JOHN B. AYRE.

Wedding Bells.

BUTLER—MORRIS.

On Nov. 17th, at the Wesley Church Parsonage, by the Rev. H. Royle, Mr. Charles Butler was united in wedlock to Miss Catherine Morris, both of Burlington. The bride, who was given away by her brother Mr. A. Morris, was charmingly gowned in cream silk and was supported by her step-sister Miss F. Richards, while the groom was supported by his brother Mr. E. Butler. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's father where the health of the bridal party was duly honored. The happy couple received many very handsome presents including a cheque, also telegrams of congratulation.

'MONTH'S MIND' FOR LATE ARCHBISHOP.—Yesterday at the R. C. Cathedral the Office for the Dead and Solemn Requiem, High Mass were sung as 'Month's Mind' for the repose of the soul of the late Archbishop Howley. Rt. Rev. Mons. Roche, V.G., administrator, was the celebrant of the mass and in the Sanctuary were the priests from the Cathedral, St. Patrick's and many of the nearby outports. The occasion was a very solemn one, the chanting of the Requiem renewing afresh the deep sorrow into which the Archdiocese was plunged a little over a month ago. A large congregation attended.
