following the supper an interesting programme of dances was gone through, the music being furnished by the Myron O'Grady orchestra.

The outing committee of management were: Messrs. N. Murphy, Chairman, T. Pike, Secretary, with E. Pike, J. Lundrigan, J. Kearney and W. Duff to whom congratulations are due for the success of the day's outing.

Mr. James Vey was present and took several photos. Dancing was kept up until an early hour this morning, and return to the city was made by special train at 3 a.m.

Cure Children's Colds By External Treatment.

Mothers Will Find Nothing so Speedy and Reliable as Old-Time "Nerviline."

It's really a shame to upset a young child's stomach by internal dosing, when external treatment will so promptly break up a cold.

When your boy comes in after play with his feet soaking wet, his throat hoarse and sore, his little chest tight and congested, just apply Nerviline. Give him a vigorous rubbing over his throat, and put lots of Nerviline on his chest and rub it right in.

To make Nerviline penetrate more quickly cover his chest and throat with a hot fannel bandage. This treatment WON'T fail. Your boy will be feeling better in half an hour, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing you have ward off perhaps a cold, or gripe, or illness that might have laid him up.

Nerviline is mighty good for preventing colds and for breaking up a bad one, too. For general family use it cures all sorts of external aches and pains—you simply can't beat it. Try it for carache, toothache, neuralgia, sciatica, lame back, rheumatism, or lumbago. Wherever there is congestion, inflammation or pain in the joints or muscles, Nerviline will cure mighty quick. The large 50c. family size bottle is so economical, so useful, it should be in every home. There is also a small 25c. size. Dealers anywhere sell Nerviline.

The Panama Canal

And a Two Reel Drama To-Day's Features.

The public of St. John's who have read or heard a great deal about the great canal that has joined the waters of the Pacific and Atlantic, but who have never had the opportunity to visit the wonderful feat of workmanship will be enabled to do so to-day by travelling with the moving picture man through the great connecting link. The picture from "Ocean to Ocean" describes in detail the entrance to the artificial river together with the great locks and the passage of a large steamer from one side to the other.

The headliner of the features is the two reel production: "For the Man she Loved," by the Eclair Company. "Percy Needed a Rest," is the comedy worth while seeing, an I. M. P. laugh producer. Miss Alice Clark, prima donna, sings the ballad: "Just a Little Love." The feature for Wednesday and Thursday is a comedy: "A Possibility," a two reel retrospect of what man is coming to.

Minard's Linctment Co., Limited. Gentlemen,—In June, 98, I had my hand and wrist bitten and badly mangled by a vicious horse. I suffered greatly for several days and the tooth cuts refused to heal until your agent gave me a bottle of MINARD'S LINCTMENT, which I began using. The effect was magical; in five hours the pain had ceased and in two weeks the wounds had completely healed and my hand and arm were as well as ever.

Great Display of Patriotism

AT THE NICKEL.

Patriotism was at fever heat at the Nickel Theatre last evening. Never before in the history of this popular theatre was there such demonstrations of British feelings as last night. The program had been specially arranged for the occasion, and it made a great hit with all who saw it. His Majesty the King was seen reviewing the mighty British Fleet at Spithead, and also at the crowning of the colors in honour of His Birthday. Every time His Majesty appeared the audience applauded and cheered in the most enthusiastic manner. It was a wonderful display of patriotism. When the picture of Emperor William was presented, he was hissed. Mr. De Witt Cairns rendered the "Admiral's Broom." It is a patriotic song, just suited to the occasion and all who heard it were charmed. The other pictures were also of a high class. This evening the programme will be repeated. To-morrow the great social drama: "The Whimsical Threads of Destiny."

Fads and Fashions.

In Paris fur is being worn on lace hats—and the effect is not odd, but delightful.

Small knitted "bag caps" of silk ending in a long tassel are in great favor for sports.

Silver and gold embroidered lace and tulle trimmed with fur and velvet are already seen.

Although the new skirts are much fuller the materials are clinging and often transparent.

Light colored taffeta dresses flounced with lace are appropriate for garden party wear.

The cotton crepes and seersuckers used for children's dresses permit a great economy in laundry work.

The vogue of garish and eccentric colors is about over, to judge by the future for black and dark colors.

English eyelet embroidery is revived for lingerie dresses. Usually they have colored silk slips below.

A Summer Tale.

"You look irritated this evening." "I am—on warm days like this I always suffer from heat rash." "I am liable to heat rash, too, but it never irritates me; it never has since I began to use Zylex, which at once allays the irritation, physical and mental. And I had Zylex Soap with the Ointment go far to prevent heat rash altogether." Zylex sells at 50 cents a box; Zylex Soap at 25 cents a cake, at your Druggists. Zylex—London—July 18, 1914.

In Memoriam.

It is no mere form of words to say that the home of Patrick and Margaret Hayes is to day the saddest home in Newfoundland, for on the 2nd inst. the Angel of Death visited their once happy circle and claimed for its victim Edward Joseph, their only and beloved son. He was just in the bloom of manhood, he had just reached the age of 20 years.

From the youngest person to the oldest in Salmoner Edward was a favourite for he always had a word of joke and cheer.

He was never sick or delicate until October last, he had a little cold and cough but in a few days he was as well as ever except the cough remained with him. When anyone would speak to him of it he would say: "It's great company, that's all." He never absent himself from dances and other amusements during the winter, until March 1st, when he was taken very ill. Very Rev. Wm. O'Flaherty was called as a doctor but in spite of all medical aid it made clear that Edward had become the victim of the White Plague. Every week during his long illness Very Rev. Father O'Flaherty visited him and used to sit by his bedside and pour forth to him words of consolation and cheer. During five long months he suffered with patience without a murmur or complaint; he would only say: "I'm satisfied, God's Holy Will be done." His funeral took place from his home on Wednesday, at 7.30, and it was very largely attended. After Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Flaherty, his remains were peacefully laid to rest in St. Joseph's Cemetery where it will await the day of glorious resurrection. He leaves to mourn a father, mother and two sisters—Mrs. Kelly, of East Boston, and Miss Mary Hayes, Catholic Teacher, North Harbor. To these and other relatives we extend our sincerest sympathy. Salmoner, August 8th, 1914.

One of the features of the season is a touch of color in white dresses. Sometimes this touch is in the form of black velvet.
